

Classified employee union at YSU wins awards

The Youngstown State University Association of Classified Employees has won a Five-Star Award from the Northeast Ohio Education Association.

The award is given to local affiliates of the OEA who are leaders in involvement with the association.

YSU-ACE, led by President Christine Domhoff, also was a winner in the NEOEA's Local Association Newsletter Contest. YSU-ACE publishes a bi-monthly newsletter to its 400 members and others on the YSU campus.

YSU-ACE represents administrative assistants, computer center, grounds, library, maintenance, secretaries and other classified employees on campus.
