YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Fifty-six outstanding students from Youngstown State University have been selected for inclusion in the 1984 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

They join an elite group of outstanding campus leaders selected from more than 1,500 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign countries.

The students are chosen by campus nominating committees and editors of the directory on the basis of academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges has been honoring outstanding students since its first publication in 1934.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Dana Madrigal Singers will present their Winter Concert at 4 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 3, in Bliss Recital Hall, Wick Avenue.

A select 12-voice ensemble, the group specializes in a cappella vocal literature ranging from motets and masses of the 16th century to 20th century chamber works.

Sunday's concert will include works of Viadana, Homilius, Praetorius, Billings, and Hindemith. Featured will be a Missa Brevis composed by Giovanni da Palestrina.

Also included will be the Madrigal Singers' traditional "Memories of Christmas," comprised of selections from the many Christmas performances given by the group during the past season.

Directed by Dr. Wade Raridon, the concert is free and open to the public.

Members of the group include:

SOPRANO: Shellee Kloos, Salem
Kathy Prosser, Austintown
Tania Pshsniak, Salem
