Dr. Domonkos,

I hope your feeling a lot better than the circumstances as told to me by your secretary at the History dept' office. I stopped up to present you with a couple of dozen of cinnamon rolls, (straight from my grandmother oven, when she cooks its hell bent for leather, and she pumps out about ten dozen, then ends up giving away about six dozen), for a sort of advance payment for hopefully helping me out of my scholastic mess.

Well I was shocked to say the least, when I heard what had happened to you. I had heard you had the flu or something like that and thought you would be back in a week or two. I then as I usually do immersed myself in my history classes (Dr Smiths, English I and Dr Burgers W.W. II) and found no time to get up to the fifth floor. When I did it was quite a surprise! The one secretary told me I should say a prayer for you, I replied that I didn't think you would appreciate that kind of help, and she was somewhat offended, but tough sledding when theres no snow. However I do hope this card and note see you feeling better and remind you that you have at least one pudgy, Irish fan at N.Y.S.V.. Again, a happy and ~~and~~ speedy recovery and a swift return to the "Hallowed Halls" of School

OUT OF THE
HOSPITAL

LET THE NURSES KNOW YOU LIKE THEM

Every 15 minutes press the little button that lights up your room number at the nurses' station. You'll be surprised at how popular you'll become. All the nurses will be talking about how friendly you are and you'll be sure to have lots of company.

LEARN HOW YOUR HOSPITAL BED WORKS

A hospital bed is a fascinating piece of machinery. No use letting it just sit there unused. See how many different positions you can change it to in just 10 minutes. The world professional bed changing record is held by Craig Bendalot, famed sideshow double-jointed exhibitionist. The amateur record belongs to Malvina Sacrum who entered the hospital with an ingrown toenail and worked her way up to a slipped disc by changing the angle of her bed $42\frac{1}{2}$ times in 10 minutes.

ENTERTAIN PEOPLE ON THE OUTSIDE

One way is to call your friends at odd hours and sing to them over the telephone. Another is to ask for large sheets of paper and sign paint. Make large signs to post in your window for people outside to see. It is important to change the signs often for best results. A couple of examples of what to put on the signs would be: "HELP! I'M BEING HELD PRISONER!" and "HAVING A WONDERFUL TIME -- WISH YOU WERE HERE!"

LEARN TO YODEL

Put your time to good use and make time pass quickly by learning a new skill. Learning to yodel is easy but requires much practice. The best time to practice is between 10 p.m. and midnight so you can hear all the subtle tonal inflections bounce off your walls. In no time at all you will hear sounds of appreciation from patients in all the other rooms on your floor.

BE CREATIVE IN YOUR SOCIAL EXPRESSION

Bring new pastimes into the sterile hospital environment! Become a connoisseur of fine horses; initiate your visitors into the friendly delights of 5-card draw; or if state law allows, set up a bingo game for your whole floor and let the nurses serve as card runners.

DO WHAT YOUR DOCTOR SAYS AND GET WELL

Doctor Neverfail's hints have helped scores of people get out of hospitals in a hurry -- some before they even wanted to. But if the first five hints don't work for you, surely this one will. Just do your best to follow doctor's orders, get plenty of rest, take your medicine and please--

GET WELL VERY SOON!

Conversion

Look, God, I have never spoken to You,
But now I want to say: "How do You do?"
You see, God, they told me You didn't exist -
And like a fool I believed all this.

Last night from a shellhole I saw Your sky
And figured right then they told me a lie.
Had I taken time to see things You made,
I'd have known they weren't calling a spade
a spade.

I wonder, God, if You'd shake my hand.
Somehow I feel that You'll understand.
Funny I had to come to this hellish place
Before I had time to see Your face.

Well, I guess there isn't much more to say;
But I'm sure glad, God, I met You today.
I guess the zero hour will soon be here,
But I'm not afraid, since I know You're here.

The signal! Well, God, I'll have to go -
I like You lots, this I want You to know.
Look now! This will be a horrible fight;
Who knows, I may come to Your house tonight

Tho' I wasn't friendly to You before,
I wonder, God, if You'd wait at Your door?
Look, I'm crying - me shedding tears!
I wish I had known You these many years.

Well, God, I have to go now - goodbye -
Strange, since I met You I'm not afraid to die.

Jesus, I Love You

DEAR JESUS, I ask that You extend
Your Hand in loving benediction upon me. I will do my best to draw my-life and strength from You. May I always listen to Your Will. Give me
the grace to carry it out.

In my daily routine, let me whisper
from time to time, "Jesus, I love You."
My nature is weak and timid. Dear
Jesus, turn Your loving Face toward me that It may be a source of strength to sustain me in all my conflicts. When I meet with worldly success, help me to keep sincere and ever watchful for discouraged hearts who are trudging
along the road of life. Give me words of peace and comfort to offer them.

If You deign to bestow earthly riches upon me, grant, dear Jesus, that I may use them in trust for You; never permit me to overlook an opportunity to help
the needy. And may my dear Mother
Mary be with me always and lead me through the dark valley of death to
Your loving embrace, dear Jesus.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt not have strange gods before Me.
2. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.
3. Remember thou keep holy the Lord's day.
4. Honor thy father and thy mother.
5. Thou shalt not kill.
6. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
7. Thou shalt not steal.
8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods.

MY DAILY PRAYER

I BELIEVE in one God. I believe that God rewards the good, and punishes the wicked.

I BELIEVE that in God there are three Divine Persons—God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

I BELIEVE that God the Son became Man, without ceasing to be God. I believe that He is my Lord and my Saviour Jesus Christ, the Redeemer of the human race, Who died on the Cross for the salvation of all men, Who died also for me.

I BELIEVE, on God's authority, everything that He has taught and revealed.

O MY GOD, give me strong faith. O my God, help me to believe with lively faith.

O MY GOD, relying on Thy almighty power and infinite mercy and promises, I sincerely hope to be saved. Help me to do all that is necessary for my salvation.

I HAVE committed many sins in my life, but now I turn away from them, and hate them. I am sorry, truly sorry for all of them, because I have offended Thee, my God, Who art all-good, all-perfect, all-holy, all-merciful—my kind and loving Father.

I LOVE Thee, O my God, with all my heart. Forgive me, I implore Thee, for having offended Thee.

I PROMISE, O God, that with Thy help I will never offend Thee again.

MY GOD, HAVE MERCY ON ME

Dear Dr. D;

We'd have written sooner, but it was just lately that we found out you were not as well as you should be. By this late date, we hope you're feeling much better.

Sorry about the card. We were looking for something devastatingly charming and delightfully witty with just the right touch of the risqué (You know, something a lot like you!), but the card store was all sold out! We had to settle ~~for~~ for Snoopy.

Life in Kent is pretty good. Donna had an article accepted for publication, and I'm trying to convince myself that French (the language, that is!) isn't as difficult as it seems.

Please take care of yourself so you won't deprive too many students of the pleasure of sharing had you for class. Be good. We miss you when we visit the department.

Cheers,
Donna

Dear Mrs. Demoukos;

Thank you for returning our deposit. I'm sure you will disregard some of my previous letter. I sent it before yours arrived. Your heating pad will be returned as soon as I can get it back from my pregnant friend. She had a little trouble at the beginning of her pregnancy but is doing fine now.

I'm sure she isn't needing it anymore.

We hope to see you on our next trip to Youngstown.
