Kedves Géza!

Mellékelem a Nagy Lajos anyagot, beleértve az eredeti gépiratot, a kiküldött és visszaküldött keféket, valamint az eredeti keféket az én javításaimmal.

A kiküldött kefék közül csupán a következők hiányzanak: Szigeti és Ripoch, akiktől még nem érkezett vissza. Valamint a Tide, Domonkos Lacié, és az enyém. (Az utóbbiról nem is csináltam másolatot).

Talán jó lenne ha a javításokat mindkettőtök más színű ceruzával csinálná. Ezt azért kellene, hogy tudjuk, hogy ki mit javított, s hogy egy esetleges visszaküldési konferencia előtt meg ki lehessen radiózni és javítani. (En azért csináltam tollal, mivel az én javításaim legjava a szerzőktől jött át.

Nem minden szerzői javítást tettem át, ha azt feleslegesnek vagy rossznak ítéltém. Egy párszor rosszul is javítottak. Egy párszor az elválasztási hibák kijavítását is feleslegesnek ítéltém meg.

Az illusztrációk nálam maradtak, mivel azokat kár lett volna tovább nyomorgatni. A hiányzó aláírásokat legépeltem, s azokat is mellékelem. Copyings Ugyszintén mellékelem a betűtípusokat, amikkel a címet és a fejezetcímeket szedetni akarom. Mondjatok róla véleményet.

Prpic címet nem változtattam meg, mivel a "Croatian historical works" kihúzása problémát okozott volna az általam szerkesztett bibliográfia címével kapcsolatban. Különben is talán csak egy-két nem-horvát cím van az 8 bibliográfiájában.

En k.b. augusztus 20-án jövök vissza. Addig jó lenne ha Domonkos Laci is átnézne: Laci telefonja: (216) 533-2771 (otthon)
742-3459 (egyetemen)

Nagyon jó lenne ha személyesen adnátok át az anyagot egymásnak, mivel minden itt van egyben, s ha ez elveszik akkor bedőglött az egész projektum.

Jo munkát kívánva, szeretettel köszöntelek:

Dear Dr. Silagi, Learned Friend:

Thank you for your good letter of February 8, 1985, received here on February 16. I am very grateful to you and to the President of the Monumenta Germaniae Historica, Professor Dr. Fuhrmann for the invitation to participate in your eminent Congress on "Forgeries." I am overwhelmed by your generosity of putting my name on the Program on the very first day of the opening session on September 16 in the afternoon.

The Program you organized is most fascinating with very interesting contributors and distinguished scholars. I am looking forward to meeting Schmale, Gyorffy, Fransen (whose patron saint is Gerhard von Csanad, he said it to me personally), Constable, Paradisi, and many other old friends.

I would like to recommend for invitation from the Eastern Bloc from among the poor scholars:

Gieysztor is at Dumbarton Oaks. My secretary was able to reach him yesterday and he gave tentative agreement to attending the Congress. However, I will try personally to reach him and give him all the particulars and to get a definite agreement from him.

I would like to again thank you for the invitation for September 16-19, 1986, Congress and with my renewed congratulations on the Program, I remain,

I am responding to your letter of 29 January 1985 to Robert Lafond, Registrar, requesting photographs of the bust of Beatrice of Aragon on loan to The Art Museum by The Frick Collection.

I am sorry, but you will have to contact The Frick Collection directly to both obtain the photographs themselves, and permission to reproduce them. Their address is: 1 East 70th Street, New York, NY 11104 (212-288-0700).

We are delighted that you will again present an R.D.E. enrichment on Renaissance history with the addition of commentary concerning Erasmus this year. We have agreed upon Tuesday, January 22, 1985 from 2:40 - 4:40 p.m. at Fitch High School. By that time the students will have completed a considerable amount of reading and discussion in Renaissance literature.

I am enclosing a map for you and will wait at the main entrance from 2:15 p.m. that day. Please feel free to contact me with any concerns.

Dear Dr. Dornonkos,

Again, congratulations to you for the excellent student evaluation. It surely takes a special teacher (and person) to reach virtually all of the diverse student body at YSU. You certainly accomplish this.

What a pleasure to work with you -- teacher, scholar and friend. I am proud to be an associate of yours.

Please let me know if there is any way that I can assist you in your work.

Best regards,

It certainly was a pleasure meeting you in Washington and I thank you very much for the three reprints which you forwarded to me. I am going to send them over to Solveig Turner, Director of the Center for International Higher Education Documentation (CIHED) which I established at the time the Encyclopedia was published. She maintains a wonderful research library on topics included in the Encyclopedia and I know she will be very happy to have these as a part of the collection. I am sure she would like to receive any future reports that could have interest as well.

Best regards.

I do hope we meet again.

My dear and distinguished student and friend, Laci:

Congratulations on the very nice article you wrote on "The Multiethnic Character of the Late Medieval Hungarian State," which was published in Transylvania, The Roots of Ethnic Conflict, by the Kent State University Press. I enjoyed reading not only the analysis of the various nationalities' contributions to Hungarian life, but to see that you remained faithful to your training on the History of Universities and you certainly traced down Thomas Altenberg's career at the University of Vienna. It was most thoughtful of you to dedicate this to the memory of Professor Robert Oszlanyi, who once attended the University of Budapest at the same time as I, but we finished under different professors.

Thank you also for your letter of April 25 and the beautiful program you have compiled for me. In all probability I will arrive in Cleveland on one of those small planes which are circulating around here in South Bend, probably on Air Wisconsin or Britt airlines. I might help the pilot to discharge the luggage which are stored in the rear of the plane.

I am delighted with your dinner invitation, however, I would like to emphasize that I don't want you to think that you will be a prisoner during the three days because I can get along fine, and I will visit your library and might come up with some suggestions after seeing the holdings of this place which everyone expects you will build up as a sphere of history and literary education.

The lecture is May 23 at 12 noon which is very convenient and I love lunch only after the lecture, because usually I sleep late and have one glass of champagne then I am in shipshape form. On Friday again, I would not like to take up your time; I can occupy myself in the library, but am naturally looking forward to the evening.

The reason I am unable to sign this letter is because by the time you get it I will be in Washington, attending the Dumbarton Oaks Institute and then on May 5, I will be in New York, staying for four nights working in the New York Public Library, followed by a trip to Toronto, returning to the university only on May 13. I did not want you to wait for such a long time to have my grateful acknowledgement. Therefore, this will be an exception but to see that the letter is just signed from necessity, I am enclosing a lovely post card which carries my personal greetings.

My secretary will catalog your booklet and she will put it immediately into your doctoral dissertation, which is always in my line of vision in my office.

Thanking you again for arranging this lecture and asking your forgiveness for not formally signing this letter, but my signature is supplied by the picture card having my signum manuale.

With love to Eva and the children, I am,

Dear Colleague:

Please find enclosed a xerox copy of the proofs of your study to appear in the volume Louis the Great, King of Hungary and Poland. The typesetting took much longer than expected, largely because of the many languages involved.

Please make the necessary corrections and return the proofs to me immediately. We are already behind schedule, and late returns will further delay the book's publication. Please do not make major changes or additions in the text, because such changes would entail further time and expenditures.

The book will have wide margins, and thus the enclosed typeface does not indicate the size of the volume, which will be much larger.

Unless you have already done so, please also enclose a brief curriculum vitae, including your positions and publications.

My Dear Laci:

You made me very happy with your faithful telephone call the other day. Thank you for your intercession regarding my coming lecture at Youngstown State University.

I would like to propose as title of my address:

" Pictorial History of Medieval and Renaissance Student Life. "

After February the dates would be very convenient for me, maybe we should center it around your birthday, preferably on or after because people in Pannonia inherited Roman superstitions and we do not wish "happy birthday" before the exact date.

My affectionate greetings to Eva and love to Adolescentibus. With love and thanks, I remain,

Your comments which became a part of the Ninetieth Anniversary History Album were most appropriate and a "highlight" of the book. The television program was one of the most outstanding parts of the project and we were indeed most fortunate to have the air time and you as a scholar to represent the paper and the academic world.

Enclosed please find an Honorarium in the amount of $50.00 as allocated by the project.

Dear Laci:

Please accept my heartfelt thanks for the invitation to deliver the lecture at your university. I was greatly impressed with your library and the wonderful house which is the frame of your intellectual activities. Eva and you should be congratulated for your taste and artistry in choosing your home. The behavior of your children was exemplary and I was cheered by them, after being so pessimistic with the behavior of today's youth. I am grateful for your showing me the library.

I am enclosing a temporary list of the books in which you were interested. The prices are listed but should you find them too expensive do not hesitate to tell me and we will simply cross out the book in question and just send those which you find acceptable. Should you decide to buy them, then I will send you an official invoice to the university.

Monsieur le Président et Cher Ami,

J'ai bien reçu vos derniers envois et je vous en remercie très vivement. Même si vous ne pouvez venir à Paris avant le mois d'août, je crois que l'essentiel est d'ores et déjà réglé pour le congrès de Stuttgart en ce qui nous concerne.

Les diverses candidatures annoncées sont toutes recevables. Il est en particulier très heureux que Monsieur Mori accepte de s'occuper également de l'histoire des universités japonaises; ceci était, comme je vous l'avais dit, un point à mes yeux essentiel et qui devrait venir très fortement à l'appui de sa candidature. Je note également avec grande satisfaction la candidature de Monsieur Demonkos au poste de trésorier; c'est bien volontiers que j'<sup>lui</sup>abandonnerai cette charge.

Même si Monsieur Monfrin ne vient pas à Stuttgart, j'aurai réglé à l'avance avec lui ce qui concerne la participation française à notre Commission.

Je vous prie de croire, Monsieur le Président et Cher Ami, à mes sentiments très dévoués.

Dear Reviewer:

Although we ask that reviews be written within six months of the date of receipt of the book, we do not (as you know) badger our reviewers and feel that on the whole we get a higher quality of review by allowing reviewers as much time as they need. From time to time, however, we check up on outstanding reviews, and on one such recent check we found that we had apparently not received the review(s) of the title(s) mentioned below, with the date of sending. It is possible that our records are in error and that the review was received (or even published), or that it was agreed not to publish a review. But we should be grateful if you would let us know, at the bottom of this letter, whether or not the review is in fact outstanding and, if so, when we can expect to receive it. If you feel that the work(s) should not be reviewed in SPECULUM, please likewise inform us, with the reason, and the card will be duly cancelled.

Yours sincerely,

The Editors of SPECULUM

Dear Reviewer:

Although we ask that reviews be written within six months of the date of receipt of the book, we do not (as you know) badger our reviewers and feel that on the whole we get a higher quality of review by allowing reviewers as much time as they need. From time to time, however, we check up on outstanding reviews, and on one such recent check we found that we had apparently not received the review(s) of the title(s) mentioned below, with the date of sending. It is possible that our records are in error and that the review was received (or even published), or that it was agreed not to publish a review. But we should be grateful if you would let us know, at the bottom of this letter, whether or not the review is in fact outstanding and, if so, when we can expect to receive it. If you feel that the work(s) should not be reviewed in SPECULUM, please likewise inform us, with the reason, and the card will be duly cancelled.

Yours sincerely,

Lacikám!

Elsőben is elnézést kérek, hogy a terv megbenélt a NATIONES sorozat középkori magyar királyságra vonatkozó kötetében való közreműködésedre csak most térek vissza részletebben. A sorozat sorsa, úgy tűnik, egy darabig levegőben lógott, de most társszerkesztőm, Zimmermann prof., biztosított, hogy mind a sorozat főszerkesztője, H. Beumann, mind a kiadó /Thorbacke Verlag, Sigmaringen/ bizik abban, hogy folytatni fogják és a mi kötetünket érdeklődéssel várják.

Időt vesztettünk, de talán be tudjuk hozni, szíves segítségetekkel. Mivel én idén június 1-től 1986 júliusáig kutatószabadságon leszek, s ezalatt rendszeresen leszek Budapesten is, a kötetet ebben a következő 14-15 hónapban kellene összehozni. Vagyis, arra kérnélek, hogy or s'thing sim.

|| ha lehet még ez év május vége előtt ird meg, hogy vállalod-e a tervezett témáról, vagyis

|| ról, egy kb. 15 <sup>gépelt</sup> (oldalas cikk elkészítését, mondjuk, magyarul 1985 végére, fordításban 1986 tavaszára; ha inneni elutazásom /V.25./ előtt már nem érnél el, július közepén a Tört.tud. Int.-ben begyűjtöm odaérkezendő postámat. /Csak 1-2 napom lesz, találkozásra október alkalmasabb./

!! Üi. augusztus végén, Stuttgartban, a nemzetközi történészkongresszuson Zimmermannal és két amerikai szerzővel, s akivel még lehet, tartunk egy rövid előzetes megbeszélést. Arra feltétlenül szeretném tudni, számíthatunk-e Rád, stb. Zimmermann azt is tervezi, hogy az MTA-val együttműködve, 1985 késő őszén /XI.-XII.?!/ egy bp.-i munkaértekezletet tartanánk, amin már a cikkeknek legalábbis vázlatát stb. megbeszélhetnénk, úgyhogy elkerüljük az átfedéseket.

Nekem az lenne a legalkalmasabb, ha a budapesti szerzőkkel 1985 ősze és 1986 tavasza között, sorrendet elosztva, együttesen átnézhetném a kéziratokat, esetleg előbb magyarul, s azután a fordítást. Én még a kutatószab. alatt megírnám a bevezető vázlatát, egyeztetném Zimmermannal és megküldeném mindnyájatoknak, hozzászólásra. Ilyenformán a kötet végleges kéziratát leadhatnók 1986 végén vagy 1987 legelején.

Szíves üdvözlettel

Dear Leslie:

For the past year, I have been trying to help get the enclosed publication off the ground, on its feet, and underway. It was founded by Sandor E. Chomos about 11 years ago, but never attracted appreciable acceptance nationwide. Nor has it been a profitable venture for him.

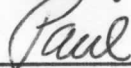

What do you think of it? How can its editorial quality be improved without becoming overly academic?

Your comments would be warmly welcomed and greatly appreciated.

Incidentally, here is one for the record books. Our Hunyadi script (film), rewritten three times, is rapidly becoming a "senior citizen" in the hands of Dino di Laurentiis, who loves it, but can't seem to get off the dime about it.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes to you and your family, I remain,

Dr. Domonkos has given me a report on the Washington meeting which I found informative. I suggest that the three of you confer to determine your interest in proposing activities which help YSU students broaden their perspectives a bit as far as international relations or which might also help accomplish that objective while serving to assist the integration of International Students studying at YSU. I have no axe to grind nor program to sell. Dear Les:

Greetings to you from Ohio University and me.

The Friends and Associates of Professor Harold J. Grimm have established a memorial fund in his honor. The purpose of the fund is to acknowledge his role in the development of Reformation studies in this country, and this will be marked by the issuance of a volume of essays (Societas et Pietas: New Trends in the Social History of the Reformation; Essays in Memory of Harold J. Grimm) and an annual essay competition in Reformation studies. We hope to be able to give Professor Grimm's daughter, Jane, a copy of the essays at a ceremony next October at the Sixteenth Century Studies Conference.

We are still shy of raising the amount necessary to produce the volume and hold the essay competition. Hence, this letter to you accompanied by my personal appeal. If you feel that you are able to make a contribution--which is tax deductible--please make a check out to the Harold J. Grimm Memorial Fund, and send it either to me or to Professor Kyle C. Sessions, Department of History, Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois 61761. In case you wonder, the average amount of donations submitted so far has been $50.00, but any amount will be greatly appreciated.

The first sixteen to respond receive our sincere thanks. Those after that number receive our sincere thanks and a puppy. With best wishes to you, I remain

Very truly yours,

Kedves Laci!

Köszönöm kedves januári leveledet, a Laurana cikk megküldésével. A cikket eljuttattam Balogh Jolánhoz, akitől ma kaptam választ. Ő a legteljesebb lelkesedéssel olvasta a cikket, s a maga részéről is fontosnak tartja a Acta-ban való közlését. Így ōrá is hivatkozva átadom majd a szerkesztőnek Vayer Lajosnak, aki nyilván hasonló örömmel fogja fogadni. Ehhez azonban meg kell várnom a jelzett két fényképet, melyek még nem érkeztek meg.

Örülök nagyon, hogy a nyár végén találkozni fogunk. Ott leszek rövid ideig Stutgartban is, de csak félhivatalosan. Mindössze a reneszánsz federáció ülésén fogok résztvenni, a párizsi ~~rodalomtörténeti~~ kongresszusról hazafelé utaztomban. Szeptember elején nagy örömmel várunk azután Budapestre.

A bloomingtoni reneszánsz kollokvium valószínűleg 1986 őszén lesz. Remélem sikerül szép programot összehozni majd.

A hamarosan esedékes viszontlátásig sok szeretettel köszönt:

From: E. M. Basa

Ian Thomson at Indiana University is organizing a conference on the Renaissance in Hungary for the Spring or Fall of 1986. He asked that I organize a section on Printing in Hungary. I would like to invite you to participate. We will have about 90 minutes for the session, so I am looking for three to ~~four~~ papers, of 15-20 minutes each. We want to allow about ten minutes for discussion. The general outline of the session would be:

- Approach: Intellectual history
- a) first presses—Hess and significance
  - b) printing done for Hungarian patrons abroad, especially in the decades when no presses were functioning in Hungary itself;
  - c) development and spread of printing--factors to consider such as type of works done, patronage or commercial appeal, role of the Reformation;
  - d) dates--essentially 15th through early 17th centuries

Papers in any of the above areas are welcome; a survey of the history of printing in this time could also be entertained. Let me know your ideas, or send abstracts.

The Conference will be a major undertaking of Indiana University and the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Sciences (U.S.), and support by private and scholarly organizations. It might interest you to know that a photographic exhibition of books and printing will be featured.

Dr. and Mrs. Laszlo Domonkos

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Domonkos:

In 1984, over 60,000 persons were served through the programs and ministries provided by Catholic Charities in our Diocese of Youngstown. It is the generosity of people such as you, who support our annual Catholic Charities Appeal, that allows Catholic Charities to answer the call of the needy in our diocese.

In six counties, our Catholic social service agencies counsel and help hungry and unemployed persons. They give special service to aged people and troubled youth. They provide child adoption service and arrange foster homes for children requiring them.

In addition, Catholic Charities pays for three diocesan programs and makes them available to all interested Catholic Church members through their parish. These are: The Family Life Program, aimed at helping families to strengthen themselves as Church people; The Parish Social Ministry, designed to empower Catholic parishioners to help needy fellow parishioners; The Social Action Program, planned to inform and to involve Catholic people in issues of world peace, social justice and a respect for life.

Last year, as a "Bishop's Advance Gift Pacesetter," you were one of several hundred contributors who demonstrated special generosity with your gift of $60.00. I hope this year you will be able to continue to help us to serve the increasing number who turn to us in time of need by perhaps increasing your gift to $75.00 or $85.00.

Professor J. Verger
Executive Secretary, International Commission for the History of Universities
7, rue Pierre Curie
92260 Fontenay-aux-Roses, France

Dear and Distinguished Colleague and Cher Ami:

The photo of Pierre Verger is duly posted into your book on the medieval university; my secretary, who is typing this letter, will bear witness to that fact. Pierre looks lovely, strong, and already with a Normalien look. Congratulations to both of you, and how is "Alice in Wonderland," the famous little girl Alice in the Plaza Hotel, New York City? When do I get a photo from Alice de Paree?

Now about Commission business:

1. Due to the fact that our colleague, Hammerstein, will be present at our meeting in Tübingen as interim representative of Germany, it would be very delicate to bring up the countercandidacy of Professor Bohan. Now what do you think about suggesting as second representative from Germany, one from Nord, this would be Professor Hammerstein and the other for Sud-Deutschland, Bavaria, who would be Professor Letitia Boehm.
2. I think we have to propose Mori, who was recommended by the Chairman of the Association of Japanese Historians. Naturally, if there is any other proposal, we can vote upon them. The vote is secret.
3. For Austria, we have Uiblein and a candidate of de Ridder-Symoens from Belgium, I think he is a professor at Graz. Due to the fact that none of them will be present at our meeting, both can be proposed and then a vote taken.
4. I would love to discuss with you the presidency, hopefully I will be able to confer with Professor Aleksander Gieysztor who is now in Dumbarton Oaks, Washington. If I can I will fly to Paris just to see you and discuss the Agenda of the Commission. The fact that the University of Paris never elected me Honorary Doctor makes it difficult for me to get travel grants for Paris. I was twice in Germany, in Munich, where without any difficulty I could acquire funds.

Have you heard anything about the efforts of our dear friend, Professor Goff? I hear that one of my former students, who is editing the Government of Rulers of Vincent of Beauvais, paid a visit to him.

5. Hope everybody is satisfied with the Program. I saw the proofs of the Program in Stuttgart on October 1, 1984, in the headquarters of the Preparatory Committee. I put your name and de Ridder-Symoens and Feenstra and, naturally, Professor Gieysztor as president, so we are the only ones with four presidents. We look like a Politbureau, but this was the only way to assure that the noted members of our Commission should be in the General Program which is sent all over the world. I am enclosing a photocopy of that page.

6. Please make a note that I would like to propose Professor Dr. Leslie Domonkos, Youngstown State University, 59 Camelot Court, Canfield, Ohio 44406, (216) 533-2771 (private) and (216) 742-3459 (Office), for Treasurer of the Commission for collecting the dues and any finances of the Commission. By the way, did I pay for 1985 as yet?

7. Would you have any idea of the number of copies I should print of our Program? The local organizing committee suggested charging DM 2, but I might say DM 1.50.

At the same time I was dictating this letter I received your excellent reprint, The Bible and the Middle Ages, "L'exegese de l'Universite," an excellent outline of the history of the teaching of the Bible in the medieval universities. It is regrettable that our good friend, Beryl Smalley is not with us anymore to enjoy such a fine article. I was particularly interested in the passages regarding Saint Thomas, because I am scheduled to give a talk entitled "Saint Thomas and the University of Paris." I will certainly refer to your excellent article.

It remains now to thank you for your letter of February 4 and give my regards to Madame Verger and my love to the children.

As ever,

Objet : Bulletin n°12 du CISH

Monsieur le Président,

Vous avez reçu votre ( ou vos) numéros gratuits du Bulletin n°12 du CISH, puisqu'aussi bien le Bureau du CISH a décidé d'innover en faisant adresser dix exemplaires gratuits de ce Bulletin aux Comités nationaux et aux Organismes affiliés à jour de leur cotisation et un exemplaire gratuit aux Commissions internes qui ne payent pas de cotisation et aux Comités nationaux et Organismes affiliés qui ne sont pas à jour de leur cotisation.

Ce Bulletin n°12 est plus de moitié plus volumineux que le Bulletin n°11 paru en 1980 ( pour un prix proportionnellement nettement inférieur).

La justification d'un tel outil de travail est de le voir largement diffusé : il est donc indispensable en dehors du ( ou des) exemplaires gratuits qui vous ont été adressés, que vous vous efforciez de faire passer commande du Bulletin d'Information du CISH par nos collègues historiens et par nombre d'organisations scientifiques et de bibliothèques.

Dear Dr. Domonkos:

Thank you and congratulations.

Thank you for the excellent presentation you make to our social studies teachers at the May 8th workshop.

Congratulations because you helped us achieve everything we hoped to achieve. Our emphasis was on scholarship. I don't think we could have found a more suitable topic than the Renaissance, and I don't think we could have found a teacher at the University who represents the importance of scholarship more than you.

Thank you for helping us.

Dear Participant in the Congress:

Please find enclosed the Program you had previously received in yellow cover, unchanged as far as the presidencies, communications, and the General Program are concerned, but it now has the indication of the localities and classrooms assigned to our meetings, thanks to the scholarly cooperation of Dr. Marlene Hiller, from the University of Stuttgart in the local Organizing Committee.

Complying with the wish of the Secretary General, Professor Dr. Helene Ahrweiler, Chancellor of the University of Paris, I am enclosing a copy of her June 11 circular in the event you might like to order Bulletin No. 12 from the Treasurer of the International Committee of Historical Sciences:

TO: Participants in the XVith International Congress of Historical Sciences, Stuttgart

Dear Colleagues:

I apologize for the anonymity of the salutation, but I trust that the news content of this communication will excuse our mass mailing approach. I am pleased to confirm to you that we have assembled all of the requests for funding for participation on the program of the World Congress at Stuttgart which have been submitted, and have made a division of the funds available.

There are almost fifty participants who have informed us of their having been invited to participate. We therefore, by dividing equally the number of applicants for travel grants, have arrived at the sum of $500.00 per participant. We expect to send out the checks in early July, but for the sake of our auditors' requirements will need a copy of your plane ticket or equivalent travel document before that date. We also must have for our records, if your name does not appear in the printed program of the Congress, a copy of the letter of invitation or other evidence of your official role.

Since the grant of funds is from the Exxon Education Foundation, the U.S. Government requirement that travel must be performed on U.S. flag carriers does not apply; make your best deal with whatever airline can get you the best terms! In the event that any of you for personal or professional reasons are forced to cancel your plans, please let us know promptly, as we would like to be able to distribute additional funds if we can. Similarly, if any of you find that, thanks to ACLS travel grants, university assistance, being in Europe on another grant this summer, or the Irish Sweepstakes, you can make do with less than the full grant, we would also appreciate your generous notification that a partial grant would be acceptable. Two of the applicants have already generously requested more limited grants for these reasons.

In any case, however, you may now in your planning count on the above sum being available to you by the middle of July. I look forward to seeing you -- and hearing you -- in Stuttgart.

Sincerely,

INTER-OFFICE CORRESPONDENCE

DATE July 25, 1985

TO Festschrift Contributors

FROM Lorraine Y. Baird-Lange, ENGLISH DEPT.

SUBJECT Style

Several persons have inquired about the choice of style sheet for articles to be submitted for "Women in History, Myth, and Literature." Although an informal polling of the editorial board turned up a preference for the old MLA style, one member pointed out that this is a matter to be clarified only after a publisher is committed to the volume, since publishers dictate the style sheet. Consequently, we hope to decide this matter before final articles come in March 1, 1986, if a publisher has been contracted by that time.

Several very promising submissions have already been made and others are in progress. The finished article does not have to come in until March 1, but an abstract should be presented by October 1, so as to be included in the promotional correspondence with publishers.

Let me encourage you to get your abstract in.

Best wishes for a good summer.

P. S. The enclosed represents the up-dated list of persons invited to contribute. Please suggest others who may be interested.

Re: Long Range Facilities
Development Plan

Dear Dr. Domonkos:

In 1983, the University commissioned the firm of Richard Fleischman Architects, Inc. for a planning study that would reevaluate the University's existing Long Range Facilities Development Plan.

In February, 1984, the Fleischman report was submitted to the Youngstown State University Board of Trustees. They accepted the report for study and instructed the administration to develop recommendations, hold hearings, and return to the Board for further action.

The University administration developed their recommendations and held several hearings that were publicly advertised, inviting and involving the citizens of the Mahoning-Trumbull Counties area, faculty, staff, students, individuals and institutions near the campus and the President's Advisory Committee on Facility Planning (an off-campus, public group). After the hearings, certain modifications were made in the administration recommendations.

The Youngstown State University Board of Trustees at their meeting of June 7, 1985, approved and adopted the administration recommendations contained in the document The Youngstown State University Long Range Facilities Development Plan to be used to guide future capital improvements and directs that the balance of the Fleischman report be consulted whenever consideration is given to substantial changes of space utilization within buildings, but that the recommendations for such use or change in use not be considered binding.

The enclosed administration recommendations are to be used in conjunction with the Fleischman Report sent to you in previous correspondence.

Best regards,

Edmund J. Salata, P.E.

Dear Laci:

To open the 30th anniversary year of the Foundation, I am pleased to send you a copy of the attractive presentation booklet describing Hungarian Heritage Center. Through the good offices of Alexander Brody of our Board, the booklet was designed by CYB/Yasumura and Associates, who donated their services to the American Hungarian Foundation. The printing was provided by Development Council member Peter Gogolak's firm, Charles P. Young Co.

Fund drive volunteers will be greatly aided by using this booklet, when they ask their friends and associates to support this project. To date more than $550,000 has been raised toward the $2.9 million needed to endow and construct the Center.

Several months ago, as a member of the Advisory Council you received a preliminary copy of the presentation. At that time, we asked you to consider your pledge toward this goal of $2.9 million.

Your pledge and support are needed now!

The first phase of the demolition process has been completed on the existing building. The first phase of construction and additional demolition is scheduled for this month. Moreover we are making plans for the cornerstone laying ceremony as a part of our 30th anniversary year program.

The Hungarian Heritage Center project needs the generosity and commitment of hundreds of donors, particularly those like yourself, who are close to the Foundation and are best familiar with its goals and programs. Before you decide the level of your commitment, please study the presentation booklet carefully and keep in mind that:

The Hungarian Heritage Center will be the only comprehensive center for the display of American-Hungarian artifacts, literature, fine arts, and scholarship in the United States.

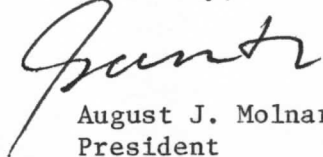

The Center will be a focal point for scholarly research on Hungarian immigration and the contributions of Hungarians to the whole fabric of American life.

The Center will provide permanent housing for the American Hungarian Foundation, the Foundation's library, archival and museum collections and a stable base for the operation of the Foundation's educational programs.

Those of us closely associated with the Foundation must provide the leadership for this fund drive to succeed. Pages 17-23 of the booklet explain the financial goals necessary to complete the Center. Other foundations, corporations, financial institutions and individuals always ask how much has been pledged from the American Hungarian Foundation's own Board and Council members before they evaluate their own commitment.

I know you will carefully consider your part in this fund drive. I hope that you will add your name to the growing list of people who are pledging $300 payable over the next three years. Whatever you decide, your support is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

August J. Molnar
President

P.S. You will be contacted during the next two weeks to answer any questions you have and to discuss your participation.

Memoirs of Fellows and Corresponding Fellows

Charles Maxime Donatien Samaran

Charles Maxime Donatien Samaran, "Doyen d'âge" of the Institut de France, President of the International Committee of Paleography, Honorary Director of the Archives de France, Grand Officier of the Légion d'Honneur, died October 15, 1982, 13 days before his 103rd birthday, in the heart of Gascony in Nogaro, Departement of Gers, a few miles from his native village. He was buried in the cemetery of the Chapel of Hôpital-Sainte-Christie, a commandery of the Knights Hospitalers of Saint John of Jerusalem, of which he wrote its history in his 94th year: La Commanderie de l'Hôpital Sainte-Christie en Armagnac (1973). Born on October 28, 1879 in Cravencères in "Armagnac noir," after his studies in Lycée d'Auch (1890-1897), he entered the École Nationale des Chartes (1897).

This century was only a year old when Samaran, at 21, was already a member of the École Française de Rome. One of his early publications was on the papal finances in France during the period of Avignon and the Great Schism: La fiscalité Pontificale en France au XIV<sup>e</sup> siècle (1905), in collaboration with Guillaume Mollat. In 1904 he entered into the Archives Nationales in Paris. In 1927 he was appointed Director of the School of Latin and French Paleography at the École Pratique des Hautes Etudes. In 1933 a chair of Paleography and Archives for History of France was re-instated for him in the École Nationale des Chartes. In 1941 he was elected into the Académie des Inscriptions et Belles Lettres, giving him encouragement to survive the difficult war years of 1941-1948 as Director of the Archives de France.

Since 1952 he was editor of the Histoire Littéraire de la France and prepared Volumes 39, 40 and 41. In 1956 he was honored by the French Historical Society with his bibliography: Hommage à M. Charles Samaran, which at that time amounted to 539 publications, reaching 674 on his 100th birthday. In 1956 he assumed the responsibility of directing the Journal des Savants, a 300-year-old publication (founded 1665) of the Académie des Inscriptions et Belles Lettres. In 1978 he was presented with two volumes of 904 pages of his collected shorter studies under the title: Une longue vie d'Érudit.

His numerous publications were characterized with elegant clarity, vigorous sobriety and solid documentation. His sources of inspiration were his love for the history of his native Armagnac, his passion for paleography to decipher difficult handwritings and editing the Records of the University of Paris, his predilection for historiography, and, desire for "distraction" led him to amuse himself with problems of literary history.

Half of his publications were dedicated to the history of Gascony and Gascons. In 1907 he published La Maison d'Armagnac au XV<sup>e</sup> siècle et les dernières luttes de la féodalité dans le midi de la France (1907). In 1912 he disserted on D'Artagnan, captain of the musketeers of the King: D'Artagnan, capitaine des mousquetaires du Roy. Histoire véridique d'un héros de roman (1912). In 1921 he published the life of Jean de Bilhères-Langraulas, a Gascon cardinal, diplomat of Louis XI and Charles VIII, who commissioned the Pietà of Michelangelo for Saint Peter's Basilica in Rome.

Samaran's long and arduous 37 years of work in the Archives Nationales made him one of the leading paleographers of our century. In 1908 he edited 48 plates of the original diplomes of the Merovingian kings in facsimile: Les Diplômes originaux des Mérovingiens. Fac-similés phototypiques (1908), in collaboration with Ph. Lauer. He also reproduced the Oxford manuscript of the Chanson de Roland in facsimile: La Chanson de Roland. Reproduction phototypique du Manuscrit Digby 23 de la Bodleian Library d'Oxford (1932). In 1931 he conceived the idea of writing a Catalogue of dated manuscripts. In collaboration with R. Marichal he published 12 volumes (6 volumes of text; 6 of plates) between 1959 and 1981: Catalogue des manuscrits en écriture latine portant des indications de date, de lieu ou de copiste.

Intrigued by the autographe handwritings of the Proctors of the Nations at the Faculty of Arts at the University of Paris, Samaran edited the minutes of the Proctors of the English-German Nation from 1466-1492, those of the Picard from 1476-1484, and those of the French from 1443-1456 in the series of the Auctarium Chartularii Universitatis Parisiensis as Volume III (1935), with the aid of Suzanne Vitte, Volume IV (1938) and Volume V (1942), in collaboration with Émile Van Moé.

The historiographer in Samaran turned toward such chroniclers as Jean Castel (1927), Guillaume Danicot, historian of Louis XI (1928), and Mathieu Levrien, chronicler of Saint-Denis at the end of the reign of Louis XI (1938). Samaran discovered and edited the Latin chronicle of Jean Chartier: La Chronique latine inédite de Jean Chartier (1422-1450), (1928). During the span of 40 years he edited and translated in five volumes the works of Thomas Basin, bishop of Lisieux: "History of Charles VII," (I., 1933; II., 1944), in collaboration with H. de Surirey de Saint-Remy, as well as Basin's "History of Louis XI," (I., 1963; II., 1966), with the collaboration of M. C. Garand. The Apologia of Basin (1974) was published in collaboration with Georgette de Groër.

Samaran's venture into the history of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries was qualified by him as "distraction." He wrote the life of the Venetian adventurer Casanova: Jacques Casanova, vénétien. Une vie d'aventurier au XVIII<sup>e</sup> siècle (1914) and Casanova. Histoire de ma fuite des prisons de la République de Venise qu'on appelle les Plombs (1922).

Samaran's intellectual curiosity had no limits. While young, he translated the poems of Gabriel D'Annunzio into French; later he disserted on Rabelais, wrote on the marriage of Beaumarchais; contributed to the literary profiles of Cyrano de Bergerac, Ducange, Madame de Sévigné, Talleyrand and Georges Sand.

He had great admiration for the founding fathers of our Medieval Academy of America. In his memoirs: Enfance et Jeunesse d'un Centenaire (1979), he complimented Charles Homer Haskins. He reviewed E. K. Rand's book on the script of Tours and commented with interest on other publications of the Medieval Academy of America.

In our time of longevity it is not a novelty to reach 100 years of age, but to celebrate it with such brilliance of mind and alertness, physical fitness, vivacity and vigor as Charles Samaran did was unique in itself. He was like his favored subject, the Gascon captain D'Artagnan, always loyal and brave. When during a tiresome reception for his 100th birthday he was offered a chair, chivalrous and always polite, he looked around and said, "No, no, not for me, there are ladies around here standing."

During his visit to the United States in 1964, after being shown around in the libraries and museums of New York City, the 85-year-old Samaran insisted on seeing Times Square and on crossing the Brooklyn Bridge. The story of what happened at Brooklyn is still going around with Rabelaisian laughter in French academic circles. At the reception, Samaran was offered a gigantic cake of one yard in diameter with the inscription in chocolate frosting, "Hello Charlie."

Lucidity and sharp judgment accompanied him until the threshold of his 103rd year. When a stroke hindered his writing, then as a true descendant of medieval masters, he dictated his letters. With his 103rd year almost completed, he earned the title of Magister Longaevisimus. His last warning to historians was: "Tu ne sauras jamais où tu vas si tu oublies d'où tu viens." You will never know where you go if you forget from where you came.

Respectfully submitted,

Pearl Kibre

The stained glass library window at Vassar College depicts the thesis defense of Elena Lucrezia Cornaro Piscopia who, on June 25, 1678, became the first woman to receive a doctoral degree.

The colorful scene shows her University of Padua sponsors standing in Padua Cathedral ready to present the ermine mozetta or teacher's cape, the doctor's heavy gold ring, and the poet's laurel wreath and to declare the Venetian scholar Magistra et Doctrix Philosophiae.

Born to an influential family, the Cornaro, as she is called, became a Benedictine oblate at an early age. She wore her religious robes under her gowns as a concession to her mother who disapproved of her daughter's dedication to religion and scholarship.

She had applied to take her degree in theology, but the Bishop of Padua refused. "Woman is made for motherhood, not learning," he reportedly said. He later yielded and allowed her to take the examination in philosophy.

The Cornaro Window was installed in 1906 in the Thompson Memorial Library at Vassar College.

érkerésed, ő is öömmel nyugtázta a hírt,
s rögför veréngletet is szűthünk ellened:
ezúttal tisztelettel felkérlek egy, az lute-zetben tartandó előadásra, melynek témá-let, amelyet egy orvos írt a Herbalife programról, valamint a két kis pamfletet (egyik az alkoholelemekről és hatásukról, másik magáról a weight control programról-ké.) Ha bármikor tudok segíteni ezek után, örömmel teszem. (Hadd említsem meg még évanak, hogy több nővért is ismerek, akikre mely bizonyossággal volt a program és ökök maguk is sokszor ajánlották. Aztán a segítség jó eirése mellett egyszerűen azt vették észre, hogy csinos kis - né- lány erek dalláros - havi zsebbeint keresnek vele...)

Egyébként minden rendben van itt. Egészséges mindenki. Önési meglepetésre meglátogattak a nővéremék Memphisből (Tennessee). Két ére találkoztunk utalja.

A karácsony is szép volt, amit első ízben (helyi hány miatt) a könyvtárban kellett ünnepelelnünk. A dolog érdekessége hogy a gyerekek előzőleg már aggedtek, hogy a feruska hová honra majd a karácsonyját, mert a nappaliba nemigen fél... Nos, feltalálta magát!

Jacó, Neked is, évanak is, és a fiúk-lányoknak is egy nagyon, sikeres és egészséges újévet kívánunk szeretettel, Kedves Évi és Jácó!

Elnevezést kérek hogy csak most tudom küldeni az igeit információt, de múlt héten ugyancsak sok teendők akadt. Hál' Istennek egyre jobban megy az úrlét, s ez kíváncsán a program kitűnőségével köszönhető. Egy kedves rokonom (Bárdos András fizikus) sokat szenvedett a házától és idáig semmi sem segített rajta. Miker meg tudta hogy egy tápanyag programmal foglalkozom amely súlykontrollálásra is alkalmas, meg akarta próbálni. Nagyon boldog vagyok hogy segíthettem neki, mert mondanom sem kell talán, hogy első alkalommal végre elkezdett fogyni s mégcsak éheznie sem kell.

A program lépten-nyomon gyógyít rejtélyes betegségeket pusztán arról, hogy megadja a testnek az összes szükséges tápanyagot. Azok lépülnek a szervezet megfelelő pontjaira és helyrehozzák a bizonyos tápanyagok hiánya miatt kialakult deficienciákat. Mindent megelőzően azonban kitisztítják a beleket hogy azok jobban, tökéletesebben tudják feldolgozni az emésztést. A program tartalmaz 2, az étrendre is nagyon jó hatású készítményt. Minden 100%-ig természetes alapanyagokból készült, s gyógy-növényeken alapul. Azt hiszem a legjobb ha nem is én lamentelek, hanem elolvassátok a mellékelt leve-

Istanbul is much different than I had expected. It is really an Eastern city. However I feel very fortunate to have the opportunity to explore a city with such great historical significance. I have obtained a couple of the books you suggested (Hist of the Byzantine Emp. Yaviliev) which I hope will give me a perspective on at least some of the history of Istanbul. Fortunately I visited Wash D.C. before I left the U.S. thus I was able to find these books. My job here pays well enough to enable me to take a couple of trips to other places in Europe.

Thank you for your help and for a wonderful learning experience in western Civ.

Sincerely,

Prior to 1757, when the entire City of New York fitted into the tip of Manhattan Island and Third Avenue was known as the Boston Post Road, weary wayfarers stopped over at the Sign of the Dove Inn. Today, near the original site, the Sign of the Dove restaurant complex still caters to wayfarers from all over the world. It is a popular rendezvous for friends. Salum Sanctorum® available for elegant private entertaining.

 Dear Laszlo,

Eva and you would enjoy our place -- a minute away from the beach, even though a high rise. We've had fine weather, despite the frost that killed the citrus crop. I still manage to work, to read, and to swim. We've heard the Borodin trio, and several others. Enjoyed two fine movies: The Gods Must Be Crazy (they are!) and Passage to India. Love to Eva. Tell Saul I want a letter.

Kedves Laci és Éva

Nem a Titkarnó gépelte, but I was writing and typing it with my manu propria putting my original signum manuale under this Epistola.

Your home is first of all a real Christian home, the way the Premontre-s kanonokok és Prelátusok elképzelték in the lovely surrounding of Jászó and the Hungarian upper region where your Dear Mother came from.

Éva is the flower, sun and Generator of this lovely manoir in the midst of Ohio blistering cultural indifference.
Her unsurpassable taste, loveliness gives the tone of the whole palatium. Your respect of learning is reflected in your superb Library, I will send you a picture "You and ALG" discarded rejected by microscopic selejtesutódok. Here are some imperfect photos; the reality much better.

Love to all the juvenally as well
