FOR RELEASE:

For John and Joanne Malys of Youngstown, it's a familiar trip to Beeghly Center at Youngstown State University--and a rewarding one.

Today (Sat. 3/23/85) the family added a sixth YSU degree when daughter Teresa received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration.

And there's still another in the wings. Mary Malys is a freshman at the university.

The former Joanne Gioglio of Youngstown graduated from High school and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education at YSU in 1957. In addition to raising four daughters, she works for a personnel/management firm in Boardman.

John graduated from Campbell Memorial High School in 1959 and served in the Armed Forces during the Korean War. He received a Bachelor of Science in Education degree in 1962 and Master's degree in education in 1973. He is a teacher in the Mathews School District, Vienna.

Last June, daughters Barbara and Loretta received their degrees from Youngstown State. Barbara received a Bachelor of Science degree in computer technology and now works for the William Cafaro, Co. Loretta received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree and is a graphic artist with Gregory and Thomas, Inc. Mary, the freshman, is studying math and computer science.

All four daughters graduated from Wilson High school
