Historical Sketch

Prior to being called “The University Relations Office,” the office was referred to as “Public Relations.” The Public Relations Office was under the director of Frieda Flint from 1920-1966, retiring a year before the University became State sponsored. Flint was the university’s first public relations director. After her retirement, Philip A. Snyder became director of the office and referred to the office as “University Relations.” James McCollum was named the director after Philip Snyder retired in 1992. McCollum stayed until 1996 when President Cochran appointed Linda Lewis as director. After Cochran left the university, Lewis departed as well.

YSU officials created a new position with the title of Executive Director of Marketing and Communications. This new position gave the job an increase in focus “to provide advice to the president and other university personnel on marketing and communication issues, to assist university officials who are called upon as designated university spokes persons, and to prepare and write speeches, correspondence and other materials for the president.”¹ Walter Ulbricht was the first person to hold this position and held it until 2006 when he went to Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Mark W. Van Tilburg took over in 2008 and currently holds the position. (Note: references made to The Jambar).

Scope and Content Note

The records were created by the staff of the YSU University Relations Office under the direction of Phil Snyder. Records were stored in the vault room in Tod Hall’s basement, until being transferred to Maag Library Archives in 2005. The Bulk of the records date 1975-1993 and is artificially created. Material is categorized by type of material, than subject, than date. The largest series is the Publications series being subdivided by academic, service, building, and events divisions. A detailed Series Description will be described below in the box and folder content listings. (Note: A box containing two binders were deaccessioned from this collection and added to the University Development Collection. Holdings contained information regarding the fund raising of the YSU Community Sports Complex Project).

This collection was processed during the winter of 2011 to the spring of 2012. This finding aid was written by Lisa Marie Garofali, a History graduate student with over four years experience working full time in the YSU Archives as of March 2012. Due to the extent of the collection it was processed within a year and a half, with occasional breaks in between to focus on other projects, priorities, change of staff etc...

SERIES III: PUBLICATIONS

This is the largest series within the records. Since most of what University Relations does is related to publications, it's logical that this would be the largest series. This series is divided in to several subseries. Starting off is the Directories, Catalogs and Bulletins, Handbooks, and Magazines and Alumni Publications. The two large subsets of the series are academic departments and events. Publications relating to academic departments are next listed by college and department. Services and buildings appear after the academic departments. The building subseries feature anything in relation to groundbreaking and dedication of buildings on campus. The Events subseries is the last of this series and again is pretty large. This includes events like Commencements, Inaugurations, Lectures, Honors Convocation, observances and other events. A majority of the information is listed from the 1970s-1990s.

This series contains various information with regard to news happening on or around on campus. Most of these materials were produced by the department and other local newspaper establishments such as clippings from The Vindicator, The Jambar, and campus news releases. The News Releases are arranged by date from 1980-2001. The subject subseries features news covering of various activities on campus and campus buildings. The Enrollment Update covers the summer of 2001 and features stories of recruitment and retention. It was initiated by President Sweet to keep the campus updated on the changing enrollment activities. The Undergraduate Information Update contains information for those interested in applying to the university as an undergraduate. Statistic of enrollment are also included and cover the years 1985-1995. YSU is an administrative communication which was published for the faculty and staff and provided information on programs, issues and events of interest to the University community during 1990-1992. YSU Review is similar but was published earlier from 1968-1977 and from 1980 to the making of this Finding Aid, the YSU Update (now eUpdate) continues to be published with similar topics and purpose.
