Homecoming week at Youngstown State University is a week full of activities for students.

To kick off the week, WFMJ Today came to the WATTS center to test the homecoming court's skills and talk about the upcoming game and parade. There were activities such as office decorating, pumpkin carving, a kickball tournament, cornhole and a lifesize game of Hungry Hungry Hippos.

All week long there was a campus-wide scavenger hunt for students with the chance of winning a $100 give card to the bookstore.

The homecoming parade took place on gameday where everyone was welcome to dress up as penguins, setting the Guinness world record for most people dressed up as penguins in one facility.

The royalty crowning at halftime had students and fans on their toes as they waited for the final results. Willie Parker and Tierney McCaster were crowned, sending the crowd into loud cheers.

The Guinathon is a dance marathon hosted by Youngstown State University. It is a fundraiser for the Children's Miracle Network, an international non-profit organization that is dedicated to raising awareness and funds for children's hospitals.

The donations from the event help to provide innovative and comprehensive care, pediatric research, and new technology. YSU students and Youngstown community members come together during this event for one cause: the kids.

Together, everyone is able to support Akron Children's Hospital Mahoning Valley and other Children's Miracle Network Hospitals. Students raised $45,073.94 for the kids this year.
