

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Continuing Education

Mailed Sept. 4, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education will offer two computer courses beginning Sept. 27.

"Computer Literacy" will provide an examination of computer terminology and an overview of how computers work, as well as their applications to both professional and personal use. The course focus will be primarily on microcomputers and will include lectures and hands-on experience. This basic course is not recommended for those with experience or prior knowledge of computers.

Classes will be from 9 a.m.-noon Saturdays, Sept. 27 - Oct. 18.

"Programming with Basic I" is also intended for those with little or no experience with programming microcomputers. The emphasis will be on the "Basic" language, use of microcomputers, and modeling problems for computer solution. The level of mathematics will be kept at an introductory level.

These classes will be held from 1-4 p.m. Saturdays, Sept. 27 - Oct. 18.

The instructor for both courses will be Samuel Skarote, YSU professor of Electrical Engineering.

Each course is $140, or $125 for individuals who register prior to Sept. 13.

For a free brochure on these courses and other computer programs, or to register, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-79
la,c,

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Continuing Education

Mailed Sept. 4, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education will offer two computer courses beginning Sept. 27.

"Computer Literacy" will provide an examination of computer terminology and an overview of how computers work, as well as their applications to both professional and personal use. The course focus will be primarily on microcomputers and will include lectures and hands-on experience. This basic course is not recommended for those with experience or prior knowledge of computers.

Classes will be from 9 a.m.-noon Saturdays, Sept. 27 - Oct. 18.

"Programming with Basic I" is also intended for those with little or no experience with programming microcomputers. The emphasis will be on the "Basic" language, use of microcomputers, and modeling problems for computer solution. The level of mathematics will be kept at an introductory level.

These classes will be held from 1-4 p.m. Saturdays, Sept. 27 - Oct. 18.

The instructor for both courses will be Samuel Skarote, YSU professor of Electrical Engineering.

Each course is $140, or $125 for individuals who register prior to Sept. 13.

For a free brochure on these courses and other computer programs, or to register, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-79
la,c,

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Continuing Education

Mailed Sept. 4, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Two courses on golf fundamentals are planned by the Office of Continuing Education at Youngstown State University.

"Beginning Golf" will teach the fundamental skills of golf such as grip, stance, swing patterns and putting, as well as rules of course play.

Classes will meet from 9-11 a.m. Saturdays, Sept. 27 - Nov. 1.

"Intermediate Golf" will review the fundamentals of golf with further emphasis on stance, swing patterns and putting. Classes will meet from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. on the same Saturdays.

George Repasky, a limited-service faculty member at YSU, will be instructor.

Each course is $75, or $60 for individuals who register prior to Sept. 13. Equipment will be provided, but participants are welcome to bring their own clubs.

For more information, or to register for a golf class, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-80
1a,c

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Contact: Continuing Education

Mailed Sept. 4, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Two courses on golf fundamentals are planned by the Office of Continuing Education at Youngstown State University.

"Beginning Golf" will teach the fundamental skills of golf such as grip, stance, swing patterns and putting, as well as rules of course play.

Classes will meet from 9-11 a.m. Saturdays, Sept. 27 - Nov. 1.

"Intermediate Golf" will review the fundamentals of golf with further emphasis on stance, swing patterns and putting. Classes will meet from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. on the same Saturdays.

George Repasky, a limited-service faculty member at YSU, will be instructor.

Each course is $75, or $60 for individuals who register prior to Sept. 13. Equipment will be provided, but participants are welcome to bring their own clubs.

For more information, or to register for a golf class, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-80
1a,c

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Sept. 4, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The Office of Minority Student Services at Youngstown State University will hold a reception for entering minority students from 6 to 8 p.m. Sept. 23 in the Ohio Room of Kilcawley Center, Spring Street.

It provides new students an opportunity to interact on an informal basis with faculty members and administrators.

Edward Twyman, Minority Student Services advisor, said approximately 200 minority students enter YSU each fall. They include Afro-Americans, Hispanic, Asian and Pacific Islanders, and American Indians.

He said the reception is an effort to bring these students together to have fun and make new friends. In addition, it will help new students make a smoother transition to college and will foster supportive relationships with faculty, staff and other students.

Twyman encouraged all entering minority students and their parents to attend to find out more about the University and to learn how to improve their chances of succeeding in college.

He added that the reception is open to the entire University community.

The short program will include a welcome by YSU President Neil D. Humphrey, introduction by Dr. Charles McBriarty, vice president--Student Services, and opening prayer by Elder John Wilson of Faith and Deliverance Church of God in Christ, Youngstown. Entertainment will be by the Youth Choir of Mount Calvary Pentecostal Church, Youngstown.

-MORE-

Add One

Students taking part will include Marvin Robinson of Youngstown, president of Student Government; Robert J. McCorvey of Warren, a student assistant in the Students Serving Students Program; and Audrey McGroom of Liberty Township, a peer assistant for the University's Student Enrichment Center.

For further information about the reception, contact the Office of Minority Student Services at (216) 742-7175.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-81
1a,c,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Sept. 4, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The Office of Minority Student Services at Youngstown State University will hold a reception for entering minority students from 6 to 8 p.m. Sept. 23 in the Ohio Room of Kilcawley Center, Spring Street.

It provides new students an opportunity to interact on an informal basis with faculty members and administrators.

Edward Twyman, Minority Student Services advisor, said approximately 200 minority students enter YSU each fall. They include Afro-Americans, Hispanic, Asian and Pacific Islanders, and American Indians.

He said the reception is an effort to bring these students together to have fun and make new friends. In addition, it will help new students make a smoother transition to college and will foster supportive relationships with faculty, staff and other students.

Twyman encouraged all entering minority students and their parents to attend to find out more about the University and to learn how to improve their chances of succeeding in college.

He added that the reception is open to the entire University community.

The short program will include a welcome by YSU President Neil D. Humphrey, introduction by Dr. Charles McBriarty, vice president--Student Services, and opening prayer by Elder John Wilson of Faith and Deliverance Church of God in Christ, Youngstown. Entertainment will be by the Youth Choir of Mount Calvary Pentecostal Church, Youngstown.

-MORE-

Add One

Students taking part will include Marvin Robinson of Youngstown, president of Student Government; Robert J. McCorvey of Warren, a student assistant in the Students Serving Students Program; and Audrey McGroom of Liberty Township, a peer assistant for the University's Student Enrichment Center.

For further information about the reception, contact the Office of Minority Student Services at (216) 742-7175.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-81
1a,c,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Sept. 5, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Twenty-two dolls portrayed in sculpture, construction, paintings and photographs--each reflecting a thought or theme by the 22 artists--will be featured at the Youngstown State University Art Gallery in Kilcawley Center Sept. 24-Oct. 18.

Sherri Hill, coordinator of the University's Art Gallery and Graphic Center, invited artists who were making dolls or using doll-like imagery in their work to participate in this unique exhibit, "The Doll Show." They employed social, political, historical, aesthetical and even whimsical inspirations to interpret their artistic statements.

The gallery is free and open to the public as well as the University community. Hours are 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday, Thursday and Friday; 10 a.m.-7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday; 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday.

There will be a reception for the artists from 6-8 p.m. Sept. 26 in the Art Gallery.

Participating artists are:

Nancy Bizzarri, Youngstown -- Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) degree from YSU; several one-woman shows at YSU; exhibited at Butler Institute of American Art, Shenango Valley Arts Guild, First Unitarian Church, YWCA, and Trumbull Art Guild (TAG), Warren.

Karen Bizzarri, Youngstown -- Studio art major at YSU; exhibits at Butler Institute, YWCA, Shenango Valley Arts Guild, TAG, Unitarian Church and YSU.

-MORE-

Add One

Vito Acconci, New York City -- Former visiting artist at Kent State; one-man shows in many American museums and galleries as well as in Paris, Rome, London, Brussels and Vienna.

Susan Bolger, Youngstown -- BFA degree, California State University-San Bernadino, attended University of Wisconsin, Laguna Beach School of Design, working on master's degree at Kent State; has been a film maker, photographer, editor and gallery assistant and manager in California.

Louise Corsi, New Castle, Pa. -- BFA in sculpture from YSU; exhibited in the Woman Artists Show at YWCA and TAG.

Nancy Zorn Foster, Niles -- studied at YSU and Cleveland Museum of Art; past president of Youngstown Area Weavers' Guild and member of Cleveland Textile Alliance; exhibited at Cleveland Museum of Art, Butler Institute, TAG, YWCA and YSU.

Sherri Hill, Youngstown -- BFA from YSU; freelance graphic design and fiber artist, layout design; participated in Cristo's "Surrounded Islands" project at Miami Beach; exhibited at Butler Institute, YWCA, Youngstown Area Weavers' Guild, and TAG.

John Hink, Struthers -- BFA from YSU, painting and photography; exhibits include a one-man show in New York, Cleveland Museum May Show, one-man show at YSU, and in current Ohio University traveling photo show entitled "Alternatives '86."

Tazim Jaffer, Youngstown -- currently attending YSU; exhibited at YSU, Ashtabula Arts Center, and shows in Youngstown, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

Mary Joan Kerr, Miami, Fla. -- BFA at YSU, Master of Fine Arts in Photography, University of Miami; freelance photography; exhibited at University of Miami, YSU, TAG, Butler Institute, Steel Street Gallery, Pittsburgh and Columbus.

-MORE-

Add Two

Judith Kimpan, Farmdale -- BA at Kent State and currently working on graduate degree; exhibited at Cleveland, Canton, Handley, Pa., Butler Institute, Bank One, TAG.

Susan J. Klein, Canfield -- BA at YSU and master's degree, Kent State; gallery director for Trumbull Art Guild and professional photographer.

Akiko Kotani, Slippery Rock, Pa. -- Associate professor of art at Slippery Rock University; BFA University of Hawaii, master's degree in fibers, Tyler School of Art, Philadelphia, studied weaving in Guatemala; works in the permanent collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and Hawaii State Foundation for Art, commissioned tapestry at Pittsburgh International Airport.

Sarah Lander-Marks, Youngstown; BFA, Syracuse University, master's degree, Massachusetts College of Art, studied Hornsey College of Art, London; exhibited at Butler Institute and Apple Gallery, Youngstown, and in Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Sewickley, Pa.

Russell Maddick, Campbell -- YSU associate professor of art; BA from YSU, master's in fine arts from Ohio State University; winner of Ohio Arts Council Fellowship, and YSU Research Council grant; top awards at three Butler Institute shows and first award at Hoyt National Painting Show, New Castle; one-man shows at Butler, YSU, Ohio State, Akron University and Westminster College, and exhibits at many other shows throughout the Midwest.

Karen S. Page, New Wilmington, Pa. -- BFA from Syracuse University, graduate in fashion merchandising, Bryant & Stratton Business Institute, Rochester, N.Y.; limited service instructor in crafts at YSU; exhibited at YSU, Bank One, Butler Institute, YWCA, Hoyt Institute, Cleveland Museum, Three Rivers Art Festival, Pittsburgh, and others.

-MORE-

Add Three

James A. Pernotto, Youngstown -- BFA at YSU, master's in art, University of Wisconsin; instructor, YSU and Rutgers University; grants from the Ohio Arts Council, Wisconsin Arts Council; first place awards Butler Institute, Hoyt Institute and Wisconsin Bienalle; exhibited in shows throughout the East and Midwest.

Kathy Pernotto, Lake Milton -- BFA from YSU; studied and lived in New Mexico; exhibited at Butler Institute, and the Ohio Exhibition and the State Capitol, Columbus.

Faith Ringgold, New York City -- Bachelor of Science and master's degrees from City College of New York; performing artist and doll/mask maker; many exhibits and work in collections of the Newark Museum and Chase Manhattan Bank; honor award at the recent national meeting of the Women's Caucus for Art.

Susan Russo, Youngstown -- Assistant professor and coordinator of Graphic Design at YSU; BFA Michigan State University, master's degree Rochester Institute of Technology; freelance graphic designer and illustrator; exhibited works at YSU, YWCA, TAG, Michigan State University, Penn State, New York State College-Geneseio, Rochester Institute and others.

Myra Schwartz, Washington, D.C. -- Exhibits include Midwest Craft Fair, Northbrook, Ill.; Minneapolis Rose Fete Fair; Plaza Art Fair, Kansas City; Paul Waggoner Gallery, Chicago, Synopsis Gallery, Evanston, Ill.

Clara Kenworthy Wick, Youngstown -- Freelance artist; courses at YSU and LaSalle Junior College, Auburndale, Mass.; one-woman exhibits at YSU, Jewish Community Center; works also exhibited at Butler Institute, TAG; committee member and award winner, YWCA Women's Art Show.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-82
1a,b,c,d,3+

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Sept. 5, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Twenty-two dolls portrayed in sculpture, construction, paintings and photographs--each reflecting a thought or theme by the 22 artists--will be featured at the Youngstown State University Art Gallery in Kilcawley Center Sept. 24-Oct. 18.

Sherri Hill, coordinator of the University's Art Gallery and Graphic Center, invited artists who were making dolls or using doll-like imagery in their work to participate in this unique exhibit, "The Doll Show." They employed social, political, historical, aesthetical and even whimsical inspirations to interpret their artistic statements.

The gallery is free and open to the public as well as the University community. Hours are 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday, Thursday and Friday; 10 a.m.-7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday; 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday.

There will be a reception for the artists from 6-8 p.m. Sept. 26 in the Art Gallery.

Participating artists are:

Nancy Bizzarri, Youngstown -- Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) degree from YSU; several one-woman shows at YSU; exhibited at Butler Institute of American Art, Shenango Valley Arts Guild, First Unitarian Church, YWCA, and Trumbull Art Guild (TAG), Warren.

Karen Bizzarri, Youngstown -- Studio art major at YSU; exhibits at Butler Institute, YWCA, Shenango Valley Arts Guild, TAG, Unitarian Church and YSU.

-MORE-

Add One

Vito Acconci, New York City -- Former visiting artist at Kent State; one-man shows in many American museums and galleries as well as in Paris, Rome, London, Brussels and Vienna.

Susan Bolger, Youngstown -- BFA degree, California State University-San Bernadino, attended University of Wisconsin, Laguna Beach School of Design, working on master's degree at Kent State; has been a film maker, photographer, editor and gallery assistant and manager in California.

Louise Corsi, New Castle, Pa. -- BFA in sculpture from YSU; exhibited in the Woman Artists Show at YWCA and TAG.

Nancy Zorn Foster, Niles -- studied at YSU and Cleveland Museum of Art; past president of Youngstown Area Weavers' Guild and member of Cleveland Textile Alliance; exhibited at Cleveland Museum of Art, Butler Institute, TAG, YWCA and YSU.

Sherri Hill, Youngstown -- BFA from YSU; freelance graphic design and fiber artist, layout design; participated in Cristo's "Surrounded Islands" project at Miami Beach; exhibited at Butler Institute, YWCA, Youngstown Area Weavers' Guild, and TAG.

John Hink, Struthers -- BFA from YSU, painting and photography; exhibits include a one-man show in New York, Cleveland Museum May Show, one-man show at YSU, and in current Ohio University traveling photo show entitled "Alternatives '86."

Tazim Jaffer, Youngstown -- currently attending YSU; exhibited at YSU, Ashtabula Arts Center, and shows in Youngstown, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

Mary Joan Kerr, Miami, Fla. -- BFA at YSU, Master of Fine Arts in Photography, University of Miami; freelance photography; exhibited at University of Miami, YSU, TAG, Butler Institute, Steel Street Gallery, Pittsburgh and Columbus.

Add Two

Judith Kimpan, Farmdale -- BA at Kent State and currently working on graduate degree; exhibited at Cleveland, Canton, Handley, Pa., Butler Institute, Bank One, TAG.

Susan J. Klein, Canfield -- BA at YSU and master's degree, Kent State; gallery director for Trumbull Art Guild and professional photographer.

Akiko Kotani, Slippery Rock, Pa. -- Associate professor of art at Slippery Rock University; BFA University of Hawaii, master's degree in fibers, Tyler School of Art, Philadelphia, studied weaving in Guatemala; works in the permanent collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and Hawaii State Foundation for Art, commissioned tapestry at Pittsburgh International Airport.

Sarah Lander-Marks, Youngstown; BFA, Syracuse University, master's degree, Massachusetts College of Art, studied Hornsey College of Art, London; exhibited at Butler Institute and Apple Gallery, Youngstown, and in Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Sewickley, Pa.

Russell Maddick, Campbell -- YSU associate professor of art; BA from YSU, master's in fine arts from Ohio State University; winner of Ohio Arts Council Fellowship, and YSU Research Council grant; top awards at three Butler Institute shows and first award at Hoyt National Painting Show, New Castle; one-man shows at Butler, YSU, Ohio State, Akron University and Westminster College, and exhibits at many other shows throughout the Midwest.

Karen S. Page, New Wilmington, Pa. -- BFA from Syracuse University, graduate in fashion merchandising, Bryant & Stratton Business Institute, Rochester, N.Y.; limited service instructor in crafts at YSU; exhibited at YSU, Bank One, Butler Institute, YWCA, Hoyt Institute, Cleveland Museum, Three Rivers Art Festival, Pittsburgh, and others.

-MORE-

Add Three

James A. Pernotto, Youngstown -- BFA at YSU, master's in art, University of Wisconsin; instructor, YSU and Rutgers University; grants from the Ohio Arts Council, Wisconsin Arts Council; first place awards Butler Institute, Hoyt Institute and Wisconsin Bienalle; exhibited in shows throughout the East and Midwest.

Kathy Pernotto, Lake Milton -- BFA from YSU; studied and lived in New Mexico; exhibited at Butler Institute, and the Ohio Exhibition and the State Capitol, Columbus.

Faith Ringgold, New York City -- Bachelor of Science and master's degrees from City College of New York; performing artist and doll/mask maker; many exhibits and work in collections of the Newark Museum and Chase Manhattan Bank; honor award at the recent national meeting of the Women's Caucus for Art.

Susan Russo, Youngstown -- Assistant professor and coordinator of Graphic Design at YSU; BFA Michigan State University, master's degree Rochester Institute of Technology (N.Y.); freelance graphic designer and illustrator; exhibited works at YSU, YWCA, TAG, Michigan State University, Penn State, New York State College-Geneseo, Rochester Institute and others.

Myra Schwartz, Washington, D.C. -- Exhibits include Midwest Craft Fair, Northbrook, Ill.; Minneapolis Rose Fete Fair; Plaza Art Fair, Kansas City; Paul Waggoner Gallery, Chicago, Synopsis Gallery, Evanston, Ill.

Clara Kenworthy Wick, Youngstown -- Freelance artist; courses at YSU and LaSalle Junior College, Auburndale, Mass.; one-woman exhibits at YSU, Jewish Community Center; works also exhibited at Butler Institute, TAG; committee member and award winner, YWCA Women's Art Show.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-82
1a,b,c,d,3+

FOR RELEASE:

CUTLINE

The opposite side of the doll "Ms. Conduct" bares a different view of her personality. She is the creation of Karen Page of New Wilmington, Pa., and one of 22 works in various mediums by 22 invited artists in "The Doll Show" exhibition Sept. 24-Oct. 18 in YSU's Kilcawley Center Art Gallery. The gallery is free and open to the public.

(YSU photo by Elise Cleary)

##

86-83

FOR RELEASE:

CUTLINE

One of the original works in "The Doll Show" Sept. 24-Oct. 18 at YSU's Kilcawley Center Art Gallery is "Ms. Conduct," whose reverse side offers a very different view of her personality. This doll by Karen Page of New Wilmington, Pa., is one of 22 creations in various mediums by the 22 artists invited to participate in the exhibition. The gallery is free and open to the public.

(YSU photo by Elise Cleary)

##

86-83

FOR RELEASE:

CUTLINE

One of the original works in "The Doll Show" Sept. 24-Oct. 18 at YSU's Kilcawley Center Art Gallery is "Ms. Conduct," whose reverse side offers a very different view of her personality. This doll by Karen Page of New Wilmington, Pa., is one of 22 creations in various mediums by the 22 artists invited to participate in the exhibition. The gallery is free and open to the public.

(YSU photo by Elise Cleary)

##

86-83