

[[envelope]]

Sgt P. Centofanti
734th Eng. H.S. Co.
W. Camp Claiborne La.
U.S. Army

ALEXANDRIA, LA
JUN 3
11 - AM
1943

Free

Miss Mary Massullo
19 S. Jackson St.
Youngstown Ohio

[[/envelope]]

[[envelope]]

S.W.A.B.K.

I.L.Y.M.V. Much

[/envelope]]

May 21, 43 10,30 P.M.
734th Eng. H.S. Co.
W. Camp Claiborne. La.

Dear sweetheart Mary here I am again in camp I just came in 1 PM. today and feel very good I hope to hear the same from you Well honey I came back safe but I see too much flood in Mich and in Saint Louis, and little Rock lots water lots house are in water and the train I come in he came here really slow I wish you was with me ha ha I really like to see all the water anyway may be the water coming in Youngstown soon too I hope not

Well to day I got your letter of 7 May and you says your my funny face well I know you are my beautiful honey funny face because I love you very much with all my heart since I been home I really was very happy to see you every day

but now I don't feel the way the night I came back I was very mad and crying like a baby you don't believe me but I did cry. I didn't want leave you again because my heart love you little too much but I hope some day I will be with my sweetheart
every day

Mary I think they going bust me
I don't care what they going do to me because next time I come home I will stay home with you I don't care about army I want you nothing else

Also sweetheart I don't have much more to tell you wishing you best luck your

Sweetheart honey
Pete Centofanti
write soon I be waiting
I love you mary
I love you sweetheart XXXXXX

its about 1..30 PM
now I wish I could be there again with you
now good night
now I with
to see you
soon

[[image of heart]]