It is virtually impossible for an outsider to fully appreciate Youngstown University.

To an outsider, Y.U. stands as just another college or university, a place to avoid the draft and obtain higher education, or just another school somewhere in Ohio or thereabouts.

The student, alumni, faculty member, or administrator see Y.U. in a much more meaningful manner. To these people Y.U. stands out as a "second home" rather than just a school.

At Y.U., students have the right to do as they please, to say what they wish, and to act in the manner they feel is just. Yet, there are no pickets or riots on campus, no movements or sit-ins, or wild demonstrations . . . just the plain everyday life of individuals seeking a well rounded education and an active campus life.

The faculty consists of dedicated men and women that always find time for the individual student. Office hours are kept and profs stay after class for that extra minute of explaining for the questioning student. At Y.U. the student isn't just another number but rather an individual.

While students attend classes and professors teach, administrators are kept busy planning for the future growth of the university. Blueprints are drawn and gone over, buildings are constructed and enrollment constantly rises. Tradition is kept and plans are studied to keep up with the trends of higher education.

Alumni are kept in touch and plans are in process for the upcoming Homecoming festivities. Graduates come back and see the ever changing campus as it never was before. Grads gleam at the progress and hopes for the future.

Perhaps the campus has changed but the friendliness is still the same. Students are still given the chance at Y.U. Some make it through four years, some five, and some fail to make the grade . . . it is up to them.

Yes, the campus has a meaning for the Y.U. coed, it is a second home, and it is . . . the place that we'll never forget.

To Dr. Albert Leroy Pugsley We Dedicate the 1967 Neon

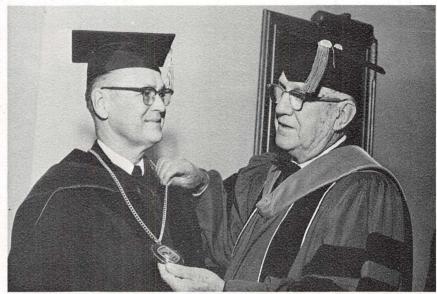

Dr. Pugsley came to Youngstown from Kansas State University where he served as administrative vice president. During a period of 23 years at Kansas State he was chairman of several key faculty and administrative committees and was vice president of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Leadership and accomplishment have been a way of life for the new YU president: civil engineering graduate of South Dakota State College, master of architecture degree from Harvard University, University Sheldon Traveling Fellowship for study abroad, assistant director of the National Science and Management War Training Program in Washington, D.C., and honorary doctor of science degree from South Dakota State. Dr. Pugsley also holds an honorary doctor of laws degree from Kansas Wesleyan University and is an active member of Rotary. He is also past president of the Manhattan Club.

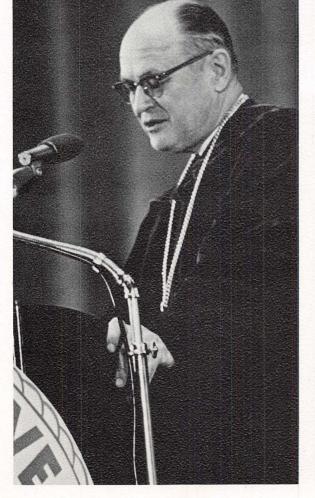

Probably his best quality is his dedication to higher education and to the students. A truly personal president, Dr. Pugsley attends all campus activities and is YU's most interested football fan.

Dr. Pugsley has won the respect of the entire faculty and student body since coming here in September. He is a "swamped" man who always makes time for everyone.

Dr. Pugsley Inaugurated As Second

On Saturday morning, the fifth of November, Dr. Albert Leroy Pugsley was inaugurated as the second president of Youngstown University uniting the promise of the future with the traditions of the past.

This organized, positive, precise man presented definite ideas for the future development of Youngstown University as close to 2000 friends, students, alumni, faculty and university officials looked on. The inauguration was the most dramatic of all past university activities.

Highlighting the inauguration were speeches from such honored guests as Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of John Hopkins University; Dr. John D. Millett, chairman of the Ohio Board of Regents; and James A. Rhodes, Governor of Ohio.

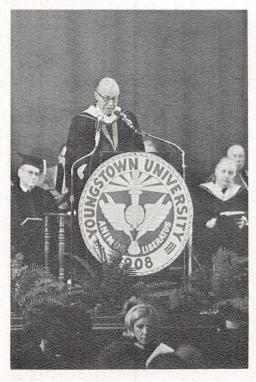

The official presidential pendant was designed by Jon Naberezny

DR. ALBERT LEROY PUGSLEY

PRESIDENT

Dr. Albert Leroy Pugsley accepted the presidency of Youngstown University in the spring of 1966 and assumed office on September 1, 1966, thus becoming the university's second president.

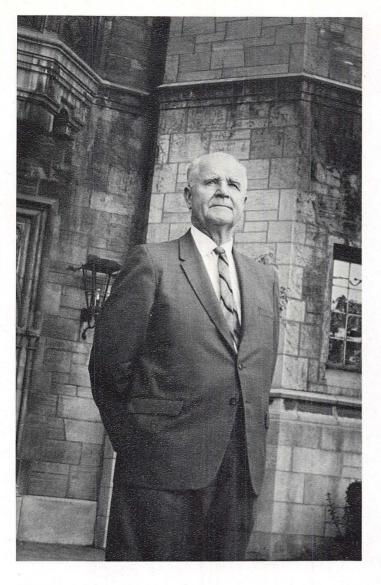

He was graduated from South Dakota State University in 1930 with a Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering, and from Harvard in 1934 with a master of architecture degree. The following year he studied abroad under the Harvard University Sheldon Traveling Fellowship. He is both a registered engineer and a licensed professional architect. Dr. Pugsley's educational leadership has been recognized by Kansas Wesleyan University with an honorary Doctor of Laws in 1960, and by his alma mater, South Dakota State University with an honorary Doctor of Science degree in 1961.

In 1943 Dr. Pugsley went to Kansas State University where he was appointed professor of structural engineering and assistant director of the Engineering Experiment Station. In 1946 he was named dean of administration by Milton Eisenhower.

In 1951 Dr. Pugsley's title was changed to dean of academic administration and in 1963 he was named administrative vice president. On November 5, 1966 he was formally inaugurated as the second president of Youngstown University.

In the short time that he has been here, Dr. Pugsley has proven himself to be very effective. Through friendliness, diplomacy, and sincerity, he has become popular with the students and faculty and has initiated several changes in policy for the advancement of YU.

On behalf of the Youngstown University student body, we the Neon staff, welcome you Dr. Pugsley to our university and look forward to many successful years under your direction.

DR. HOWARD W. JONES PRESIDENT EMERITUS

President Howard W. Jones was, is, and always will be remembered as "Mr. Youngstown University" by faculty, students, and alumni associated with YU.

Through President Jones or "Prexy" as he is known by thousands, yesterday's plans are today's realities. He is one of the first "brick-layers" that layed out the framework that now houses our university and what we have accomplished was mortared with ability and ambition by Dr. Jones.

His past efforts and influence are evident in every phase of campus life and through him, today's dreams are in reality, tomorrow's plans.

Dr. Jones can really be called the "Ambassador of Youngstown University" because everywhere he goes, he represents YU and what the university stands for.

Retiring last January, President Jones elected to stay on at YU as an aid and advisor to President Pugsley. Still active in administrative policy, President Jones serves on the Board of Trustees and works close in hand with university fund raising and expansion.

Through his 35 years here at YU, President Jones has built a faculty, administration, and a major university that is one of the nation's best.

His administrative policies have always been in the best cultural interest of both students and faculty and he has been a planner and dreamer of all university growth and expansion.

DEAN CHARLES H. AURAND, JR. ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

Dean Charles H. Aurand, Jr. serves a double capacity in the administration of Youngstown University. He currently serves as Dean of the Dana School of Music as well as Assistant to the President of the University.

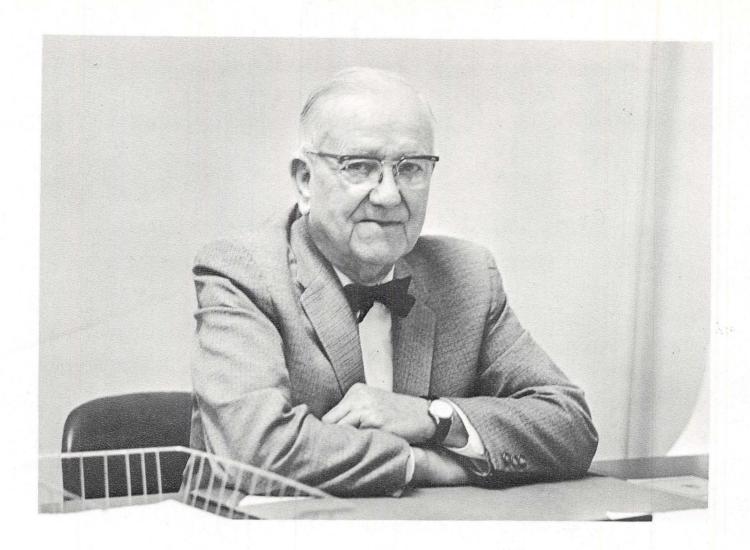

Dean Aurand completed his undergraduate studies at Michigan State University where he received his Mus. B and Mus. M degrees. He then went on to earn his doctorate at Ohio State University before joining the faculty here at Youngstown University.

In 1964 Dean Aurand was appointed Assistant to the President and since that date, he has served under both President Jones and President Pugsley.

Charles Aurand supplies the additional manpower in making Youngstown University a growing and expanding campus. His administrative know-how, ability, drive, and good judgment have enabled our university to grow rapidly in the past five years.

To know Dean Aurand is to respect his judgment and ability, and to become enamoured of his personality and friendly attitude and to give full cooperation in any undertaking he proposes.

In addition to his job in helping President Pugsley, Dean Aurand has a full schedule of duties at Dana, where he serves as the Dean of Music. He keeps regular office hours and serves as advisor to faculty as well as students. He also represents Dana in the Youngstown Symphony Society.

JOSEPH E. SMITH DEAN OF THE UNIVERSITY

"Students are the most exciting people in the world," were the words that the Dean of the University used to sum up more than 45 years of service to the Youngstown University.

As Chief Administrator under President Pugsley and President Emeritus Jones, Dean Joseph E. Smith serves as chairman of numerous university committees including Curriculum, Discipline, and Faculty-Student Relations Committees.

In the course of his academic career a Rhodes Scholar, professor of economics, counsellor in labor relations, war manpower director, dean of men, and dean of the university, Dean Smith has brought to each of these roles a humane philosophy, a discerning judgment and, not least of his many virtues, an unfailing wit.

Holder of a Ph.D from Wallas College (London), Dean Smith recalls his first Youngstown College class on the second floor of the Y.M.C.A. while he was on the faculty at Hiram College. He came to Youngstown as a full time instructor in 1937. Although he took time out in 1939 to serve as a member of Tom Dewey's research staff in New York and Washington and again served a period of time as Area Director of the War Manpower Commission during World War II, he returned to his first love, teaching, and became Dean of the University in 1949.

Active in many organizations, Dean Smith is a member of the American Economics Association and the American Sociological Society, is a Mason, and has the distinction of having been named in 1965 "Boss of the Year in Youngstown."

DR. SIDNEY I. ROBERTS ASSISTANT DEAN OF THE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Sidney I. Roberts, assistant dean of the university, is a man of scholarly background. He earned his B.S. degree from the City College of New York, his M.A. degree from Columbia, and his Ph.D. degree from Northwestern University. He received several scholarships including a national award, the William Randolph Hearst scholarship in American history. He was a professor of history at Texas A&M before coming to YU in 1961.

A man of unlimited talent, Dean Roberts is a member of National History Honor Society, the American Historical Association, the Organization of American Historians, and is on the board of directors of several civic organizations. Admired and respected by all students, Dean Roberts has been a visiting professor at Clark University and gives public lectures on many historical topics.

A verbalizer of students' thoughts, Dean Roberts serves on almost every major committee in the administration. He is chairman of the publications, academic planning and development committees and supervisor of the University Honors Seminar.

He is known for his ability to ask stimulating questions, challenge people to understand issues, provoke inquiry, and encourage people to broaden their horizons. An easy man to talk with, he keeps his office doors open at all times to students and faculty seeking advice or just a "chat." His dedication to the university and the student body are such that Dean Roberts and the University's future are closely allied.

EDITH P. PAINTER DEAN OF WOMEN

JOHN P. GILLESPIE DEAN OF MEN

Two of the most difficult jobs on campus belong to Dean of Women, Edith P. Painter and Dean of Men, John P. Gillespie. Their jobs require long hours, dedication, and hard work and are important to the entire student body of Youngstown University.

Dean Gillespie and Dean Painter have proven that a dean's life never becomes dull for they are on many major campus committees along with their regular duties as deans of the university.

Since his appointment in 1955, Mr. Gillespie has advised countless university students. His sound administrative advice cannot begin to be counted for his doors are always open to students seeking advice of some sort.

Dean Gillespie serves as advisor to Student Council and Inter-Fraternity Council. Recently he was honored by IFC for his service to the fraternity organizations. He is known to thousands of students by his willingness to listen and help whenever possible.

Mrs. Painter earned her A.B. at Tufts University, her M.A. from Columbia and her Ed.D from Colorado State University. She came to YU from Boise Jr. College in 1961 and is the proud holder of the distinguished Phi Beta Kappa key.

Dean Painter serves on ten major committees and is advisor to Panhellenic Council. She has been on the Honor's Day Committee and states that she is proud of her "C.O.W.'S" or the Committee of Women.

Dean Painter and Dean Gillespie were honored by the Neon this year for their willingness to participate in all university functions whenever possible. If awards were given for the most social events attended in a single year, these Deans would receive the prize.

DR. GEORGE JONES LIBRARIAN

PHILIP SNYDER

PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Two of YU's hardest workers are Librarian George Jones and Director of Public Relations, Philip Snyder.

Due to the labors of Mr. Jones, Youngstown University has one of the finest college libraries in all of Ohio. As the university expands, Mr. Jones keeps pace with the addition of volumes and increased seating capacity in the library.

In his first full year as head of YU's public relations, Mr. Snyder keeps the university image alive and well known as he uses all media available to his use.

Through records, statistics, and everyday plain information, Mr. Snyder keeps in contact with everyone at the university and he sends releases to all radio stations and newspapers in the surrounding areas.

MARY B. SMITH REGISTRAR

To the first semester freshmen or the high school graduate Mary B. Smith is the registrar of Youngstown University but to the upperclassmen here at Y U, Mrs. Smith is much more than her title allows.

A dedicated and hardworking administrator, Mrs. Smith has been on the Youngstown University faculty since 1939. Since that time she has served as a faculty member, Head of the Health and Physical Education department, Assistant Registrar, Recorder, Head of the IBM office, and Registrar. She received her A.B. from Hiram College and her M.A. in Physical Education from Ohio State University.

Mrs. Smith reviews and evaluates all applications for admission and interviews as many prospective students as possible. Her job has become one of selectivity due to the number of applicants and the limit to the existing facilities.

Her conscientious attention to her increasing duties as registrar of a growing university as well as the extra attention she has always given to students have won Mary B. Smith the respect of everyone in the university community.

Although the class of 1969 will be the first to benefit from her aid as registrar, Mrs. Smith has helped or aided every student in one form or another during his stay at Youngstown University.

JOSEPH S. ROOK BUSINESS MANAGER

Joseph S. Rook succeeded P. C. Pickard as Business Manager of Youngstown University last September after being president of the Baltimore College of Commerce since 1959. Financial planning, tuition accounts and purchasing are all under his management as Business Manager.

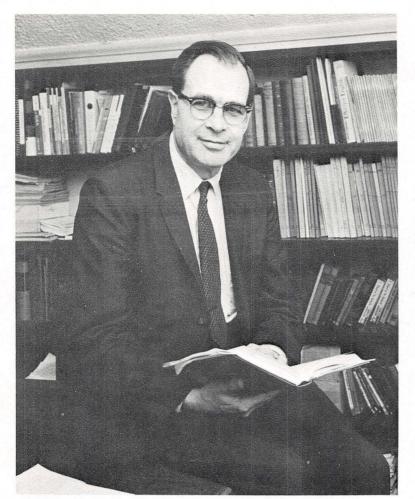

William G. Nelson left Youngstown University last January after serving as YU's Assistant Business Manager since 1946. Here at the university Mr. Nelson was in charge of the billing of tuition payments, sales for University athletic tickets and was YU's Veteran Education Officer. Mr. Nelson accepted the job as purchasing agent at the University of Pittsburgh.

William Livosky was appointed Director of Admissions at Y U after serving on the faculty since 1964. He was a 1956 graduate of Youngstown University and prior to his duties here he worked with the Internal Revenue.

Now's the time to meet Newman.

Orientation opens the freshman's eyes for his first look at the YU campus, its surroundings, faculty, student government, and collegiate life.

During a three day span held one week before the opening of the school year, the frosh jam into Wick Park to meet each other and get acquainted with campus groups and leaders.

Chairmen of Orientation this year were Diana Guerra of Zeta Tau Alpha, Ken Tomko of Phi Sigma Kappa, and Tony Nicktas of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The program consisted of a picnic and dance at Kilcawley Center. Editors of this year's first two color program were Ruthie Davies, Elaine Dixon, and Alice O'Neill.

The picnic was highlighted by the opening address of our new president, Dr. Albert L. Pugsley, who welcomed the freshmen to YU.

Penny Price Voted

The crowning of Penny Price as 1966 Spring Weekend Queen highlighted this year's three day festival on campus.

Penny was crowned by Laraine Santangelo, last year's queen and a Tri-Sigma sorority sister. The queen was escorted around the Idora Park Ballroom by a procession of Arabian clad Newman members, chairmen of the weekend.

Following the procession, the queen was escorted to a beautiful gold caravan and serenaded by her sisters and the brothers of Theta Chi. Members of her court included Maggi McKissick, Zeta Tau Alpha and Barbara Chura, Alpha Omicron Pi.

A picnic and a concert rounded out the weekend's activities. Using the Arabian Escapade as the theme, Circle K won first place in booth competition and Sigma Tau Gamma won first place in caravan construction. The International Students Organization captured first place skit honors in the rain soaked festival.

Ilona Johnson Reigns A

Without a doubt, this year's Homecoming was one of the most extravagant and beautiful in YU history.

The festival included a 60 unit parade through downtown Youngstown which was the largest the school has ever presented.

Following the parade, a pep rally was held outside Kilcawley and hundreds of students cheered to the chants of "crush Morehead State".

The game itself was exciting, but fumbles and an injury to starting halfback Dick Adipotti left YU behind when the game ending buzzer sounded 21-14.

Halftime ceremonies included the crowning of Ilona Marie Johnson, Sigma Sigma Sigma, as 1966 Homecoming Queen. The court included Elaine Dixon of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority and Patti Caggiano of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Friday night featured the nationally famous Serendipity Singers at Stambaugh Auditorium as 2600 students jammed themselves in to witness the concert.

The Homecoming committee with the help of hostesses from each sorority and The Order of Diana, gave a special tea for President Emeritus Howard P. Jones.

Saturday evening marked the scene of "Camelot" in the Yankee Lake Ballroom as the queen and her court were presented their winning trophies.

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity captured their third consecutive float trophy in a row with their presentation of "Puff the Magic Dragon."

Chairmen of Homecoming this year were the brothers of Circle K and Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternities.

The Cafeteria Marks the Center of Activity on the YU Campus

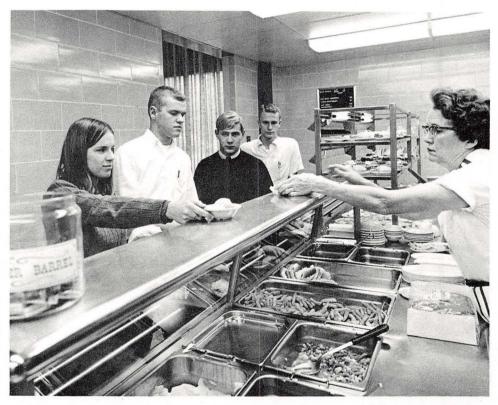

The cafeteria is the most frequented gathering spot on the YU campus. From 8 AM to 9 PM it's the spot where all the "in" crowd meets to play cards, socialize, politic, pledge, and last of all—it's the place to eat.

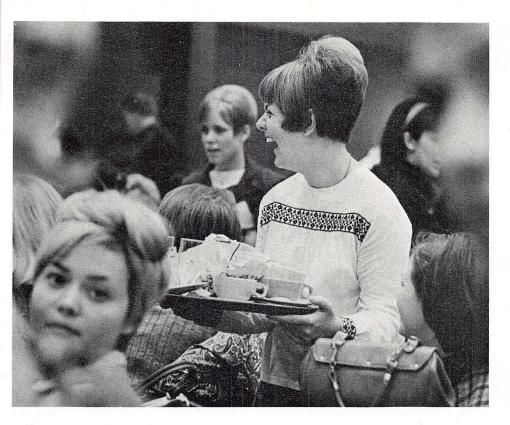

This year saw the opening of a larger cafe with double space and modern facilities for the YU student. Despite everything, the cafe was always jammed from front to rear doors.

Cathy Horton Crowned Queen

Each fall the Dean's Council of the William Rayen School of Engineering sponsors the Engineers' Ball, the one activity which draws the seven engineering societies together at one occasion.

Highlighting the evening is the crowning of the Engineer's Sweetheart and the naming of a Mr. Engineer for 1966.

This year's dance was held at the Mural Room and Cathy Horton of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority was crowned as the 1966 Sweetheart. Members of her court included Ann Blei of Sigma Sigma Sigma, Joanne Marian of Alpha Omicron Pi, and Carole Ritenour of Phi Mu.

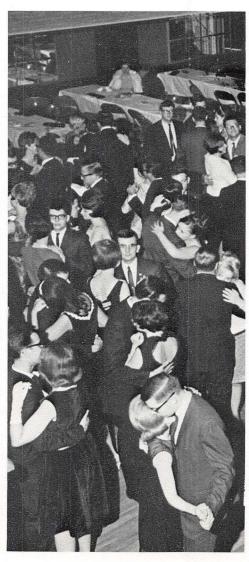

Richard J. DiRenzo was crowned Mr. Engineer. He was elected from a field of six candidates sponsored by the engineering societies. Scholarship, leadership, and personality were the basis of selection.

Student Lounge Serves As

Probably one of the most frequented spots on the YU campus is the new Student Lounge in the Kilcawley Dormitory.

The Lounge is the place where students go to play a friendly game of cards, to relax with a cigarette and a good magazine, or just to get away from the hazards of the cafeteria.

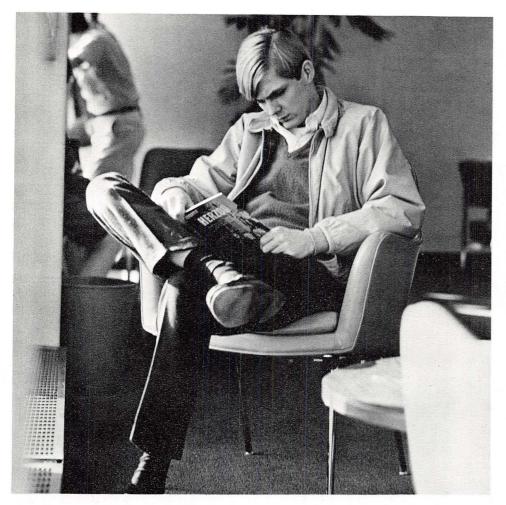

The Lounge also serves as a meeting place for many campus organizations as the Buckeye, Carnation, and Cardinal conference rooms are located there.

Although plans are being drawn up for a much larger lounge with more adequate student facilities, the present lounge serves as the second home for dorm residents and half of the student body.

Dana Presented Live Opera Starrin

Each year the students of the Dana School of Music present an opera for the benefit of the university. There is no charge for admission and students and faculty have the chance to see a live performance by the music students.

This year Dana presented "Giahani Schici," an Italian opera at Strouss Auditorium. The cast was selected by the voice faculty at Dana.

Performing in the opera were Dale Tompson, Jim Ekis, Joan Ault, Judy Tate, Andy Svercko, Sally Crespy, Bob Boles, Jim Hughes, Lonnie Arnold, Nick DeToro, Dick Melvin and Andrea Kley.

The plot of the opera showed an Italian that died without leaving a will. According to the village law, all his money would be turned over to the government and to charity so his relatives hired Giahani Schini to draw up a will. Schini made up the will but put himself as the benefactor and the relatives had to keep quiet because they had broken the law.

As an annual tradition the members of the Dana School of Music faculty gather their talents together and put on a recital for the students and faculty of the university.

This year saw the Dana faculty presenting the German play "The Apothocary" at the Dana Recital Hall. The cast included Mr. Wade Rairdon, Mrs. Rosemary Rairdon, Mrs. James Elson, and Mrs. Rosemary Kascher.

The plot of the play showed the owner of a shop employing a young apprentice who falls in love with a lady of the town. The employer also loves the lady and he plots to discourage his apprentice by deceiving him. Later, the employer changes his mind and lets his young apprentice marry and everyone lives happily ever after.

Speakers Capture Student Interest

This year the Assemblies Committee concentrated on getting speakers that could interest the majority of the students on campus.

The efforts by the committee were appreciated by the YU student body-Strouss Auditorium was full!

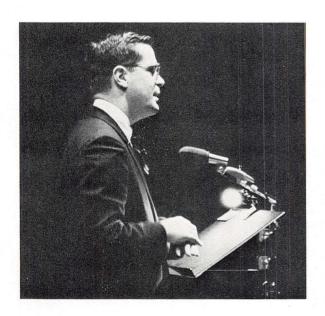

This year the speaker program was revamped to permit chartered organizations to sponsor speakers.

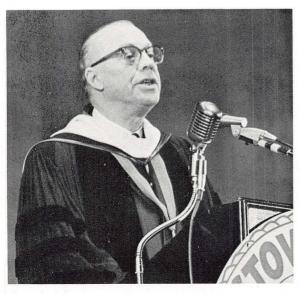

Appearing in lecture this year were the Honorable Michael J. Kirwan, U.S. Representative from Ohio; Robert Wallace, poet and resident of Western Reserve University; Herbert Philbrick of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Harry Golden, world traveler and author; and Theodore C. Sorensen, author and special advisor to the late President Kennedy.

The Sorensen lecture was sponsored by Dr. Leonard T. Skeggs, Jr. with the purpose of bringing prominent speakers to Youngstown University.

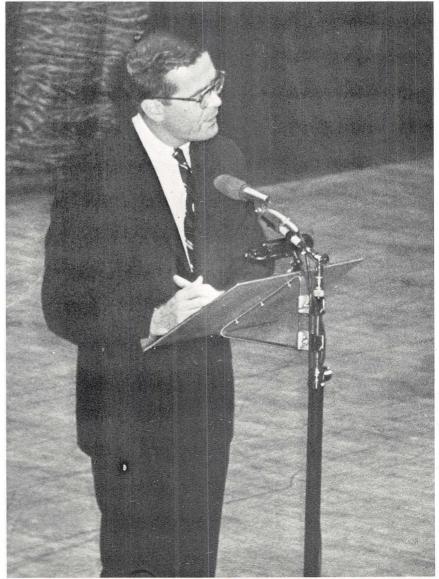

Harry Golden spoke on Israel and the Middle

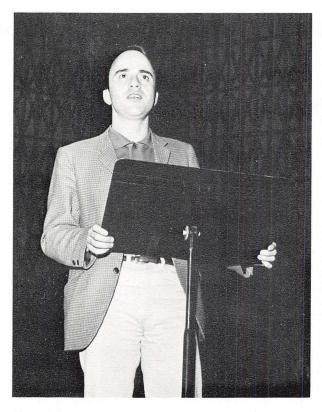

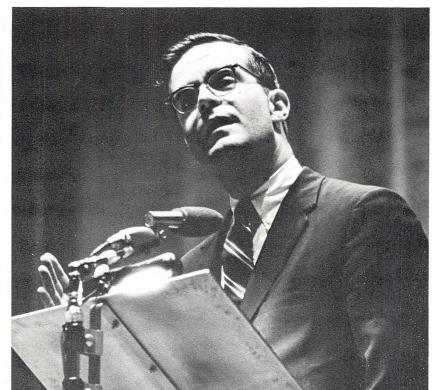

Dr. Milton Eisenhower spoke at President Pugsley's inauguration.

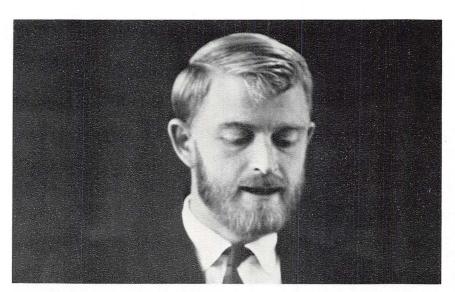

Theodore C. Sorensen spoke on the "Legacy of J.F.K."

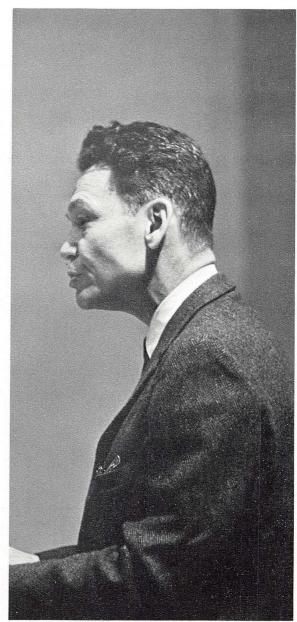

Frank Polite, YU instructor, spoke before a crowd at Dana.

Robert Wallace lectured at Dana Recital Hall.

Herbert Philbrick explained the FBI to students at Strouss.

YU Graduates Record Numbe

Again, as in 1965, two commencement exercises were necessary to accommodate the record number of graduates in 1966. Dr. Perry E. Gresham, President of Bethany College, addressed the graduates this past year.

Commencements mark the end of the four year academic study at YU and the beginning of the student's professional work in the field of his choice.

A record number of graduates were handed their hard earned degrees last year and a record was set for graduates entering graduate school from YU.

TGIF . . . Never a Dull Moment

One problem that YU students never have to face is what to do on a Friday night.

Almost every Friday night some campus organization sponsors a record hop and the hall is filled with fraternity and sorority candidates going up for the titles from anything from Mr. Mod to "Doggiest Girl in Dogpatch."

Dance themes change every week but the weekends start off swinging as the votes are tabulated and the winners are announced. Winners celebrate and losers go home waiting for the next T.G.I.F. Day and still another dance.

Some of the dances such as ZTA's Best Dressed Coed, Theta Xi's Sadie Hawkins Day, TKE's President's Dance, Tri-Sig's Topsy Turvy, Sig Tau's Pete Penguin Ball, and Alpha Omicron Pi's Greek God and Goddess have become annual traditional record hops on the YU campus.

Candidates hustle for votes.

Most dances attracted large crowds.

Jerry Singer, 1965 Topsy Turvy King crowns TKE brother Tom Ameen, 1966 Topsy Turvy King at Tri-Sig dance.

Bill Humphrey, Sig Ep, won second place at Topsy Turvy.

Bill Oddis, Alpha Phi Delta, won first place trophy at TKE President's Dance.

Trophies Highlight Friday Night Competition at Dances

Jack Fiasco, TEKE won Mr. Autumn Dance sponsored by Scabbard and Blade.

Rosie Gaetano, ZTA won Miss A-Go-Go trophy at the Circle K Dance.

Chipper Boyd (SAE), Tom Ameen (TKE) and Bill Humphreys (Sig Ep) were winners at Tri-Sigma dance.

Ken Billanti, TEKE was elected Winter Weekend King at the Alpha Phi dance.

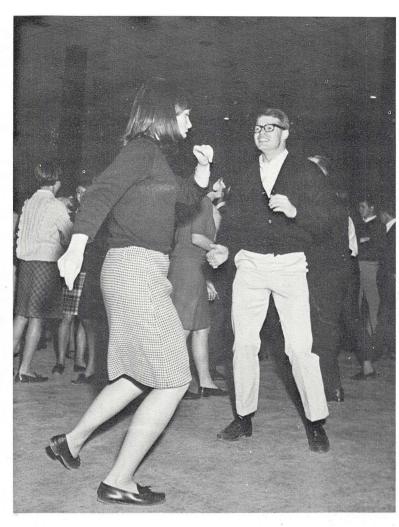

Mike Sabula, TEKE was elected Playboy on Campus at the Phi-Sig dance.

Alberta Samuels, AOPi was elected Winter Weekend Queen at the Alpha Phi dance.

The Frug, Philley Dog and Bugalu Highlighted the Years Dances

Winter Weekend Featured the

This year Student Council and the Major Events Committee sponsored a Winter Weekend instead of the yearly Snowflake Frolic.

The purpose of the weekend was twofold: first Council wanted to get more big name entertainment on campus, and secondly, they wanted to create more school spirit.

Instead of the normal dance, Council put on a concert at Stambaugh Auditorium featuring The Bitter End Singers.

Because of poor publicity and bad weather, the concert wasn't the success it should have been, but it opened the doors to bigger and better entertainment for the future.

Sitter End Singers in Concert

Howard Johnston presented Sandra Bair with Miss YU charm.

Frank Bordonaro escorted Sandra Bair to stage.

Donna Madacsi Crowned

Each February to celebrate the opening of Lent, Newman of Y.U. holds its annual Mardi Gras Dance at Stambaugh Auditorium.

The dance, one of the most colorful on the YU campus, features the crowning of an elected queen to reign over the festivities.

This year saw Donna Madacsi, a junior and member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority crowned the 21st Mardi Gras Queen. She was crowned by Virginia Gabriel, 1965 Queen and Sigma sister.

The Court included Cheryl Anzelmo, Carole Bobanic, Anita Moliterno, and Cecily Moran, all Newman members.

Activities Include Faculty A

During the course of the academic year the students at YU normally make time to break away from their studies to participate in one school event or another. As the students break away, so do faculty members as they are always willing to give their free time as advisors or chaperones.

Whether it be a Homecoming dance, a picnic, fraternity or sorority advisors, or just enjoying a tension packed football game, the faculty are always on hand.

Kilcawley Houses Dorm Student

Donald Mathews

Although only in its second full year on campus, Kilcawley Student Center has left its influence on everyone on campus.

The Center acts as a residence hall for 210 men and houses the Student Lounge, conference rooms, business offices and the cafeteria.

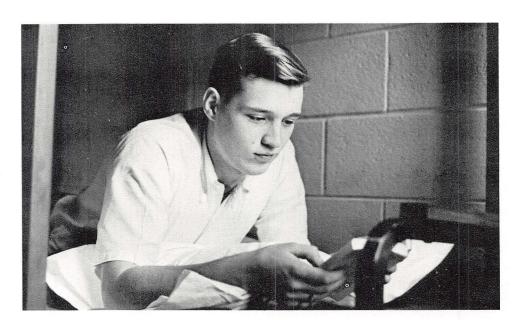

Kilcawley can easily be called the out-of-town student's "home away from home." The dorm students themselves have developed rivalry on the different floors with each floor trying to outdo the other. Wild Christmas decorations and mass voting movements to Strouss Auditorium have proven the dorm student's spirit in YU.

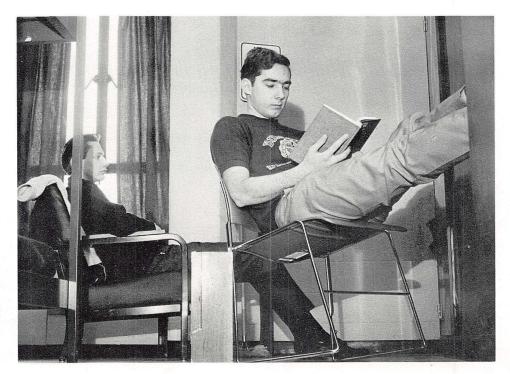

Mr. T. H. Martindale acts as Housing Director and Mr. Donald Mathews serves as Resident Director of Kilcawley to better serve the students and residents.

Romance Blooms All Yea

Despite the seasons, whether the snow or the autumn leaves are falling, romance always finds itself budding somewhere on the YU campus.

Sorority girls and independents alike plan strategy to somehow manage to get that lavalier, fraternity pin, or better yet, the engagement ring from the YU male.

From the student lounge to the cafeteria couples are seen holding hands and making plans for the weekends. Couples walk hand-in-hand across campus and somehow try to arrange similar schedules for classes.

Sororities hold candlelights to celebrate happy occasions such as lavalierings and pinnings while fraternity brothers kid each other about another "lost warrior."

SAE Wins Greek Mixer

Each May the Greeks pile themselves together and head out to Yankee Lake in earnest to compete in what is their last event of the school year.

Competition breaks down into a series of athletic events for both fraternity and sorority members. This year, Sigma Alpha Epsilon captured first place All Events in fraternity competition.

Sigma Tau Gamma upset Tau Kappa Epsilon in tug competition and took the previous two year title away from the Tekes. Ace Grossi raced for first place in the 100 yard dash and the Sig Eps took first in the relay race.

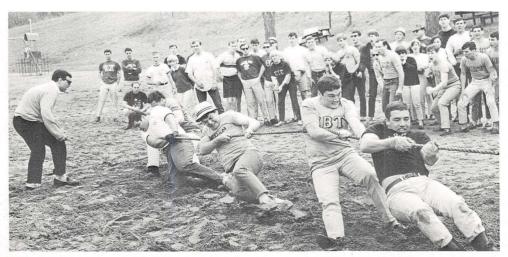

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and Zeta Tau Alpha sorority split up the trophies given in the girls competition and, all in all, the afternoon was fun for all.

Sigma Tau Gamma captured the highly disputed All Events trophy from the hands of Theta Xi and the Greeks went home for the summer to rest for a new year.

TEKES Capture First at IFC Ball

The IFC relaxes each year from its role of moderator and policy-maker to engage in booth competition at the annual IFC Ball. Here the fraternities spend weeks of preparation with their artistic and engineering skills for the theme of the Ball.

This year's theme centered around the weird and unknown and was labeled "Chambers of Horror" as Stambaugh Auditorium reverberated with the sounds of Frankenstein, Dracula, Egor and many other legendary creatures.

Tau Kappa Epsilon captured first place honors with their version of "Frankenstein's Castle," an elaborate display of the laboratory and the birth of Frankenstein. The booth featured computer panels, a moving hunchback, flashing neon lights and an electrocuted Frankenstein that moved up and down as electricity shot out of his bulky neck.

Alpha Phi Delta engineered a walk through booth entitled "Chamber of Horrors" and won second place honors. The booth featured a slidding guillotine, swinging blades and a rat infested coffin.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon re-constructed a scene from "Dracula" with the legendary vampire preying on horrified victims.

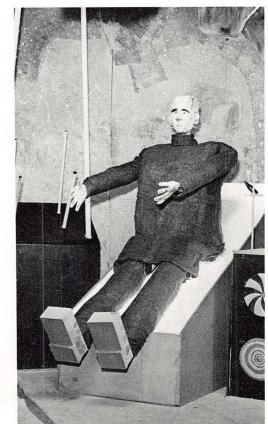

Alberta Samuels of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority was crowned IFC Sweetheart by last year's queen and her sorority sister, Barbara Chura. The IFC Court included first runner-up Diane Mastropietro, second runner-up Marsha Hoodin, and third runner-up Carol Ritenour. Chairmen of the Ball were Dale Paden and Ken Bauer.

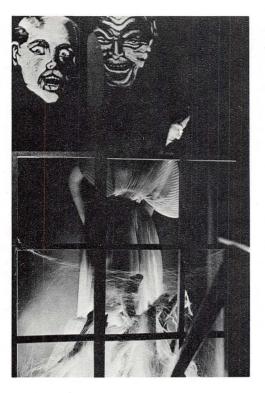

Barbara Chura crowned Alberta as IFC Queen.

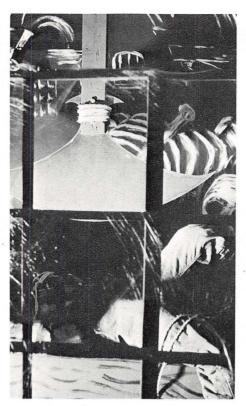

First place was won by Tau Kappa Epsilon.

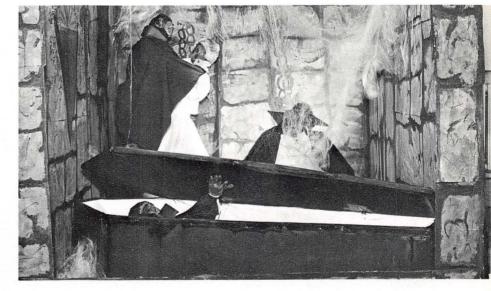

Alpha Phi's won second place.

Dale Paden was chair man of the Ball.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon took third place honors.

Tri-Sigs-Sig Eps Win 1960

A group of men joyfully singing their fraternity victory song and a sorority screaming in happiness climaxed months of preparation as the winners of Greek Sing were announced.

The winners, Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, entertained the 3000 plus spectators with their singing of "I Believe" and "Mango Walk" respectfully. Second place went to Sigma Tau Gamma and third, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

As in IFC and Pan Hel tradition, the winners of the 1966 Scholarship trophies were announced. This years honors went to Zeta Tau Alpha sorority and Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Highest individual scholarship went to Jeanne Paris of Zeta Tau Alpha and James Tarantine of Sigma Tau Gamma. Dave Guidubaldi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon representative to IFC, was selected as IFC Outstanding Delegate of 1966.

Intermission saw Mrs. Kitty McCabe, secretary to the Dean of Women, honored by the Pan Hellenic Council. The IFC Quintet headed by Skip Rossario of Phi Sigma Kappa also entertained the crowd.

Chairmen of the 14th annual Greek Sing were Phil Feldman of Zeta Beta Tau, Bob Dinello of Theta Chi, and Karen McGarry of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Ann Infante receives first place scholarship for Zetas.

Theta Xi Dynasty Captures Eighth Straight IFC Championship

If IFC ever had to send a fraternity to the Rose Bowl game, Theta Xi would emerge the unanimous choice.

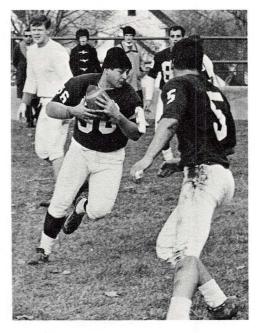

For the past eight years, the Theta Xi's have completely dominated IFC football. Building up an unbelievable 55 game winning streak, the Theta Xi's are up and ready for any and all competition, year after year.

1966 was another year for the Theta Xi ironmen as the team emerged with still another championship under their belts.

Theta Xi entered the championship unbeaten and unscored upon in four contests while a strong Alpha Phi team was unbeaten in five games.

Tension mounted as the opening kickoff was booted and at the half there was no score. The game was similar to the previous championship in which Theta Xi won by a touchdown.

Alpha Phi scored first on a long pass from Ferrero to DelBene. Antonucci kept the ball moving and at the end, the Theta Xi dynasty came out victorious, 13-7.

All IFC choice Joe DiStazio runs for Theta Xi first down.

Lou Antonucci Makes All IFC Quarterback

For the past four years Lou Antonucci has kept Theta Xi alive with his outstanding football abilities on the gridiron.

Antonucci has one of the best arms ever seen in IFC and his outstanding ability to pick up his blockers has made him probably the most outstanding player in competition in the past decade.

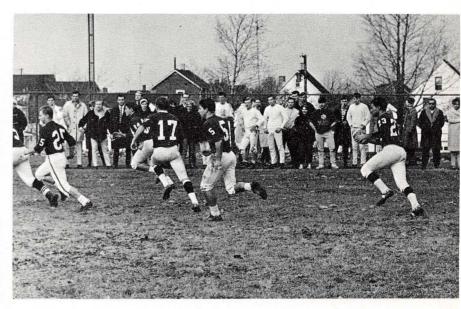

Since 1962, Antonucci has been named by his competitive fraternities to the All IFC squad.

Sadie Hawkins Day on Campus

Many moons ago the Theta Xi's met in Dogpatch and started the annual Sadie Hawkins Day race and dance on the YU campus.

Each November the Theta Xi's meet in the center of campus and the annual traditional race begins with the firing of the first shot and the Xi's race through the faculty parking lot, under cars, and climb on trees.

The second shot releases a few hundred screaming coeds trying to get their man and drag him across the finish line to Marryin' Sam. The gals outnumber the guys 5-1, but this doesn't seem to bother either the guys, the girls, or Marryin' Sam.

After a few wild moments the race is over and everyone gets ready to attend the dance at Stambaugh. This year saw the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority winning the trophy for the most girls in the race.

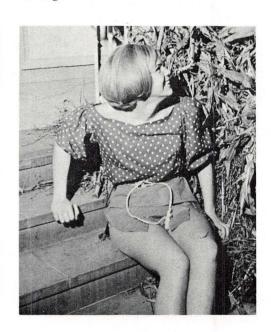

Ballots at the dance saw "Moose" Desman of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Diane Schuller of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority emerge as Little Abner and Daisy Mae respectfully. Louie Saloom of Theta Xi directed this year's festivities.

Alpha Iota is an International Business and Social Sorority with chapters located in the leading business schools and colleges throughout the United States and Canada. Alpha Iota began as a local club, organized October 21, 1925. The Youngstown University Chapter, Alpha Eta, was organized October 30, 1930. During the spring conclave, Lisa Hnatiw, a member of the local chapter, was elected Sweetheart of the State of Ohio. Last year the sisters worked hard and long in order to collect 400,000 cigarette wrappers to buy an automatic wheel chair for a needy person. Each year the sorority sends old Christmas cards to the Institute of Logopedic for Blind and Deaf Children. Mrs. Darrell Spiker and Miss Betsy Read advise the girls in all activities that the sorority undertakes.

Delta Chi Epsilon sorority is celebrating its 28th year on the Youngstown University campus. Founded in 1939, the sorority represents night school students attending the Secretarial School and was originally chartered to bring together working girls to further their interest in the University.

The Greek letters of the sorority stand for the qualities of development, character, and efficiency. Annual social functions include the Mother-Daughter Tea, the Christmas Dinner Dance, the Spring Dinner Dance and a Founders' Day Tea. Advisor to the secretarial sorority is Mrs. Viola Green.

The Delta Chi's are active in many campus organizations and also participate in many social fraternity-sorority parties during both the fall and the spring semesters.

Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded at Howard University, Washington, D.C. on January 16, 1908. It was incorporated on January 13, 1913 and now boasts 200 graduate chapters and 114 undergraduate chapters throughout the United States.

Delta Delta chapter was founded through Epsilon Mu Omega in 1948 and received its charter in 1952. The sorority is the only recognized Negro sorority on campus and has 12 members with each soror wearing a badge of distinction: a gold crest pin surrounded by 20 pearls.

Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority incorporated national program targets which include scholarships, training undergraduates for leadership, job opportunities, employment and training for youth, Cleveland Job Corps, Women's Residential Training Center, voter education and first class citizenship, AKA-NAACP Project Freedom implementation of Civil Rights Act of 1964, Project Negro Heritage and Operation Circle.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

Pan Hellenic Council is the governing body of all the social sororities at YU. The council is made up of three representatives from each of the four social sororities.

The main purpose of Pan Hellenic is to maintain good relations among the Greeks. The council is the controlling body for making and enforcing rules concerning the rush and pledging procedures of the sororities.

Pan Hellenic sponsors their Gold Diggers Ball as their annual dance on campus and participates in Greek Mixer and Greek Sing with the fraternities on campus.

Each year the council gives a scholarship tray to the sorority with the highest overall accum for the previous year. This year's award went to Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Sisterhood and service are two main objectives of the Sisters of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. As a result, AOPi's are active in every phase of campus activity and are leaders in many campus organizations.

Barbara Chura, president of AOPi is also Pershing Rifle Sponsor and Secretary of the Senior Class as well as being 1966 IFC Sweetheart. Barbara Sedzmak is treasurer of the Senior Class, Alpha Phi Delta Sweetheart, and Queen of Queens of Youngstown University. Esther Thomas is currently Sweetheart of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity and Joanne Marian is Sigma Tau Gamma White Rose Queen. Other sisters serve as cheerleaders and majorettes and many are affiliated with SNEA and fraternity Little Sister organizations.

AOPi social events include the annual Christmas dance, th Greek God and Goddess Dance, the Mother-Daughter Dinner and the Rose Ball.

As a philanthropic project the sisters send clothes, toys and money to the Frontier Nursing Service which serves the underprivileged in the mountains and backwoods regions of Kentucky. AOPi pledge classes visit hospitals and orphanages and the sisters donated money to the Youngstown University library.

Phi Mu, the second oldest women's national sorority was founded at Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia on March 4, 1852 by Mary Myrick Daniel, Mary Dupont Lines and Martha Hardway Redding. Alpha Theta Delta local sorority was installed as Delta Mu Chapter of Phi Mu on December 4, 1952.

Aid to children is its National philanthropy and Delta Mu's local service is the National Polio Foundation to which the sisters donate each year.

This past year's dinner dance was held at the Squaw Creek Country Club and Dick Samuels of Sigma Phi Epsilon was crowned as the Phi Mu Man Of The Year. Other social events include pajama parties, fraternity desserts, Christmas party and Geneva-on-the-lake week before school starts in September. The sisters also have a Founder's Day Banquet and are active in all phases of campus activity.

ΣΣΣ

Sharing friendship, developing character, and encouraging good citizenship and spiritual consciousness are a few of the main purposes of Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority. On the Youngstown University campus, Sigma Sigma Sigma appeared in 1957 when Gamma Sigma local sorority was installed as Beta Psi Chapter.

Foremost in sorority activities is philanthropic work, taking the form of both local and national service projects. The sorority's major service work is furnishing funds for the Robbie Page Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Funds for this project on the Youngstown University campus are obtained through the Topsy Turvy election and this year's King was Tom Ameen of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Mrs. Joseph Smith is the sorority advisor. This year saw Donna Madacsi as Mardi Gras Queen, Ilona Johnson as Homecoming Queen and Penny Price as Spring Weekend Queen.

INTER FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Inter-fraternity Council is the governing body for the fraternity system on the YU campus. The Council is made up of two delegates from each of the eleven social fraternities and four officers, chosen each year in an election by the delegates.

IFC sponsors competition in baseball, football, basketball, bowling, and golf besides the annual Greek Mixer, IFC Ball and Greek Sing events.

At Greek Sing awards are given to the fraternities with the highest scholastic records of the year and to the man with the highest individual scholastic average. Plaques are also given to those representatives that have been on IFC for two or more years.

An All Events trophy is given annually to the fraternity that has the most points in competitive events. This year the trophy went to Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity.

Order of Diana

The Order of Diana, an auxiliary of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, is completing its first year on YU's campus. Membership is open to Sweethearts, pinmates, lavaliermates and co-eds who are interested in the Tekes. The organization adds sisterhood to the strong bond of brotherhood within the fraternity. The girls enjoy being a part of TKE and help them in many ways. The members of the Order of Diana act as hostesses for rush parties and open houses, sponsor fund raising projects or just provide moral support for their brothers. During the Christmas season the Order of Diana plans a party for the Tekes to decorate their house for the holidays.

Sisters of the Golden Heart

The Sisters of the Golden Heart is the women's auxiliary of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity. Its membership is made up of women who are pinned, lavaliered, engaged and those loyal to Sigma Phi Epsilon. Throughout the year, the Sisters hold many activities. Twice a year they sponsor a card and bingo party. Teas, an openhouse and charity projects are sponsored throughout the year by the Sisters of the Golden Heart. Annually at the Sig Ep dinner-dance the Sisters present the Brothers with a gift, the proceeds of the card parties.

LITTLE SISTERS OF MINERVA: Row 1: P. Denny, N. Eckert, T. Gallo, C. Marino (secretary), A. Economus (historian), C. Bestwick (vice-president), S. Patterson (president), K. McGarry (1966 Sweetheart), D. Terlecky. Row 2: E. Timko, J. Boyd, B. Rumberg, M. L. Rosselli, S. Graham, M. L. Schottenberg, S. Essad. Row 3: P. Stropich, J. Orsine, A. Bohach, D. Holt, J. Wasley, S. O'Brien, J. Uhr, B. Dolenic, S. Freguson, K. McClurg, L. Altier, A. Evakich.

The Little Sisters of Minerva, the auxiliary of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was the first "little sister" group on YU's campus. The members, pinmates and other coeds who are interested in the fraternity, are selected by the brothers of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The Little Sisters of Minerva serve as hostesses at teas, rush parties and open houses. The women also sponsor fund raising projects which are used to aid the fraternity.

Sisters of Minerva

SISTERS OF THETA CHI: Row 1: D. Jones, D. Stafford, M. E. Orr, B. Shiffaur (treasurer), P. Price, D. DeCarlo, S. Rhine, J. Chuffo, M. J. Jacola, M. O'Hara (secretary), N. Sylvester (president).

The Sisters of Theta Chi is an organization dedicated to the same values that the fraternity holds high. Throughout the year the Sisters can be seen extending a helping-hand in planning the many openhouses, teas and dinners. Most of all they provide the much desired "woman's touch" in and around the fraternity house. Through helpful hints, actions and deeds the chapter house has become a "home away from home" rather than a mere place to stay while at college. Often during the year the Sisters of Theta Chi provide service to philanthropic organizations in the area.

ΑΦΔ

The brothers of Alpha Phi Delta national fraternity enjoyed another great year on the YU campus. A strong football team glided through as a division champ only to lose a tight game to Theta Xi in the championship. It was the second year in a row that Alpha Phi has finished second in IFC football.

President Bill Oddis was elected as President's President at the Teke Toddle. The brothers' many parties express the brotherhood and lasting friendship of the fraternity and the house located at 910 Wick Avenue serves as the center of Alpha Phi activities.

Active on campus, Joe Audia was elected vice president of Student Council and Tony Cafaro was elected to a seat on Council. Sweetheart Barbara Sezdmak was elected treasurer of the senior class as well as Queen of Queens at the Theta Chi dance. It was the second year in a row that an Alpha Phi sweetheart was elected as Queen of Queens. The brothers held a successful Mr. Winter Weekend dance and again furnished basketball fans with the official university basketball program at all home varsity games.

ΔΣΦ

Delta Sigma Phi was founded on December 10, 1899 as a mutual and cooperative movement of a body of regular students of the College of the City of New York, Columbia University and New York University. The fraternity's chapters strive for an atmosphere of close and sincere fellowship among men of good character, support the educational institutions in their teaching functions, inculcate a spirit of patriotism, and develop a sense of financial responsibility, honor, and honesty.

On December, 1961, Tau Omega, local social fraternity became a colony of Delta Sigma Phi and on May 8, 1962, became Delta Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi national fraternity.

The Delta Sig house is located at 243 Madison Avenue and it is the center of all activities for the brothers. Esther Thomas was re-elected Sweetheart of Delta Sig at the annual Dinner Dance.

An active group of brothers, Delta Sig has left their mark on IFC sports and campus politics. Jack Siggins made All IFC football and Delta Sig dominated IFC basketball with brothers Bill Cook, Jack Graef, and James Tidswell. The Delta Sigs also took 1st place honors in IFC bowling this year.

Delta Sig gridders finished with a 2-3 record in IFC.

Phi Kappa Tau fraternity, one of Youngstown University's youngest, was founded in November, 1956 as Zeta Phi local. From the original membership of 12 veterans, the group has grown to a large membership and has since been chartered by Phi Kappa Tau national fraternity.

Phi Kappa Tau has the distinction of holding the trophy for the highest fraternity point average achieved at Youngstown University as the brothers captured 1st place honors in scholarship for the second consecutive year in a row.

Phi Kappa Tau is proud of its tradition of brotherhood that binds its members together into a working organization. Professor E. Mark Evans serves as advisor to Phi Kappa Tau.

This year saw the brothers elect Tammy Tabak as their 1966 Sweetheart at the Dinner Dance held in May.

Phi Sigma Kappa Homecoming entry.

ΦΣΚ

Phi Sigma Kappa arrived on the YU campus June 8, 1958 when Sigma Delta Beta joined the Grand Chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa National Fraternity.

Phi Sigma Kappa was founded at the University of Massachusetts in 1873 by six men who realized the need for social development in college. The main purposes of Phi Sigma Kappa are contained in the Cardinal Principles of brotherhood, scholarship and character.

1966 saw the brothers refinishing their house on Park Avenue and being active in all IFC sponsored events. The Phi Sigs captured first place in IFC golf and also won the Spring Weekend weight lifting championship. Jerry Torba, John Goldcamp, and Kenny Tomko held seats on Student Council and the brothers were chairmen of Orientation this past year.

Each year the fraternity celebrates Founder's Day with the chapter at R.I.T. and Majorie Yinger was crowned Moonlight Girl at the fraternity Dinner Dance. Majorie Yinger was also 1st runner-up in this year's Miss YU Beauty Pageant.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity was founded March 9, 1856 at the University of Alabama and since has grown to a strong national of 151 chapters in 48 states in the union.

The Youngstown Ohio Alpha chapter went national in 1959 after being known locally as Phi Gamma local since its founding in 1926 as the first social fraternity on campus.

1966 was another good year for the SAE's as the brothers pitched efforts together to win All Events at Greek Mixer, third place in Greek Sing, first place in softball, and second place in golf. The brothers participated in every phase of IFC competition and showed particular strength in football, finishing second in their division.

The SAE's also have proved themselves campus leaders with Dave Guidubaldi, President of IFC; Howard Johnston, Senior Class President; four members on council that included the vice president, best new member, discipline chairman and treasurer.

Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded as a social fraternity on November 1, 1901 at Richmond College, Richmond, Va. Since then it has grown in depth and breadth.

The Ohio Mu Chapter, formerly Phi Sigma Epsilon local fraternity, became affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon on May 22, 1954.

During the year the Sig Ep's have been active both on and off campus. Jim McGinn was elected to fill the engineering seat on Council and Dick Samuels was IFC Rush Chairman and Phi Mu Man of the Year.

The social year was an important one, beginning with a week at Geneva-on-the-Lake. During the year many parties were held and the Sig Ep's sponsored their dance, Computer Capers, at the Eagles Ballroom. The highlight of the year was the crowning of Lois Giblin of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority as the 1966 Girl of the Golden Heart of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The brothers of Sigma Tau Gamma now hold the highest honor a fraternity can attain in that of the All-Events trophy. Sig Tau won the trophy by accumulating the most points in IFC events. The brothers participate in all IFC events and are active in campus activities.

Sig Tau also won awards in scholarship, Greek Mixer, Spring Weekend, and Greek Sing last year. Ray Matko served as IFC President and Gordon Campbell was on Student Council representing the music students.

Highlighting the year was the crowning of JoAnne Marian as the 1966 White Rose Queen at the annual Dinner Dance. Other social parties included the Pete Penguin Ball, a Christmas party and the Roman Toga Party. In all, the Sig Tau's completed a profitable and satisfying year.

Founded in 1899, Tau Kappa Epsilon is the largest International fraternity in the world with 230 chapters throughout the U.S. and Canada.

The YU chapter of TKE has been on campus since 1948 when the group was known as Pi Beta Chi. Active in all campus activities, Teke has built a name for itself on campus through its active members and competitive victories.

1966 saw TKE win Homecoming for the 3rd consecutive year and the brothers acted as chairman with Circle K to host all festivities.

Besides buying a new house at 265 Fairgreen, the Tekes found time to participate in all campus activities. Ken Billanti was Winter King, Jack Fiasco was Mr. Autumn, Tom Ameen was Topsy Turvy King, Moose Desman, Little Abner, Larry Falgiani was Mr. Mod, John Hitchcock was Tri-Delta Man. Jerry Singer was Neon editor, Dale Paden was IFC Ball Chairman and Ken Bauer was IFC Rush Chairman.

The Tekes placed Ben Hayek and John Hitchcock on Student Council and Joe Ameen and Ben Hayek were Newman officers. The YU chapter also won several province awards and Paul Purins was named Assistant Province Supervisor in Ohio.

Theta Chi, a national fraternity, was founded April 10, 1856, at Norwich, Vermont for the purpose of promoting knowledge, advancing culture, and building character. The national office of Theta Chi is located in Trenton, New Jersey.

Active on campus, the brothers of Theta Chi are proud of their accomplishments and proud of their fraternity house located on Bryson Street. The center for all fraternity activities, the Theta Chi house has been redecorated both internally and externally to make it one of the nicest on campus. The brothers recently completed a new addition with the annex to the rear of the house.

Joe Mayernick served on Student Council and Don Rex was elected president of Newman this year. Joe Kazan served on IFC and Art Fleisher served on the Major Events Committee as many of the brothers took part in campus leadership. Mr. McKinley Browne and Mr. Ron Zetterquist are the fraternity advisors.

Alpha Phi Omega, Youngstown University's oldest service fraternity, is dedicated to the ideal of service to the community and the university.

Projects of Alpha Phi range from building the annual Homecoming float for the queen and her court to sponsoring Christmas parties for underprivileged children. The service fraternity also leads tours for incoming freshmen and clangs the victory bell at all home game victories. This year saw the brothers work to have the Peace Corps representatives on campus and they also helped work on YU's annual Alumni Drive.

Probably their best money making project as well as a service to the university is the semi-annual book sale at Strouss Auditorium. Here students can sell their used texts and buy books at reduced prices.

The service fraternity also sponsors the annual Ugly Man On Campus contest with all money being turned over to charity. The many service projects are planned by Alpha Phi Omega in their new office located in Kilcawley Student Center.

Vic Rubenstein was 1966 Ugly Man on Campus.

Gamma Sigma Sigma is a national service sorority which was established on YU's campus in 1950. Gamma Sigma Sigma's purpose is to assemble college and university women in the spirit of service to humanity. Membership is open to any women interested in upholding the ideals of Gamma Sigma Sigma.

The Gamma Sigs served as hostesses for the Freshman Tea, Greek Sing, President Pugsley's Inauguration and other social events at YU. In October Alpha Zeta chapter was host for the Ohio Valley regional conference of Gamma Sigma Sigma Sorority. Each spring the members plan a Mother-Daughter Banquet and a Dinner-Dance.

The national project of Gamma Sigma Sigma is helping the March of Dimes. Mrs. J. Cunningham, Miss I. Feldmiller and Miss A. Morelli serve as advisors.

The Gamma Sigs worked on many of their service projects in their office in Kilcawley Student Center.

Circle K is the largest service fraternity in the world and its members are dedicated to serve the campus and the community which they are a part.

On the Youngstown campus, Circle K is an active group of men of over 50 strong that constantly work for the betterment of Youngstown University, its student body and its administration.

Last April the brothers traveled to the Ohio District Circle K Convention at Ohio Wesleyan University where they were named as the Best Chapter in Ohio for the second consecutive year. The brothers also combined efforts in holding the 1967 Ohio District Circle K Convention in Youngstown.

Putting endless manhours in to help the student body, Circle K is responsible for folding and circulating 20,000 Jambars each year, working for the University Alumni Drive, and working for endless charities throughout the Youngstown area.

The brothers are also campus leaders with Frank Bordonaro head of the Major Events Committee, Al Varauex treasurer of Student Council, Harry Watson Governor of the Ohio District of Circle K, Mike Foley on the Council Advisory Committee and Paul Gregory and Jim McBride Student Council presidents.

The brothers received the Jambar Award for endless hours of cooperation and service to Youngstown University and a similar award from Newman of Y U both in May.

Student Council Directs Major Student Activities

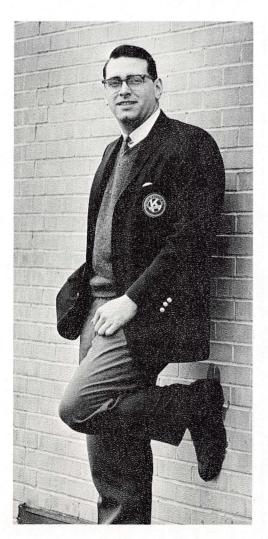

Paul Gregory 1st Semester President

Student Council is a group of 25 student elected representatives that represent the students' will and express their opinions. The group has the power to charter all student organizations, conduct all class elections, establish discipline regulations, appoint student members to faculty-student committees and to make available and accept applications from students seeking chairmanships for Student Council activities. Council also sponsors lectures, films, Homecoming, Spring Weekend, Winter Weekend and Orientation.

Election of its officers is held twice a year and Paul Gregory acted as president during the Fall semester and Jim McBride during the Spring semester.

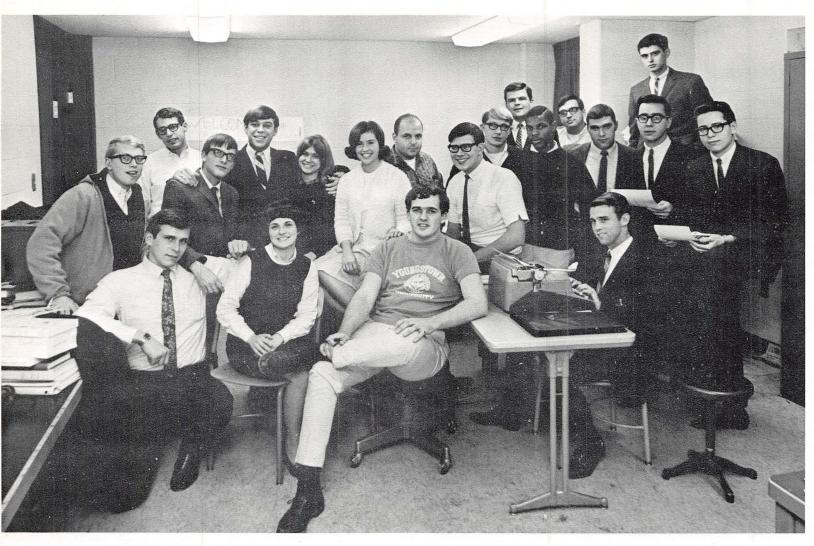

Some of the major activities of Council this year included getting more big name entertainment on campus, the chartering of political parties, the election of the publication editors, and the beginning of a Council Senate and House.

JAMBAR

Jambar editor Jack Murphy proofreads copy.

A casual observer walking past Room 119 Kilcawley Hall on Monday or Tuesday night would wonder how The University Jambar ever gets into print. There are at least fifteen staff members crammed into one small office, all demanding to use the typewriter immediately. The editor orders someone, anyone, to go get some pictures and worries whether the paper will go to press on time. The business manager juggles column, inches of ads and copy hoping to come out in the black in addition to making a good commission for himself. Copy writers scream about campus celebrities who miss appointments to be interviewed and typists go cross-eyed reading reporter's scrawl.

Editor of the newspaper, Jack Murphy, decided to change the general format of the paper, using margin rules and putting editorials on the back page. Probably most successful was the innovation of Classmate of the Week, where a campus coed was illustrated within the pages of the Jambar.

Jambar staff photographers J. Marcu, T. Mancino, C. Melmick and J. Kivovitz check the schedule of Classmates of the Week.

Talent and Innovation . . .

. . . THE 1967 NEON

Holding the top branch was Editor Jerry Singer.

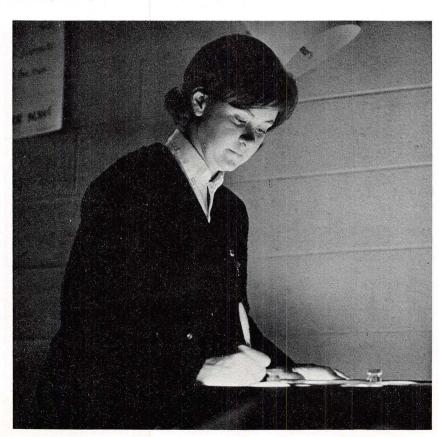

Research, ideas, innovations, and ability paved their way into the forms of layout mats, copy sheets, and deadlines as this year's Neon reached its publication destination at the Inter-Collegiate Press Company in Kansas City.

Long hours, cigarettes, bromos, coffee, loss of Christmas, Thanksgiving, and semester break plus plenty of talent made this year's Neon possible.

With two past publication editors in Ruthie Davies and Jerry Singer, the 1967 Neon found itself with experience at the helm. Backing up came with experience also as Frank Bordonaro, Sandra Van Such, Paul Purins, Bob Malanchas, Jon Brown, and Cheryl Orlando aided to produce the largest non-advertised annual in Penguin history.

Mrs. Anne Schafer served as Neon advisor and her ability and know-how guided Neon 1967 to our publishers.

It was a long year for the staff but we met all deadlines and produced what we feel was a great experience and we hope, the best yearbook ever.

1966 Editor Ruthie Davies served as Assistant Editor this year.

Jon Brown handled the Neon's sports department.

To stimulate interest in dramatic activity, to grant recognition to those participating in University dramatics and to secure for its members the advantages provided by a large national honorary are several of the purposes of Alpha Psi Omega. Membership is open to any students with a valid interest in University dramatics. The local chapter of this large national fraternity is particularly active, providing skill and leadership for the productions of the dramatics department.

Future Secretaries

The Future Secretaries of America is a professional organization for the students of Ford Secretarial School. The group aims to engender interest in the secretarial field and to encourage advanced education which will better equip the student to qualify for a secretarial position. At the regular meetings members learn the practical side of secretarial work through discussions of modern office practices.

YUARC

The YU Amateur Radio Club was established to teach the fundamentals of amateur radio operation, Morse Code and the theory of electronics. The group is affiliated with the American Radio Relay League. The YUARC is planning to build an amateur radio station in the basement of Kilcawley Student Center. In the future the YUARC plans to work with the Youngstown Civil Defense in setting up an emergency communications system.

YU Chess Association

The Chess Association of YU was recently chartered by Student Council to teach and develop the fundamentals of chess and to produce an atmosphere conducive for chess playing. Members meet for more than ten hours of play weekly at Kilcawley Student Center with regular business meetings monthly. The group has scheduled tournaments with the Mahoning Valley Chess Club and chess clubs of other colleges and universities.

International Student Organization

The International Student Organization at YU was founded to help foreign students solve their personal problems, to improve their understanding of American life and to represent their interests in the life of the university campus. Membership is open to any student or alumnus enrolled at YU whether American or foreign. The weekly meetings are held on Friday night at the International Institute.

NAACP

The YU chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was founded in 1963 for the purpose of informing the public of the problems facing the American Negro and other minority groups. Membership is open to all YU students. The chapter conducts the NAACP Symposium prior to each student council election in an effort to better inform the voters. Each spring the NAACP sponsors the campus-wide Variety Show Dance. Members of the NAACP also sponsor a chicken dinner and participate in various tutoring programs throughout the city.

Pershing Rifles

The purpose of the National Society of Pershing Rifles is to foster a spirit of friendship and cooperation among the men of the military department and to maintain a highly efficient drill company. Their success has been evident to the student body by the participation of the P-1 company in the sabre honor guards at the Homecoming halftime ceremony and the ROTC Military Ball. Demonstrations of the precision and polish of the P/R drill team are annually presented at the Freshman Picnic and Spring Weekend Carnival. The P/R Color Guard attends the flag raising at all home football games. The company has won many trophies in competition with other P/R units in regular and trick army drill.

ROTC

The Youngstown University Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps offers qualified male students an opportunity to prepare themselves, while attending college, to fulfill their military obligations in positions of leadership. The ROTC program consists of a two-year Basic course and a two year Advanced course with classes and drill on campus and a summer training camp. The ROTC students are organized into Corps of Cadets, commanded and administered by cadet officers.

President Pugsley, Major Bird, Military Ball Queen Eileen Turner and cadet officers review the ROTC companies at the corps day half-time program.

On ROTC Corps Day the cadets present a drill exhibition at the half time of a home football game.

Scabbard & Blade

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade was organized at Youngstown University in 1961. Membership is open only to advanced course ROTC cadets with outstanding academic and military science records. The chief aim of the society is the dissemination of intelligent information concerning the military requirements of our country. Lesser objectives include the development of the essential qualities of efficient officers and the preparation of the members as educated men to take a more active part in the affairs of the communities in which they reside.

United Campus Christian Fellowship

The United Campus Christian Fellowship is a campus organization for students of the various Protestant denominations. Members of this group are students who are interested in studying the Christian faith and enjoying Christian fellowship. This year emphasis has been on the "Campus Reaching Youngstown" program. Students who are interested devote time to helping needy people in the Youngstown area. The UCCF also sponsored several weekly Bible-study groups. Members of the UCCF participated in the annual Chaplains' Tour to New York City during the semester break.

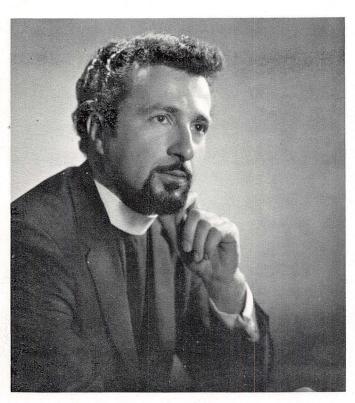

INTER VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP: Row 1: G. Basto, T. Keenan, P. Eoen, E. Dursi (president), S. Schwarzenberg (missionary chairman), G. Mathias. Row 2: J. Stigliano, A. Howard, R. Orovitz (treasurer). Missing: Mr. G. Brickely (advisor), T. Morrison (secretary), R. Crognal.

The Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship is a student movement which has its roots in England. Over seventy years ago students of Oxford and Cambridge Universities began meeting together for Bible study and prayer. The group promotes Christian growth through Bible study, group prayer, special speakers and literature; an awareness of foreign missions and the responsibility of Christians to them; and befriending international students in an effort to understand them and share the Christian faith with them. The IVCF which is student led and student financed at YU has members who represent the several Christian faiths.

Chaplains Serve As Advisors an

Rev. Fr. Isaiah Chronopoulos

Students prepare altar for Religious Emphasis Week.

Among the services offered by the University is that of full time counseling by three chaplains representing the major religious groups on campus. The chaplains have full-time offices on the campus, one supported by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Youngstown, one by the Council of Churches of Youngstown and Vicinity, and one by the Orthodox Catholic Churches of the community.

The job of the university chaplain is that of fulltime counseling to all students who have personal problems or feel need of advice or aid.

Father Anthony Esposito is chaplain for the Catholic students on campus and is advisor to the Newman organization. Sister Joan of Arc also serves the Newman students and acts as an aid to Father Esposito with the Newman Center.

Reverend Burton Cantrall is chaplain for the Protestant students on campus and acts as advisor for the United Christian Campus Fellowship.

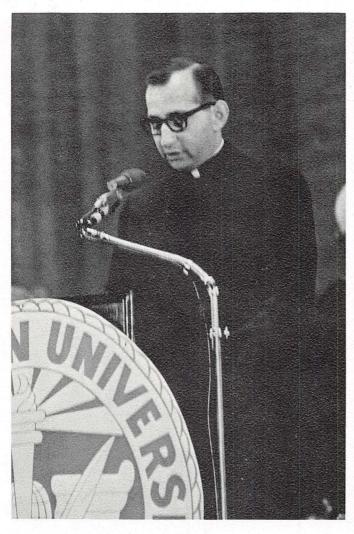

Reverend Father Isaiah Chronopoulos serves as chaplain for the Orthodox students on campus and is also advisor for the Orthodox Christian Fellowship.

The three chaplains also work together for planning chapels and assemblies held at St. Joseph Church for Roman Catholic students and St. John's Episcopal Church for Protestant students. The chaplains also plan the activities for participation in Religious Emphasis Week, an annual campus activity.

Orthodox Christian Fellowship

The Orthodox Christian Fellowship is an organization on campus for all Orthodox students. It is a relatively new organization, chartered in 1963, and presently serves the 350 Orthodox students at YU. The OCF has influence far beyond what is conventionally thought of as "religious matters", it provides an opportunity for recreational and social activity, intellectual stimulation, religious education, academic counseling and emotional solace. The monthly meetings which are held on Sunday evenings at the Pollock House are highlighted by speakers, panel discussions or movies.

Fried, H. Freedman, J. Rosenthal, J. Estulin, K. Roth, L. Marks, R. Miller. Row 4: J. Spiegle, D. Yarmy.

The Jewish Student Fellowship was organized to perpetuate the Judaic tradition on the university campus. This year the goal of the group was a cultural education program. This was accomplished through informative speeches by community leaders at the bimonthly meetings. Many social activities were planned by the group throughout the year. The Jewish Student Fellowship was awarded the trophy for the 1966 Alpha Phi Omega "Ugly Man" Contest: Vic Rubenstein was the winning candidate.

Camp Fitch—the Beginning

Run, Run, Run! Get into shape! Shake off that tackle! Hit 'em harder... the season is only four weeks away! Let's go... one more lap around the field and we'll settle down for chow!

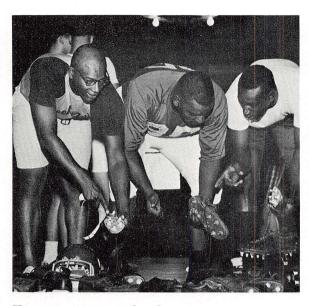

Camp Fitch presents the time when the football team travels to North Springfield, Pennsylvania to loosen up their muscles and get ready for another year of exciting college football.

Coaches test out new recruits and explain strategy, Managers carry equipment and keep records of pass attempts and carries, players hustle to make the team.

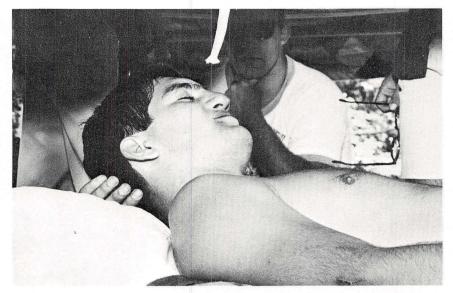

The sun is hot and sweat rolls off the players' eyebrows. Guards block and ends go out for long passes. Push-ups, sit-ups, jumping jacks, pretty soon it will be time for dinner . . . pretty soon it will be the first game and time to hustle for YU glory.

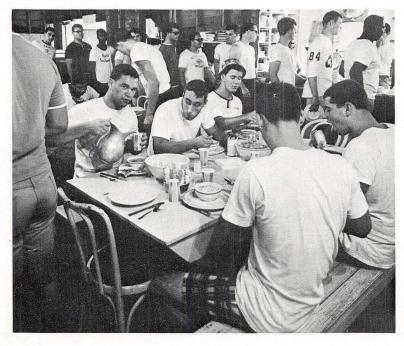

Hope this ring is rustproof!

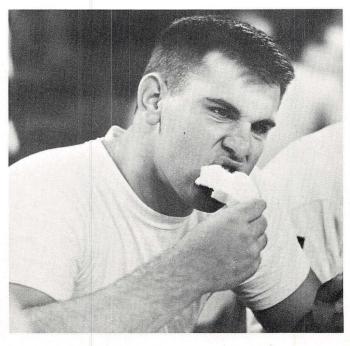

Hey, man, you got my shoes!

Gary Horvath sleeps after workout.

Players chow down after hard practice.

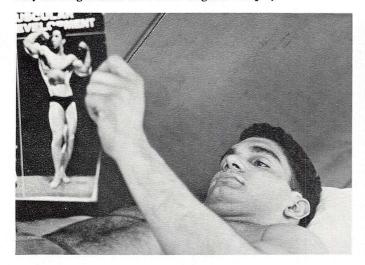

Man, is this bread stale!

of a Long Season

Players congratulate each other on game well played.

No one will kick sand on my face!

.. so this is Camp Fitch!

Players slept in tents at camp.

YU Combines Pitching and Hitting For a Near Perfect Season

1966 was a great year for the Youngstown University baseball team.

Coached by Dom Rosselli for his 16th consecutive year, YU finished the season with a 16-3 mark and was invited to the NCAA post season games at Springfield, Ohio.

1966 was a year for team records and no hit games for the Penguins. Pitchers Don Rembold, Don Ross, Don Leshnock, and Dale Shaner pitched no-hit games this year. Leshnock was the winningest pitcher on the squad with four victories and had a 1.75 ERA for 41 innings pitched.

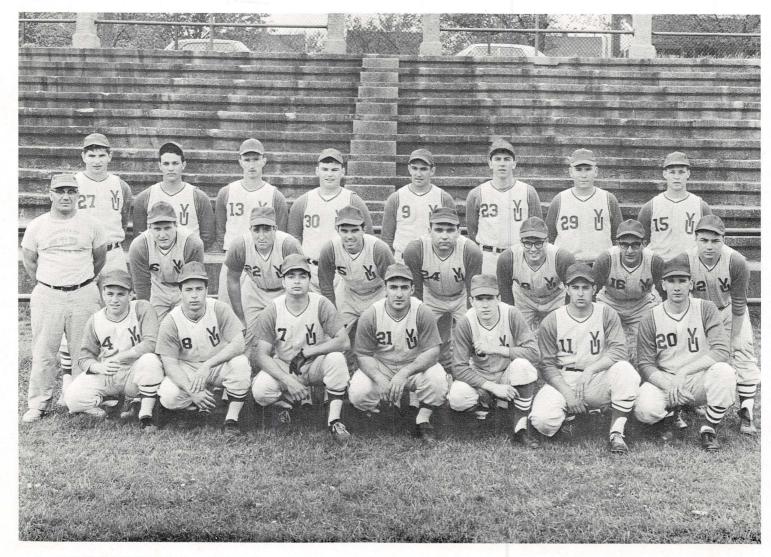

In the hitting department, Roy Myers paced YU with a .456 average. He was followed by George Macheskee .391; and Bob Laylock at .384.

Individual records were set by Roy Myers with 30 hits in the season. Myers and Jim Ferraro teamed up to hit four homers each during the year for another team record. Myers accounted for the most YU RBI's and Ferraro, the most stolen bases for the Rossellimen.

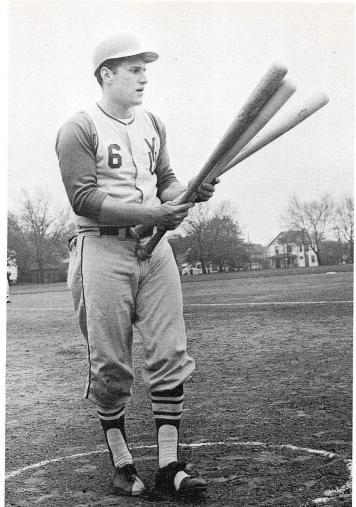

Roy Myers receives congratulations on hitting his fourth homer.

Comeback Team Makes Season

"What a stinkin' team. They're lucky to break even this season."

"Someone ought to tell them they invented the single wing."

"Get the ball in the air and play wide open football."

What a difference a month makes.

"It's YU's best team in years! Go red go white, go YU...fight"

On September 24, Mr. YU fan was a rare breed with no school spirit and no confidence in the players. The Penguins were 1-1 and lost a heartbreaker 21-12 to Morehead at Homecoming. The team just hadn't jelled yet. Four Saturdays later the team was 4-2-1 and the YU fan waved his banner high.

It was a surprising season for YU and one of the most productive ever. There had been better season records, better blockers, and more accurate quarterbacks but the inspired comeback was tops.

It was a heartbreaking year for YU stars Jake Ferro and Dick Adipotti. Leg injuries limited the powerful Penguin stars from completing the year.

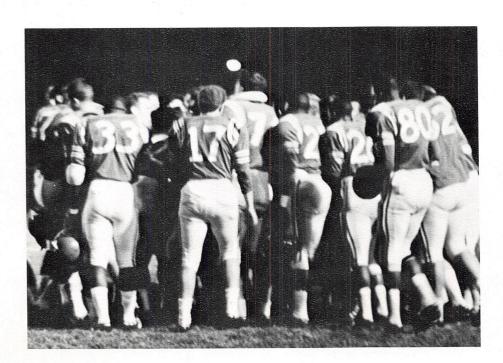

Ferro was YU's answer to little All American but he never made it past the first game when a broken leg stopped his football action for the year.

Adipotti gained 308 yards against Southern Connecticut before breaking his leg early in the fourth quarter. The injury kept Adipotti from breaking national records and completing the season.

With Adipotti out the season seemed over for the Penguins. Beede boosted the team morale and Sanford Rivers and Ken Kacenga filled the position for the rest of the season as YU upset the University of Maine 14-6 at Rayen Stadium.

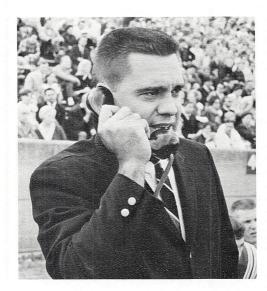

A week later YU avenged last season's loss to Baldwin Wallace by thromping the Yellow Jackets 27-14.

The team finished the year with a 5-3-1 record dropping the finale to a tough University of Buffalo football team. Perhaps with a healthy team, the Penguins could have pulled off the upset, but the 25-16 loss was nothing to be ashamed of.

Coach "Dike" Beede watches the offense closely.

1966 was a power year for the Penguins. With Dick Adipotti, Sanford Rivers, and Ken Kacenga on the ground it was doubtful whether quarterback Joe Piunno would ever have to pass the pigskin.

Adipotti piled up yardage all year, but when the big play had to come and time was running out, Piunno exhibited accurate precision to end Barry Rose with the "long bomb."

The Beedemen usually kept things running and the runs were usually going to the end zone with valuable points for the red and white glory of YU.

Ind "Dike" Made the Hall of Fame

Concerted force, vigor, poise, and assurance are trademarks of Dwight "Dike" Beede.

The YU Coach is a man of unlimited talent and determination that has guided the Penguins to victory since his coming here from Geneva in 1938.

Dwight or "Dike" as he is known to thousands of students, alumni, and area fans, has coached college football since 1926. His talents and football knowledge have been used at Westminister, Geneva, and of course, Youngstown.

In 27 years Beede has coached Youngstown to an over all record of 132-82-13 for a .617 percentage.

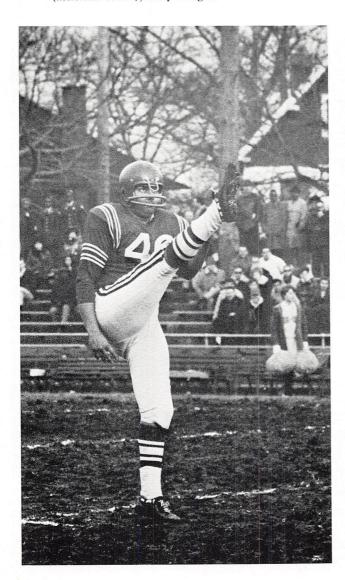

Last season the YU commander received another milestone in his football career as he was named to the Helms Hall College Football Hall of Fame.

Along with the selection of Beede, the Hall selected such football greats as Bud Wilkinson and Rip Engle. This is truly significant to the abilities and character of the YU coach.

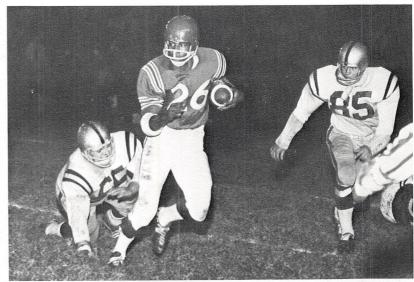

Dike is credited with the introduction of the flags to donate fouls in the sport of football.

The Band, Majorettes, and

This past year saw the band, majorettes, and cheerleaders combine efforts to bring spirit to the student body of Youngstown University.

The cheerleaders exhibited their acrobatic abilities with planned cheer rallies to boost the morale of the football team. The fans as well as the students kept the ball rolling with banners waving as YU moved the ball on the football field.

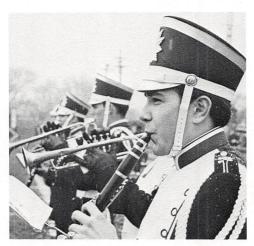

The majorettes and band kept the half-time show alive with complex patterns of movement. Tom Chapman returned as the YU drum major and exhibited the hard work and performance that kept the fans alert during the intermission ceremonies.

The band, under the direction of Donald Byo, displayed their abilities at all home football games and the fans loved every minute of the half-time.

Linksmen Tee Off to Record

Coach Bill Carson

Coming back from a disappointing year in 1965, this year's golf team completed one of their best seasons in Penguin history with a 18-9 mark on the greens.

Consistency and five returning lettermen aided Coach Bill Carson's golf efforts as YU won six straight matches while enduring the early season cold and rain.

The big men representing YU this year were Ron Phares, Amos Mazzart, Gary Goodrich, Tim Porter, Ed Rosnosky, Bill O'Horo, Ang Marini, Ed Porterfield, and Ron Sovic.

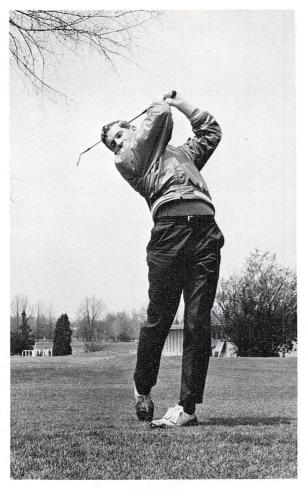

Using a key wedge and an accurate putter on the greens, Phares led all Penguin golfers averaging 75.8 per match.

Rain or shine, wind or cold, the YU golfers trudged on to ever increasing success on the links. With their U.S. "tiger" golf balls, the golf team showed excellent depth and consistency in their matches.

Netmen Show Opponents Wha

Rick Fine

Sparked by the coaching of veteran Bob Thompson and the return of several of last season's tennis stars, the Youngstown University tennis team rolled to an easy 8-1 season in 1966.

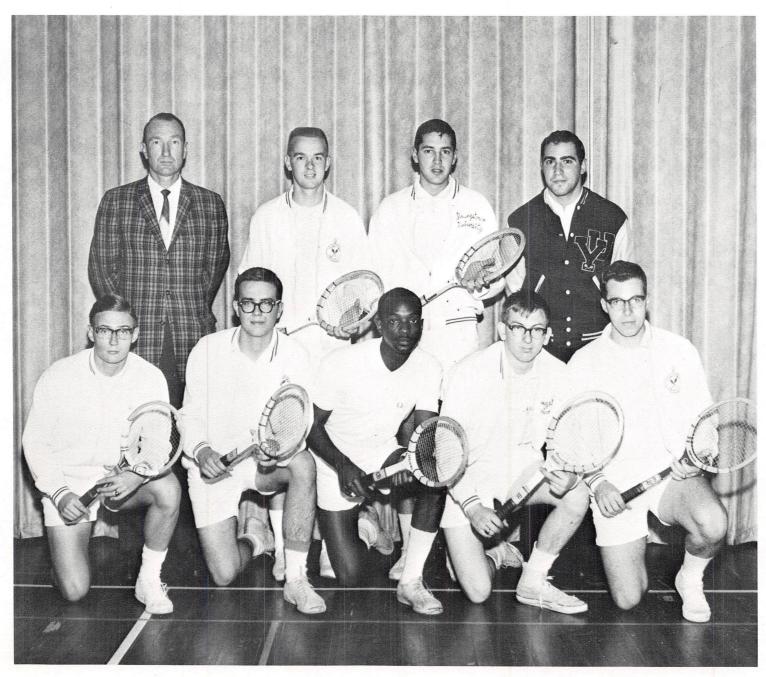

With Rick Fine and Ralph Tolbert hot on the tennis courts, YU opponents found out what "love" is the hard way gaining only 18 points in 9 Penguin games.

Coach Thompson again showed his ability as a coach with another winning season for the Penguins. Since arriving as the tennis team coach he has rolled up an unbelievable 74-28 overall record for a .725 percentage.

The biggest YU victories came at the hands of Duquesne, Cleveland State, Slippery Rock State Teachers, Ashland, and Hiram Colleges, winning by a 8-1 margin. The Penguins shut out arch rival Gannon 9-0 earlier in the campaign.

Aquamen Splash to Record Season

The Youngstown University swimming team completed one of their best seasons this year under the direction of Coach Ralph Johnson.

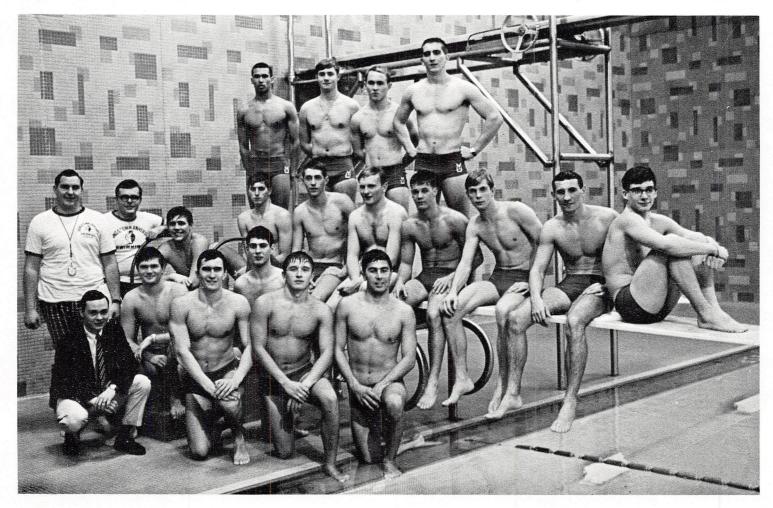

The aquamen showed much promise at the season's start with 11 freshmen and nine returning lettermen from last season's squad.

In the diving department, sophomore Tom Wright and frosh Dale Welk broke all records in YU history. Bill Benton and Paul Rogeskni gave the one-two punch in the long distance 500 yard free-style race. Freshman George Kavish set YU records in the 200 yard freestyle competition swimming the distance 2.01.

Records were also splashed in the 400 yard medley setting up a time of 402.5 against West Virginia early in the campaign. Relayers were John Graef, Alex Wojtalik, Clif Ashe and All-American Tom Craciun. Graef also led YU swimmers in the distance butterfly and backstroke efforts were swam by Jeff Evans, Mike Monda and Rich Patts.

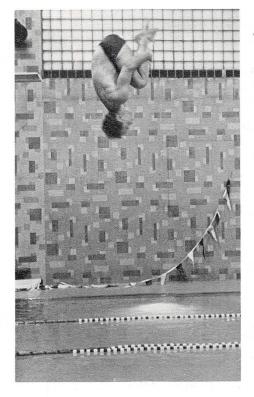

Youngstown University placed second in the Grove City Relays behind Bethany College this year and once again participated in the annual Penn-Ohio Conference and the annual NCAA college division meet at the conclusion of the regular fin season.

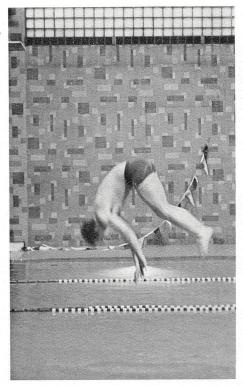

Compiling a season of 12-3 and winning two exhibition meets against the Central YMCA, Coach Johnson and his swimmers should return next season with more experience and record breaking efforts.

Tom Craciun

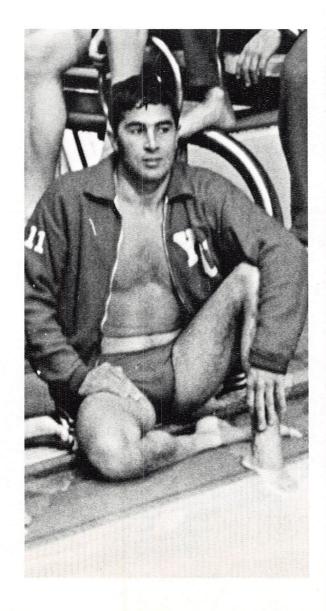

As the leading YU swimmer and co-captain of the YU aquamen, Craciun has established himself in the Ohio and Pennsylvania record books since being named an All-American swimmer four years ago.

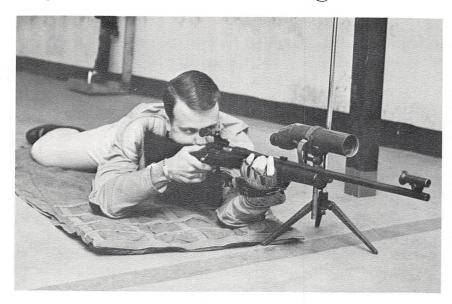

Coming to YU three years ago, Coach Ralph Johnson immediately built his finmen around Craciun and the swimmer responded by breaking every YU record in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle category as well as teaming up for many YU victories in relay competition.

Craciun is one of the most recognized swimmers in the Penn-Ohio Swimming Conference and for the past three years has been named Small College All American. The YU record holder has lettered for the past three years and has competed in the Penn-Ohio Conference, and the NCAA tournament.

Managers Aid Coaches and Players

Managers "wash" down Barry Rose.

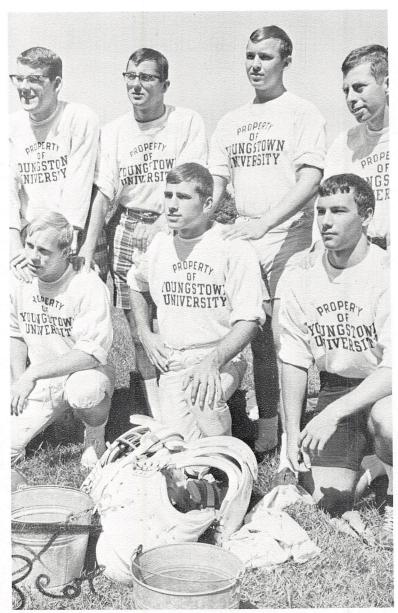

The manager of a university athletic team is one of the most important individuals connected with the athletic program at Youngstown University.

Duties of the manager range from soaking down the football players to carrying tons of shoulder pads and yards of tape during the football season. They also must keep accurate inventory of equipment issued to players and help trainer Willard Webster in the fine art of ankle taping.

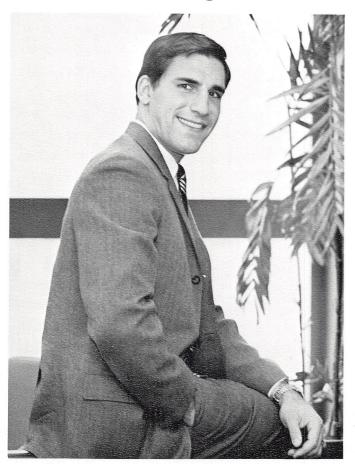

Managers for the 1966-1967 season included Earl Brown, Bill Relholz, Andy Golubic, Chip Glover, Denny Beight, Paul Bellon, and Marty Schwebel.

For the most part the managers are persons who are overlooked by the crowd when the team takes the field or to the court but the truth is that these men are important to all the athletic teams.

George Grimmett Places Third at the National Collegiate Judo Meet

George Grimmett

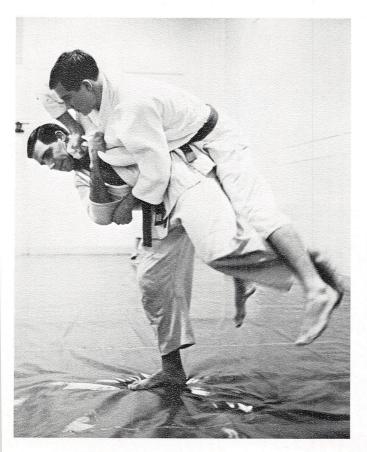

Youngstown University might very well have the answer to a combination of Charles Atlas and Rocky Marciano on campus in that of senior George Grimmett.

Soft spoken Grimmett studied two years of karate and judo at Sophia University and at the Kodokan Judo Institute in Japan before returning to Youngstown University a year ago.

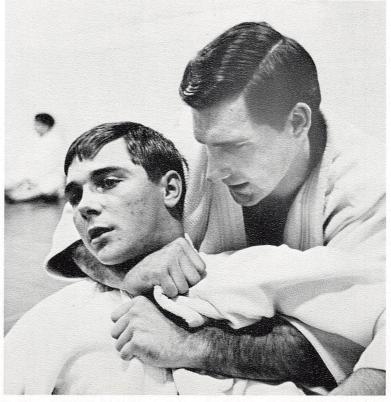

Strong and determined, Grimmett won the district championships in judo at Cleveland and Detroit and he proudly displays his black-belt to fellow students here at YU.

Traveling to the National Collegiate Judo Championships at Ohio State at his own expense, Grimmett brought back honors both for himself and the university last May as he placed third among all collegians in the United States.

In his spare time he teaches Judo and the art of self defense at the YMCA and has given several demonstrations for the University Health and Physical Education department. As a tribute to all his honors and achievements, Grimmett was named Athlete of the Year in 1966 by the Youngstown YMCA.

Roundball Squad Dunks Hoop

Frank Fitz dribbles past man to layup shot in  $\Upsilon$  U 's 133-83 romp over St. Vincent at South Fieldhouse.

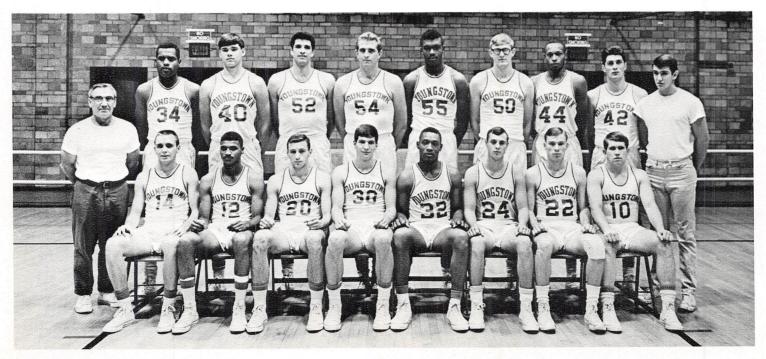

Going into the season with guarded optimism, the Cinderella basketball squad amazed pre-season experts finishing up the 1966-1967 campaign with an overall 18-7 record. Molding the team around a fast break offense and a pressing defense, Coach Dom Rosselli fused freshmen talent and sophomore and junior experience to carry the Penguins to a remarkable and building year.

Serving notice of things to come, the YU red and white won eight of ten contests before Christmas and advanced to great marks in YU history. It was a team destined to break records and a balanced attack most often proved too much for opposing defenses.

With starters John McElroy (6-0), Frank Fitz (6-4), Joe LaVolpa (6-6), Charles Rowan (6-7), and Joe Nigro (6-0) the Rossellimen found themselves almost unbeatable. Backing up the nucleus were Charlie Swaiko (6-6), Bill Eckert (5-11), Jim Lott (6-2) and Willie Teaque (6-9), all fine reserve men that were able to see plenty of action during the year.

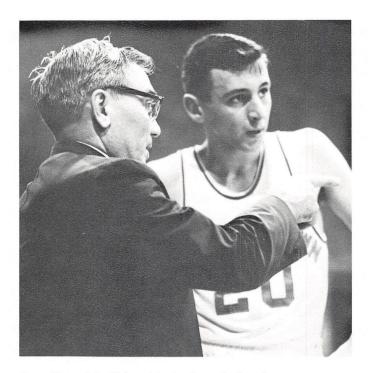

From the beginning of the roundball campaign, Y U showed its abilities as it rolled up victories over Alliance 92-67 and Walsh College 111-51. Of the first three losses, two were by two points or less. Y U was upset by Muskingham 80-73 and lost heartbreakers to Philadelphia Textiles 71-70 and Gannon 76-75 in the final seconds of the games.

Against St. Vincent a week later, Y U proved themselves wonderful to a capacity crowd, as records were set and Y U won by a 133-83 score. The game also saw John McElroy become the second high game scorer in Penguin history as the left handed sophomore dumped in 45 points.

PENGUINS FOR 1966-1967-Row 1: W. Eckert, J. McElroy, R. Dyer, T. Morgan, D. Steinbeck, J. Brennan. Row 2: D. Rosselli (coach), J. Lott, W. Davis, J. LaVolpa, C. Rowan, W. Teaque, C. Swaiko, D. Graham, F. Fitz, R. Laylock (manager).

for 18-7 Season

Rosselli sends in Nigro with play from the bench.

The main reason for Youngstown University being a basketball success each year is 5-3, 129 pound coach Dom Rosselli.

Coach Rosselli was named head basketball coach at YU in 1940 and after a brief stay in the United States Army he returned to his post in 1946 and has continued here ever since.

Often tabbed as "the biggest little man in basket-ball," Rosselli has carried the Penguins to an overall 345-236 mark in 23 seasons of coaching.

In 1957 and again in 1966 Rosselli was voted as the Ohio College Coach of the Year. In 1958 he was the likable mentor as he was chosen the Italian-American Coach of the Year.

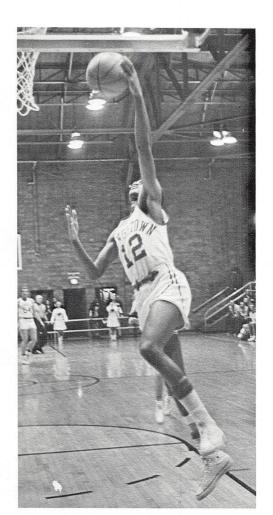

Rosselli is liked and respected by all students as well as faculty and his players. He has coached such great roundball aces as Dave Culliver, Ron Allen, Tony Knott, Herb Lake, Fred Jones, Leo Mogus, and Mickey Yugovich.

As head basketeer, Rosselli has injected his same hustle and fighting spirit into his ball teams and this method has proven quite successful. Rosselli is a firm believer of a patterned-type offense and in this way gets the most out of his boys.

Rival coaches and players alike have praised Rosselli for his abilities and have cited him as "one of the finest gentlemen in the sport of basketball."

McElroy Paved the Way to Victor

Although finishing fourth statisticwise last year in averaging a meager 8.8 points per game, it was no surprise when McElroy took the courts this year and pumped in over twenty points per game.

Learning from Culliver, plus a year's experience, good coaching and practical know-how enabled the six foot sophomore to excel both offensively and defensively on the hardwoods.

The left handed McElroy, a slick ball handler and quick shooter left very little time for YU opponents to guess who Mr. Big was on the squad.

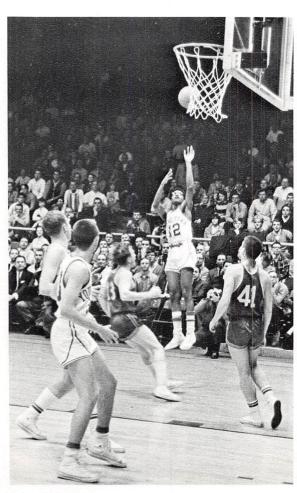

Probably his best game was against St. Vincent when the hometown boy made good dropping in a total of 45 points for the second highest single game effort any YU player has ever produced.

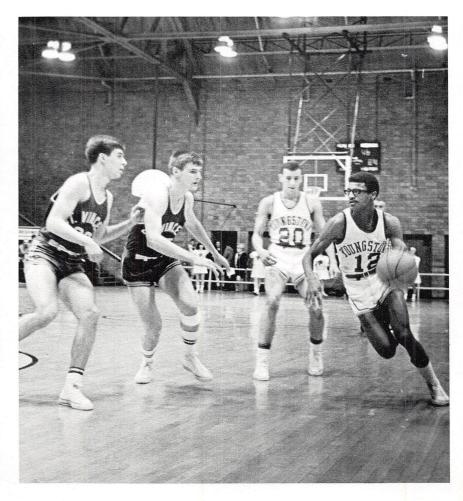

Although "Mac" averaged over 20 points per game, he could have easily averaged over 30 except for his being a team man. Fancy footwork, a jerk of the head, a dribble to the left, the big fake and a pass to his right often resulted in an assist and two more YU points.

McElroy is the kind of roundballer that is always in there 100% all of the game and the fans loved every minute he had the ball.

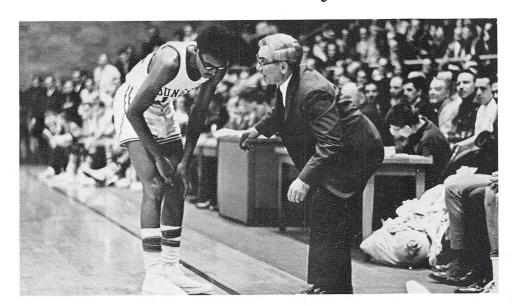

When his name was announced at the game's beginning, the crowd screamed and they kept on clapping until he went out of the contest, and even then it was time for a standing ovation.

People thought it would be impossible to forget Dave Culliver and that it would be some time before YU had any more super-stars but McElroy, the All City Series High School star from Youngstown North, made them forget as he scored 537 points this season.

Nigro Filled in As Big "Number 2" Man

Probably one of the most talked about athletes in YU history, Joe Nigro always managed to be cheered and booed throughout last season even though the six foot roundballer averaged 15.1 points per game.

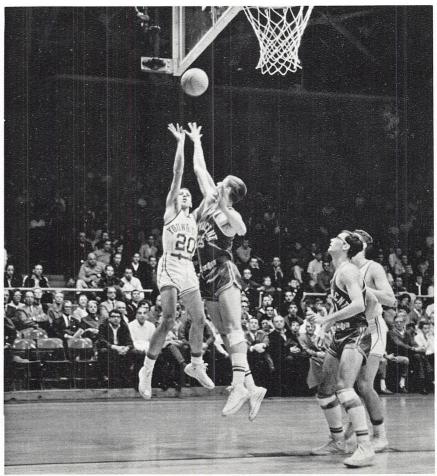

When Nigro is cold he's cold, but when the six foot starting junior is hot, there is no stopping him. His accurate ball handling, good hands and effective long jump shot have erased all boo's this year as Nigro averaged close to 20 points per game.

Plagued last season with a troublesome ankle injury, Nigro showed his abilities both offensively and defensively despite being one of the smallest men on the court.

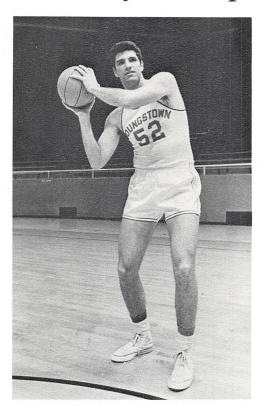

Nigro's best abilities were the fast break and sure ball handling. Although double-teamed, Nigro seldom made a turnover and managed to keep the ball out of the opponent's reach. On the fast breaks the starting guard excelled and if he couldn't handle the shot he'd somehow manage to pass behind his back to LaVolpa or Rowan for the bunny.

Against St. Vincent, Nigro pumped in 29 points as YU romped the Pennsylvania team 133-83 to set a team record for most points scored in one game.

ollowed by Co-Captain Joe LaVolpa

Joe LaVolpa stands 6-6 and is without a doubt the "big" reason why YU has had success on the roundball courts for the past three years.

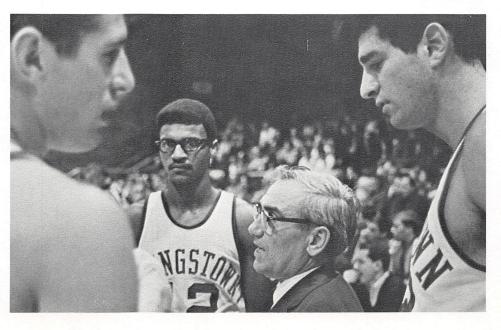

Coach Rosselli noticed the Chaney All City choice's ability immediately and put LaVolpa in as a starter as a freshman two years ago. Since then "Big Joe" has played center for two years and alternated that position with that of forward in 66.

A hard man to get around, LaVolpa shines in blocking shots much to the dismay of opponents. The big man also likes to pluck off rebounds and for the past two seasons he has led YU in that category. Last year LaVolpa averaged 10 rebounds per game and has somehow managed to top past performances by pulling down closer to 15 per game this year.

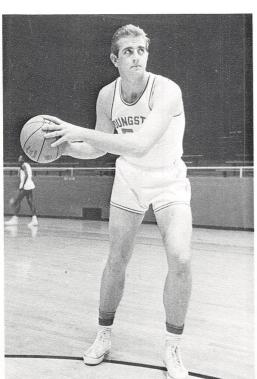

LaVolpa is also an accurate shot and has averaged over 10 points per game in the YU cause. If Joe wanted to, he could easily average 20 per game, but his primary use to the Penguins is getting the rebounds and this he does with no hesitation.

Rowan and Fitz Rounded Out YU

When 6-7 Charlie Rowan came to Youngstown from New Brighton, Pennsylvania Coach Rosselli figured that the big man would go far on the YU hardwoods.

It seems that Rosselli figured correctly as Rowan although plagued by chronic back ailments last season, went in as the starting center for Youngstown this season.

Rowan used his 230 pound husky frame to his best advantage as the big man pulled down rebounds for YU glory. Once Rowan developed into a full time starter, the YU hoopsters started to click and Rowan averaged well over ten points per game.

Although not the team's high scorer, Rowan always managed to get the big field goal when it was most needed to either keep YU in the game or to move ahead of opponent basketeers.

Fairly agile for his 6-7 frame, Rowan's best shot was his turn around jumper from 10-15 feet from the basket. Rowan also excelled with his "tipper" as he turned many YU misses into second effort baskets.

tarting Five

Although he wasn't the team's leader in either the scoring or rebounding department, Frank Fitz was the key reason for the Penguin's success this season.

The 6-4 junior from Wickliffe, Ohio proved himself valuable from the start of the season because of his agility and ball handling. Fitz was particularly strong underneath the basket and even though he was overlooked because of stars like McElroy and Nigro, the versatile athlete averaged 10 points per game in the Penguin behalf.

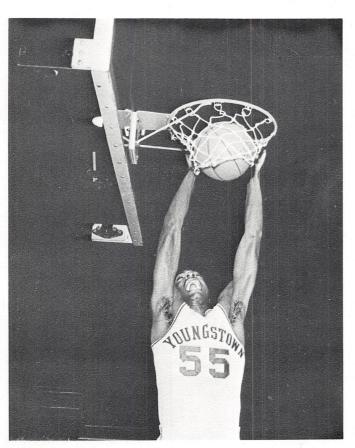

Against Hillsdale, Fitz proved himself as the big man when he had to get the needed rebounds against men much taller than himself. Although Youngstown trailed at the beginning of the game, Fitz mixed desire with ability to bring home another YU victory.

Teague Filled in As Valuable 6th Mar

When the need arose or when Coach Rosselli needed that extra margin of height to come in against tall opponents, he immediately called on his back-up man in Willie Teague to win the ball game.

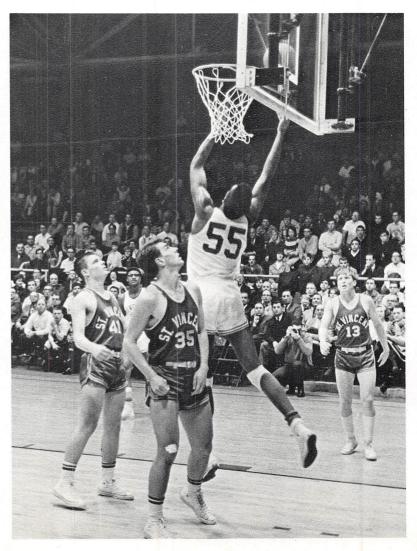

Although only a freshman, the 6-9 Teague proved his abilities that made him an All City choice from Youngstown East High School last year as his timely "dunks" brought cheers throughout the South Fieldhouse.

Teague was strong both offensively and defensively for the Penguins and proved his potential as a starter next year because he was strong and aggressive.

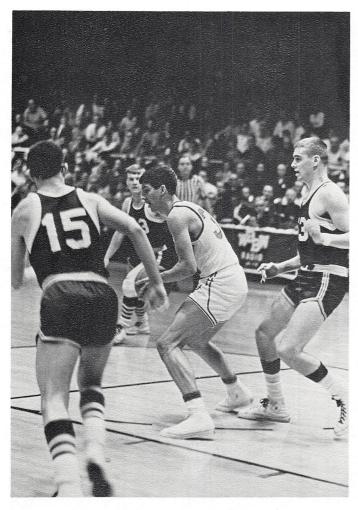

Probably his only handicap was inexperience but now that the valuable freshman has overcome that learning stage, he is sure to remain as one of the best basketeers YU has ever produced.

When a starter had to be removed because of foul trouble, Teague was called into action and he immediately kept the Penguins in the game. Teague saw considerable action against opponents all season and often scored over 10 points to lead the Rossellimen to victory.

As Eckert, Dyer, Swaiko and Brennan Rounded Out the Reserve Strength

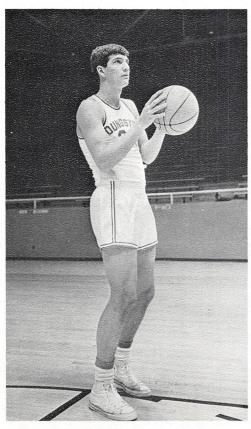

Besides the starters, a coach must have on hand accurate second stringers that will, when given a chance, have the ability to keep the team in front and at times get the team ahead, when trouble occurs with the starting five.

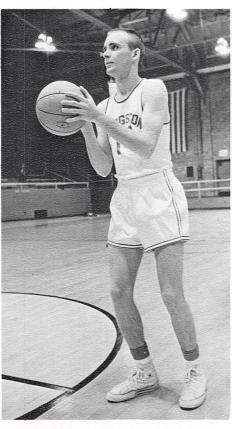

The nucleus of the Penguin squad had this ability and this was another reason why the Penguins managed to have another successful year in 1966.

Rather than piling up points against opponents, Coach Rosselli would clear his bench to give all his players a chance to get in the game and gain experience for next year's contests.

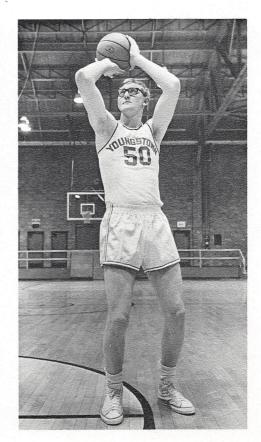

The Penguins were lucky to have much reserve power to handle any situation in players like Charlie Swaiko, Bill Eckert, Joe Brennan and Roger Dyer. All these men were given the opportunity to get in the game and their ability showed the fans what to expect next year. It also gave the starting five evidence in what may prove to be a fight for the starting positions when the campaign starts next year as there are no seniors playing under Coach Rosselli this year.

Landslides Mark Senior Class Elections As Only 18% Voted

Howard Johnston President

Last November seniors went down to Strouss Auditorium to vote for their candidates in one of the highest honored elections in that of senior class officers.

Although a meager 18% of those seniors eligible to vote made time to do such, results tabulated landslides for several of the candidates.

Elected President by almost a 2-1 margin was Howard Johnston, a competent leader and vice-president of Student Council.

Others elected included Gil Doubet as vice president, Barbara Sedzmak as treasurer, and Barbara Chura as secretary.

As officers the team decided that the money available for the senior class gift would be spent appropriately to acquire something useful to the entire university.

This year's senior class also held the first annual awards banquet in school history as they awarded plaques to those seniors that have given time to the university while here as undergraduates.

Johnston wanted to create an awareness to the senior class and used this to carry out his program for the year's events. Late in the second semester an official Senior Week was created on campus as the upperclassmen prepared for graduation.

THE 1967 NEON . . .

. . This Is Youngstown University

Jerry Singer Editor, 1967 NEON

Another school year is about to come to a close at YU. Already classes are being arranged for summer sessions and IBM machines punch out fall schedules for thousands of students.

Progress is forever expanding and huge cranes lift and place steel girders into place where buildings replace land around campus.

It will be a far more complex campus in the fall with many new instructors, incoming freshmen and the beginning of the quarter system. For the first time we will become a state run institution and with our past tradition and progress, YU will remain one of the best universities in the nation.

For some this will be our last year here as undergraduates. We are prepared for what is ahead through education and dedicated administrators.

Yes, one must be a part of YU to fully appreciate and understand all that goes on here. We will pass and be forgotten with the rest, but for ourselves . . . we will never forget YU and our four years here.

Neon 1967 began last summer as theory and developed into the largest non-advertised annual ever produced on the YU campus.

The theory has become a reality with 360 pages illustrating the major events of the year plus many of the seemingly trivial, but interesting aspects of everyday college life on the YU campus.

Since an editor is as good as the staff under him, I was lucky to have the best to work with. It is hard to single people out because all aided and tolerated my many screwy ideas and slave driving methods.

No one could have been more reliable, wise, understanding and patient as my assistant editor and last year's editor, Ruth Davies. Our opinions often differed but Ruthie with her experience and abilities, aided through every deadline, stomach pain, and deadline date. I only hope that Neon 1967 will be as well accepted as Neon 1966.

Many thanks to Frank Bordonaro and John Hitchcock who always managed to get their work done although it looked like they were sitting around. They always seemed to be there when help was needed and they managed to complete the job.

Thanks also to my advisor, Mrs. Anne Schafer, for guiding the annual to the publisher; to Bill Abey and company for the best of service and photography; my parents and fraternity brothers for making my part a reality and to Bert Coburn and the Inter-Collegiate Press Company for their special care and interest in this yearbook.

The 1967 Neon captures memories that we shall never forget. If we were able to re-capture but one memory for you, then we feel we were successful.
