HQ for BLW Photos!
 "A BOON to rail historians, including Trains." So says David P. Morgan of the span (1860-1960), depth (8,000 photos), and service of H. L. Broadbelt's original collection of Baldwin Locomotive Works negatives. 100-page alphabetical index: $5 (including six 8 x 10 prints of your choice). Prints: 4 x 7 25¢; 8 x 10 50¢. If the engine bore a Baldwin plate, we've almost certainly got it—from 0-4-0 saddle tankers to Mallets. No wonder D.P.M. acclaim Broadbelt as "the Baldwin photo reference." Money back guarantee. No dealers, please; railfans only. Write: H. L. Broadbelt, 146 Princess Margaret Drive Newport News, Va. 23602

They Built Steam Locomotives

THIS information came from E.P. Alexander's book Iron Horses, published some years ago. Location and approximate dates in business are listed. Due to meager data on many little-known shops, this list makes no pretense of being complete or perhaps entirely accurate. However, most of the builders that at one time or another who were in existence are included. We welcome corrections or additions to this list.

The following combined in 1901 to form the American Locomotive Co., Schenectady, N.Y.: Brooks Locomotive Works; Cooke Loco. & Machine Works; Dickson Manufacturing Co.; Manchester Loco. Works; Pittsburgh Loco. & Car Works; Rhode Island Loco. Works (International Power Co.); Richmond Loco. Works; Schenectady Loco. Works, and Rogers Loco. Works (Acquired in 1905). Otto Kuhler, famed industrial designer, especially of steam locomotives, says that since a loco is known as "she," he calls this etching "Ladies in Waiting" suggesting royalty among engines. The scene or setting is nowhere, nor are the locomotives related to any particular railroad. It is all a product of his fertile imagination. (bottom) Otto at home, 625 Camino Rancheros, Santa Fe, N.M. 87501, with his Russian wolfhound, Timur. Mae West had about a dozen of its breed.
