FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed May 4, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Dr. Brian Murray of Youngstown, assistant professor of English at Youngstown State University, will present a reading from his novel-in-progress, 1995, at 7:30 p.m. May 14 in Room 132 of DeBartolo Hall, Fifth Avenue.

Also appearing will be poet William Greenway of Youngstown, assistant professor of English, who will present a reading from his soon-to-be-published book, Where We've Been.

The readings are free and open to the public. A reception will follow in Rooms 121 and 122 of DeBartolo Hall. The event is sponsored by the Youngstown Writers Group.

Dr. Murray's 1995 relates the adventures of a young newspaper reporter who lives in a large, industrial city during a period of social turmoil.

Dr. Murray received his master's and doctor's degrees in Modern Letters from the University of Tulsa, Okla. He is a former staff reporter for the Tulsa Daily World, and has published numerous articles on a wide variety of British and American authors. He is a 1986 recipient of YSU's "Distinguished Professorship Award," and teaches creative writing.

The Youngstown Writers Group, which is affiliated with YSU's English Department, is a network of local writers concerned with the art of the written language and its availability to the general public.

For more information on the group and its activities, write to the Youngstown Writers Group, c/o English Department, Youngstown State University, Youngstown, Ohio 44555.

Mailed: May 4, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Nineteen students will be inducted into the Clarence P. Gould Society of Youngstown State University on May 12.

The 30th annual banquet and induction will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the Scarlet Room of Kilcawley Center.

This honor society recognizes and encourages distinguished academic achievement in the University's College of Arts and Sciences.

Students in the top five per cent of the Senior Class and the top one per cent of the Junior Class who have demonstrated excellence and scholarship in the liberal arts are eligible for election. Selection is by the Gould Society Committee composed of faculty who are members of either Phi Beta Kappa or the Gould Society.

The organization was chartered in 1958 and named for the late Dr. Clarence P. Gould, professor and chairman of the Department of History, 1938-1958.

The welcome will be given by Dr. Mary Loud of Hubbard, associate professor of Foreign Languages. The charge to inductees will be given by Dr. Leslie Domonkos of Canfield, professor of History. Dr. Lowell Satre of Youngstown, professor of History, will present the introduction of new members and certificates, and Dr. Lee Slivinske of Canfield, assistant professor of Sociology, will give the closing remarks.

Special guests will be last year's junior inductees, now seniors: Suzanne Prieur Clair and Kristina L. Donachie, both of Youngstown, and Kathleen A. Karrenbauer, Girard.
