Historical Sketch

The University Research Council was created to encourage research, scholarly activities, and creative works for faculty. Funding is available especially whenever other sources of project support are not available. Projects related to the scholarship of teaching, which will lead of publication, are also eligible for funding. All full-service faculty are eligible for URC Grant support, which is based on the submission of a short proposal to the Dean of Graduate Studies and the University Research Council. URC Grant funds may be used for¹:

- project technical assistance
- data collection travel
- materials and services

Scope and Content Note

The Research Council Records were created by the University Research Council and were deposited in Maag Library. The series in the collection is separated chronologically by type. Series I is dedicated to the Minutes of the Research Council from 1967-1969, 1972-1989. Series II involves the Correspondence of the committee from the years 1969 and 1974. Series III describes the procedures of the Research Council Grants from 1969. Series IV, the bulk of the collections, is the proposals submitted by faculty members who are applying for a grant within the years 1973-1991. The final series include materials related to the Curriculum committee from 1970-1984 that were found within the records of the research council.
