YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Twenty-two students will be inducted into Youngstown State University's Clarence P. Gould Society at the society's 28th annual banquet at 5:30 p.m. May 14 in the Scarlet-Carnation Rooms of Kilcawley Center.

This honor society recognizes and encourages distinguished academic achievement in the university's College of Arts and Sciences. It was chartered in 1958 and named for the late Dr. Clarence P. Gould, professor and chairman of the Department of History, 1938-1958.

The welcome at the banquet will be by Dr. Richard Shale of Boardman, assistant professor of English and chairman of the Gould Society Faculty Committee. The charge to inductees will be by Dr. Barbara H. Brothers, Youngstown, chairman of the English Department and past chairman of the committee.

Presentation of certificates will be by Dr. Mary B. Loud, Hubbard, Foreign Language Department, and committee vice chairman. Concluding remarks will be given by Dr. Sally Hotchkiss, Boardman, associate provost and dean of the Graduate School.
