

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed May 20, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Leah Flock and Company will present a "Dance Informance" at 11 a.m. June 7 at Youngstown State University's Ford Auditorium, located in Bliss Recital Hall on Wick Avenue.

This performance concludes the College of Fine and Performing Arts' "Family Entertainment Series," designed particularly for children, parents and grandparents.

Flock, an area choreographer and owner/instructor of an area dance and gymnastics studio, will perform with her students a combination of jazz, tap and ballet geared for musical theatre work. The "informance" will also include lectures and demonstrations.

A YSU graduate in theatre, psychology and physical education, Flock studied dance in New York City and Chicago and has choreographed numerous plays and other productions including a number at YSU. Her students have won first place in the Dance Masters of America's Ohio and Pennsylvania competitions as well as the national competitions in Miami and New York City.

"Family Entertainment Series" was developed to serve as an added link between the university and the community, providing special cultural events for the entire family.

All tickets are $1 and are for reserved seats. They may be purchased from the University Theatre Box Office, (216) 742-3105, 1-5 p.m. weekdays and from 9:30-10:45 a.m. on performance days. Children must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Free parking is available in any surface lot on campus.

###

FOR RELEASE:

CUTLINE

Leah Flock, right, Canfield dance master and YSU graduate, and her students will present "Dance Informance" at 11 a.m. June 7 in YSU's Bliss Hall. The show is a combination lecture/demonstration/performance that will include jazz, tap and ballet for the musical theatre. It is the final program in the College of Fine and Performing Arts' "Family Entertainment Series."

###

85-593

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Dr. Michael Kumer, Dean of the School of Music at Duquesne University, will lecture on the importance of time management skills in the arts and education at 7 p.m. May 29 at Youngstown State University.

His presentation, free and open to the public, will be held in Room 3026 of Bliss Hall, Wick Avenue.

The lecture is cosponsored by the Music Educator's National Conference Chapter at YSU's Dana School of Music and Student Government.

Dr. Kumer, a native of Pittsburgh, holds degrees from Carnegie-Mellon University and Duquesne. As a percussionist, he has performed with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and a number of other musical organizations.

He is also active in marching percussion work and has taught, arranged and adjudicated for groups in much of the U.S. and Canada.

###

NEWS SERVICE
85-592
la,c