YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Education Outreach advisors from Youngstown State University will be available at local public libraries from Feb. 4 through Feb. 26 to assist interested adults in exploring career and educational options. The sessions are free and without obligation.

Adults can meet with advisors on a one-to-one basis and discuss suitable paths, as well as any apprehensions they may have about "going back" to school.

Any adult who has been thinking about going to college, or returning after several years absence, can meet with Outreach advisors at the libraries. The dates and times are attached.

For more information, or to make an appointment to meet with a YSU advisor at a library, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3221.

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed January 27, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Three skills-updating courses for adults will be offered by Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education beginning in February.

"Algebra Refresher Course" is designed for those with limited experience in algebra or those who suffer from math anxiety. Creative thinking and memory techniques for long-term retention, as well as relaxation methods, will be stressed.

It will be held from 9 a.m. to noon Saturdays, Feb. 7-March 14. Dr. Joseph Altinger of Boardman, YSU associate professor of mathematical and computer sciences, will be instructor. The fee is $115.

"How to Be a Success in College" is a basic course to refresh and develop effective study skills. Topics include effective notetaking, proper reading of texts, preparation for exams, time management, and memory and concentration techniques.

It will meet from 5:40-7:30 p.m. Thursdays, Feb. 12-March 19. Edward C. Reardon, a doctoral student at Kent State University, will be instructor. The fee is $90.

"Mechanics of Writing" is designed for those who have been out of school for a long time and/or would like to brush up on writing skills such as punctuation, spelling, grammar, usage and letter form.

It will meet from 5:40-7:30 p.m. Mondays, Feb. 16-March 23. Dr. Thomas Copeland of Youngstown, associate professor of English at YSU, will teach the course. The fee is $90.

For more information, or to register for one of the courses, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.
