YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education will offer "Speedreading," a six-week course directed at above-average readers who want to increase their efficiency in skimming, scanning and critical reading. The course will be conducted on the YSU campus beginning April 8.

"Speedreading" will also emphasize improvement in levels of comprehension and retention. Through the use of printed articles and vocabulary exercises, participants will be able to increase their work productivity and personal reading enjoyment.

Dr. Sara Throop, associate professor of Elementary Education at YSU, will teach the course. Classes will be held from 5:40-7:30 p.m. on Mondays, April 8 through May 13. The fee is $100.

For more information, or to register, contact the YSU Office of Continuing Education, B087, Cushwa Hall, or call (216) 742-3358.
