YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - If you've always wanted to become a pilot but didn't know where to start...here's the place.

Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education will offer a 10-week course, "Private Pilot Ground School," during Spring Quarter.

It will introduce students to flying fundamentals, systems, aerodynamics, navigation, communication systems and regulations.

This course meets Federal Aviation Administration requirements and will assist the student in preparing for the FAA private pilot written examination.

Classes will be held on the YSU campus from 9-11 a.m. Saturdays, April 11 - June 20.

George Repasky, a limited-service faculty member at YSU, will be instructor. He is certified as a basic ground instructor by the FAA.

The course fee is $165.

For a free flyer, or to register, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed April 2, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Swimming classes for adults, and for children 6-12, will begin on the Youngstown State University campus April 11.

Sponsored by the YSU Office of Continuing Education, these classes will be held on Saturdays, April 11-June 13.

"Beginning Swim for Adults" will teach functional aquatic skills and basic swimming strokes to adults with no water experience or very limited swimming skills. Classes will be held from 11 a.m.-Noon.

"Beginning Swim: Ages 6-12" will teach children how to swim, float, and maneuver in the water without fear. Classes will meet from 10-11 a.m.

"Advanced Beginning swim: Ages 6-12" is a continuation of the above course. These classes will be from 10 a.m.-11 a.m.

Gretchen Julian, limited service instructor in the Health and Physical Education Department at YSU, will be instructor. Classes will be highly individualized to accommodate persons with differing abilities and goals.

Successful completion of these courses will lead to Red Cross Certification for that specific course.

The fee for each course is $90.

For more information, or to register, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.
