

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 21, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A public concert by world famous cellist Anner Bylsma will be held at Youngstown State University at 8 p.m. April 18 in Bliss Recital Hall.

The free concert is sponsored by the YSU's Classical Music Society and is part of the Dana Concert Series.

Bylsma, who began musical studies at age 3, studied cello at the Royal Conservatory in The Hague, where he received the Prix d'excellence in 1957. He won the Pablo Casals competition in 1959 and was the principle cellist of Amsterdam's renowned Concertgebouw Orchestra for six years.

Bylsma is currently a faculty member at the Royal Conservatory and the Amsterdam Sweelinck Conservatory.

The cellist is best known for his interpretation of baroque and early classical music, and is one of the most recorded baroque specialists.

His concert at YSU will feature the Bach "Suites for Unaccompanied Cello." He has received highest critical acclaim for his performance of these six suites, which are considered the supreme works of music for the cello.

Bylsma's 15 tour recitals for April includes performances at the University of Nebraska on April 15, Kansas City, April 16, YSU on the 18th, Oberlin College, April 19, and Washington D.C. on April 23.

The Dana Concert Series is presented by the Dana School of Music, which is part of YSU's College of Fine and Performing Arts.

###

NEWS SERVICE

87-351 1a,b,d,e,h

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 21, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A public concert by world famous cellist Anner Bylsma will be held at Youngstown State University at 8 p.m. April 18 in Bliss Recital Hall.

The free concert is sponsored by the YSU's Classical Music Society and is part of the Dana Concert Series.

Bylsma, who began musical studies at age 3, studied cello at the Royal Conservatory in The Hague, where he received the Prix d'excellence in 1957. He won the Pablo Casals competition in 1959 and was the principle cellist of Amsterdam's renowned Concertgebouw Orchestra for six years.

Bylsma is currently a faculty member at the Royal Conservatory and the Amsterdam Sweelinck Conservatory.

The cellist is best known for his interpretation of baroque and early classical music, and is one of the most recorded baroque specialists.

His concert at YSU will feature the Bach "Suites for Unaccompanied Cello." He has received highest critical acclaim for his performance of these six suites, which are considered the supreme works of music for the cello.

Bylsma's 15 tour recitals for April includes performances at the University of Nebraska on April 15, Kansas City, April 16, YSU on the 18th, Oberlin College, April 19, and Washington D.C. on April 23.

The Dana Concert Series is presented by the Dana School of Music, which is part of YSU's College of Fine and Performing Arts.

###

NEWS SERVICE

87-351 1a,b,d,e,h

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 21, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The ever-changing family will be discussed during a Tri-County Maternal/Child Health Association conference from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. April 16 at Youngstown State University.

"Caring for the Healthy Family: The Other 90 Percent," is being cosponsored by YSU's Office of Continuing Education. Application for 6.4 Continuing Education contact hours has been applied for from the Ohio Nurses Association, the Licensed Practical Nurse Association of Ohio, Inc., the Commission on Dietetic Registration and the International Childbirth Education Association.

The keynote address will be by Dr. Regina Leaderman, professor at the Helen Denne Schulte School of Nursing and the project director for the Maternal/Newborn Nursing Graduate Education Program at the University of Wisconsin.

Her topic will be "Psycho Social Challenges to the Family During Pregnancy." Leaderman is the author of a book on the same subject.

Other general sessions on the agenda will include "You're a Better Parent Than You Think," led by Dr. Raymond Guarendi, a clinical psychologist at the Columbiana County Mental Health Center, and "From Parent to Grandparent in One Easy Step" by Nancy Mosca, instructor in the YSU Department of Nursing.

Concurrent mini-sessions will cover such topics as "Lovemaking and Pregnancy" with Rosemarie Hogan, associate professor of the Kent State University School of Nursing; "Quality Perinatal Care on a Shoestring" by Dr. James Quilty, chief of the Division of Maternal/Child Health, Ohio

MORE

ADD ONE

Department of Health; and "Adolescent Pregnancy: Dealing With It in Ohio" with Dr. Antoinette Parisi Eaton, past chair of the Governor's Commission on Teenage Pregnancy in Ohio. Five other workshops will be offered.

The conference fee is $60, or $45 for those registering prior to April 4. For more information, or a brochure, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE

87-352

1a,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 21, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The ever-changing family will be discussed during a Tri-County Maternal/Child Health Association conference from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. April 16 at Youngstown State University.

"Caring for the Healthy Family: The Other 90 Percent," is being cosponsored by YSU's Office of Continuing Education. Application for 6.4 Continuing Education contact hours has been applied for from the Ohio Nurses Association, the Licensed Practical Nurse Association of Ohio, Inc., the Commission on Dietetic Registration and the International Childbirth Education Association.

The keynote address will be by Dr. Regina Leaderman, professor at the Helen Denne Schulte School of Nursing and the project director for the Maternal/Newborn Nursing Graduate Education Program at the University of Wisconsin.

Her topic will be "Psycho Social Challenges to the Family During Pregnancy." Leaderman is the author of a book on the same subject.

Other general sessions on the agenda will include "You're a Better Parent Than You Think," led by Dr. Raymond Guarendi, a clinical psychologist at the Columbiana County Mental Health Center, and "From Parent to Grandparent in One Easy Step" by Nancy Mosca, instructor in the YSU Department of Nursing.

Concurrent mini-sessions will cover such topics as "Lovemaking and Pregnancy" with Rosemarie Hogan, associate professor of the Kent State University School of Nursing; "Quality Perinatal Care on a Shoestring" by Dr. James Quilty, chief of the Division of Maternal/Child Health, Ohio

MORE

ADD ONE

Department of Health; and "Adolescent Pregnancy: Dealing With It in Ohio" with Dr. Antoinette Parisi Eaton, past chair of the Governor's Commission on Teenage Pregnancy in Ohio. Five other workshops will be offered.

The conference fee is $60, or $45 for those registering prior to April 4. For more information, or a brochure, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE

87-352

1a,d