Kelli Connell / Double Life: Fifteen Years

Salon de Fleurus
September 8-November 3, 2017
Public Reception, Friday, September 8, 5-7pm
Curated by Salon de Fleurus

Salon de Fleurus is an artwork, a contemporary reconstruction of Gertrude Stein's Parisian salon that existed at 27 rue de Fleurus from 1904-34. It is a work that displays and references a story of modern art's beginnings through one of the first gathering places for burgeoning young artists such as Henri Matisse, Pablo Picasso, and Stein herself. It was in Stein's salon that paintings by Cézanne, Matisse and Picasso were seen exhibited together for the first time both by her peers and transatlantic art experts who spread the word back home, eventually creating the American narrative of European modern art familiar today.

From 1992 to 2014 Salon de Fleurus existed as a semi-private salon in lower Manhattan. Since then, it has appeared in fragments in Beirut, Paris and Los Angeles and is now touring as a complete project via Independent Curators International (ICI).

Salon de Fleurus is a traveling exhibition organized by Salon de Fleurus and Independent Curators International (ICI), New York. The exhibition and tour are made possible by The Fine Art Dealers Association (FADA), and with the generous support from ICI's International Forum and the ICI Board of Trustees.

Gallery Talk Kelli Connell
Friday, September 8, 5-5:30pm

Kelli Connell's body of work, Double Life, is now in its fifteenth year. Throughout this time we've seen the unfolding of an intimate and complex dynamic of a woman's relationship; defined perhaps as a self-portrait acted out by another, or perhaps a metaphor for all relationships, or perhaps still a view of an everlasting affair with the self. As this series continues, it begins to take new shape as we now see the characters begin to age. Yet as they grow older, the emotional bonds established in the beginning of this series still hold strong with the familiarity of a long marriage.

Connell states, "This work represents an autobiographical questioning of sexuality and gender roles that shape the identity of the self in intimate relationships. Polarities of identity such as the masculine and feminine psyche, the irrational and rational self, the exterior and interior self, the motivated and resigned self are portrayed. By combining multiple photographic negatives of the same model in each image, the dualities of the self are defined by body language and clothing worn. This work is an honest representation of the duality or multiplicity of the self in regards to decisions about intimate relationships, family, belief systems and lifestyle options."

Kelli Connell: Double Life / Fifteen Years is a traveling exhibition organized by the Society for Photographic Education and made possible with support from the Ohio Arts Council, and Cuyahoga Arts & Culture.
