SPRING GRADUATING BFA EXHIBITION

APRIL 26 – MAY 11, 2019

PUBLIC RECEPTION

FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 5-7PM

The John J McDonough Museum of Art, on the campus of Youngstown State University will open the Spring Graduating BFA Exhibition, a collaboration with the Department of Art at YSU. The show features work by students achieving completion of the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree. Also in the galleries will be the MFA Thesis Exhibition. An opening reception for the shows will be held on Friday evening, April 26, from 5 to 7pm. They will remain on view in the McDonough galleries through May 11.

For Immediate Release:

Students in the Department of Art work closely with nationally and internationally known faculty engaged in a broad range of art and design practices. Immersed in the quest for knowledge and creative self-realization, students embrace the advantages of professional studio and design programs. The Spring Graduating BFA Exhibition is the opportunity for students to share the original and innovative discoveries they have made in their artistic journeys communicating to the public their creative expressions of human experience.

The Spring Graduating BFA Exhibition celebrates the work of fourteen students in the areas of digital media, graphic + interactive design, photography and interdisciplinary studio. Students participating in this exhibition are, Chris Andrews, Anthony Angelilli, Kasey Badgley, Mandy Bell, Rachel DiCioccio-Holmes, Jennifer Hovis, Katie Jones, Jake Kohler, Craig Miller, Cassie Roth, Lydia Tarleton, Anastasia Truby, Ashley Vaughan and Vincent Village.

Youngstown State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, disability, age, religion or veteran/military status in its programs or activities.

McDonough Museum exhibitions and programs are made possible in part by state tax dollars allocated by the Ohio Legislature to the Ohio Arts Council (OAC). The OAC is a state agency that funds and supports quality arts experiences to strengthen Ohio communities culturally, educationally, and economically.

Hours at the McDonough Museum of Art are
Tuesday through Saturday, 11am until 4pm.

The Museum is open to the public and admission is free.
