

ACADEMIC DEANS' COUNCIL
Tuesday, May 15, 1984, 1:30 p.m.
Dean's Conference Room, CFPA Bliss Hall

Present: Pielemeier, Sutton, Ruggles, Hotchkiss, Gillis, McGraw,
Scriven, Richley, Loch, Yozwiak, West, Dodge and
Alderman as guest

Prior to Dr. Gillis' and Dean Dodge's arrival, Vice President Alderman provided an update on the salary negotiations currently underway with the YSU/OEA.

- I. The minutes of the April 10, 1984 meeting were approved as distributed.

II. Announcements

1. Dr. Gillis reminded the deans of the May 18 deadline for submission of overload reports.
2. The provost is attempting to establish as complete a list as possible of the new chairpersons for inclusion in the catalogue.

He plans to have an appreciation dinner for those leaving the chairperson's position and anticipates hosting a luncheon for all new chairpersons.

3. Copies of the Board of Trustees resolutions are available in Dr. Gillis' office for anyone wishing them.
4. Plans for Spring commencement remain the same as previously announced: Bishop Malone as speaker and Mr. De Bartolo as recipient of an honorary degree.
5. Dr. Hotchkiss announced that the masters' programs in Civil and Mechanical Engineering have been approved for five years; the master's in Material Sciences for a two year period.
6. Dr. Hotchkiss also reported that twelve research professorships have been awarded out of thirty-five applicants (list attached).
7. NCATE evaluation of the School of Education is scheduled for fall 1985.

Application for accreditation of a community counseling program is planned for the fall of 1984.

8. Dean Dodge reported that the Williamson School of Business was not awarded accreditation by the AACSB; the major factor cited was a lack of research output by the faculty.

Approved 7/10/84

9. Dean Scriven distributed the 1984 summer calendar and registration dates.
10. Dr. Gillis solicited suggestions for two administrative committees: Computer Advisory and Special Lectures.
11. The on-line registration tally system is still in the process of refinement. It was agreed that the Deans could use selected data during registration periods.
12. Dr. Gillis reiterated the clamp down on conference courses for the summer term. He requested that the Deans mark on any forms sent in the workload hours to be paid.
13. The Provost is synthesizing all suggestions for the department chairperson's supplement formula and will present a recommendation on that basis.
14. Dr. Loch announced that he would have free calendars for anyone wishing them.

III. Old Business

1. The 1984-85 budget is close to being set, pending the outcome of the salary negotiations.
2. Summer commencement plans are in a state of flux.

IV. New Business

1. A concerted effort will be made to recruit minority faculty; to that end Dr. Gillis specifically plans to fund three faculty positions for minorities.
2. Awards dinners are May 31 for classified employees and June 8 for faculty/administrative personnel.

V. Miscellaneous

1. Dr. Gillis is working on three "writing" projects: The Academic Academic Affairs Manual, The Academic Master Plan, Computer Services Master Plan (academic).
2. Dean Richley distributed a summary of the April 19 meeting of the State Committee on Program Excellence.
