VIAL OF LIFE

YOUNGSTOWN STATE UNIVERSITY'S CAMPUS SECURITY OFFICE HAS JOINED THE MAHONING COUNTY VIAL OF LIFE PROGRAM AND IS NOW DISTRIBUTING THE VIALS FREE TO THE COMMUNITY.

THESE VIALS ARE SMALL CYLINDERS CONTAINING VITAL INFORMATION ABOUT AN INDIVIDUAL'S SERIOUS MEDICAL CONDITION. THEY ARE ALWAYS STORED INSIDE THE REFRIGERATOR AND FUNCTION IN A SIMILAR MANNER AS A MEDICAL I.D. TAG, ALERTING SAFETY FORCES IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY.

IF YOU HAVE A SERIOUS HEALTH PROBLEM, LIVE ALONE, OR KNOW SOMEONE WHO LIVES ALONE, PICK UP A VIAL AT YSU'S CAMPUS SECURITY OFFICE, LOCATED ON SPRING STREET, JUST OFF WICK AVENUE, OR CALL THE SECURITY OFFICE FOR MORE INFORMATION AT 742-3527.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's fine arts radio station, WYSU-FM (88.5), will broadcast a special Memorial Day concert by the U.S. Coast Guard Band at 10 a.m. May 26.

This Memorial Day event will include "Purple Heart," an award-winning march composed by Band Director Lieutenant Commander Lewis J. Buckley and "Elegy for a Young American," written in memory of President John F. Kennedy by Roland Presti.

Gary Chapman will be featured in a solo performance of John Barnes Chance's "Introduction and Capriccio." Traditional Sousa marches, contemporary wind ensemble pieces, and John Williams' theme from the film, "Raiders of the Lost Ark" will also be presented.

Founded in 1925, the Coast Guard Band has presented more than 2,500 live performances in 37 states.

WYSU-FM is a member station of the National Public Radio, which is providing this special program.
