

Betty Gleason Is New Librarian

By stepping into Ann Monahan's shoes is Betty Gleason the new assistant librarian. Besides her library duties, Miss Gleason works in Mr. Pickard's office and at the book store.

A graduate of the business college she was formerly employed by the principal of the school, Mr. Williams. When not working her favorite diversions are dancing and horse-back riding.