Enrollment Increases 189; Over 3,000

Enrollment figures at the end of the first week of school at Youngstown College showed a total of 3,256 students compared with 3,067 last fall, or an increase of 189.

All classes got under way during the first week with the exception of the Law School, which opened Sept. 28, raising the total enrollment figure.

The breakdown of new student enrollment shows a total of 895 freshmen, 582 of whom are full-time day students, compared with a total freshman enrollment last fall of 691, or a gain of 204.

184 Transfers

One hundred and eighty-four students have transferred from other colleges to YoCo this term and 95 former students have returned, making a total of 1,174 new students, compared with 998 for last fall.

Veteran enrollment shows a gain of 27 over last year with 989 enrolled this year and 962 last fall. Four hundred are veterans of the Korean War.

Has Improvements

More improved parking spaces, slagmac drives and walks, and cement steps at the east entrance to Tod Hall are among the noticeable improvements on campus this fall.

The landscaping around the new library has been completed. Grass is sparse but the lawns will be ready by spring.

The north wing of the Annex was torn down early this month to provide much needed faculty parking space. The lot on Bryson St. north of the library has been improved to ease student parking congestion.

Boosters Hold Post Game Hop

YoCo's newly formed Boosters will stage the second all school record hop after tomorrow night's game. The opening game dance was well attended and a "big success," Ray Schindell, Booster Club president reports.

A Pep Rally, lead by the cheerleaders will be held at noon today. Bill Nagy, Captain of the Cheerleading squad, reminds students that you don't have to be a Booster Club member to attend. If you aren't a booster, though, "you're sure missing the boat," Nagy says.

Booster membership now totals over 400 with recruitment delayed while new cards are being printed. (Continued on Page 6)

Student's Eligible For 'Who's Who' List

Eligible for listing in WHO'S WHO of American colleges, are thirty juniors, seniors who expect to receive degrees.

Nominations are on the basis of honor points obtained from extra-curricular activities. These points and activities must be placed on a form which can be obtained from the Dean's office, Information desk, Registrar's office or Student Council office.

Council Officers Make Plans

Ready to take over their new jobs as Student Council officers and assist Prexy Bill Bender are (l to r) Tony Kariotis, vice president; Kevin Ramsey, treasurer and Shirley Orange, secretary. They were elected at the first regular meeting of Council this semester.

Student Survey Shows High Employment Rate

More than 70 percent of the 3,288 students now enrolled in Youngstown College are working either part-time or full-time, according to a survey of fall enrollments just completed, college officials report.

Of the entire student body, 1,650 students are attending part-time, mostly in evening classes meeting between the hours of five and ten o'clock. Virtually all of these students are employed full-time during the day and working toward their college degrees in the evening classes or taking courses which pertain to their jobs for the purpose of advancement. Many of the full-time day students are employed part-time in offices, stores, and local industries.

Ratio is Better

The ratio of men to women is in better balance this year with nearly three men to one woman, as compared with more than four men to one woman during the immediate postwar years.

More than 80 per cent of the students enrolled in day and evening classes have specified on their enrollment cards that they are working toward a college degree.

The survey shows heavy enrollment in the fields of engineering, business administration, courses preparing for teaching and in increased enrollment in the Dana School of Music.

It also shows that there are 895 new freshmen, one of the largest classes since pre-war days.

Students are enrolled from 127 different towns and from the states of Pennsylvania, New York, Indiana, North Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi, Florida, Illinois, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. One student from Jerusalem, Palestine is enrolled.

JAMBAR RADIO EDITION (YoCo Quarter Hour)
 11:15 A.M. SATURDAY WBBW

Member: Ohio College Newspaper Association. National Advertising Representative: National Advertising Service, Inc., 420 Madison Ave., New York 17, New York.

Statement of Policy

The JAMBAR is a newspaper of, for and by the students of Youngstown College. Student news is reported by student journalists for student readers.

With a nonprofessional editorial and news staff, news coverage may not always be adequate and may not always be unbiased. Adequate and unbiased news coverage will be the JAMBAR'S goal.

There are no school, department, or organization columns in this issue. An attempt will be made to cover school, department and organization happenings as news. A small staff will be augmented if all students regard themselves as reporters and if all schools, departments, and organizations submit regular news releases.

A Traffic Hazard

The addition of Pollock House and Ford Hall to the campus has solved many academic and administrative problems. One has been created. In going to and from classes in these buildings the student is compelled to cross busy Wick Ave. With the traffic signal at Wick Ave. and Lincoln Ave. temporarily removed this venture has become extremely hazardous.

To complete your education; use care in crossing Wick Ave. Cross only at intersections and when the traffic light at Wick and Lincoln is reinstated let it protect you, cross there.

A Full-time Booster

A headline in a 1950 JAMBAR told about a Booster Club and fifty yard line seats. The story underneath the head told about Boosters and fifty yard line seats. Presumably boosters sat on fifty yard line seats.

There was nothing in subsequent issues about those seats or the people who sat on them. They came, they saw, they yelled and they probably gave a lift to tiring gridlers. But they went home and forgot all about boosting anyone or anything, probably even forgot what the word had meant. They contributed to Youngstown College and the "spirit" of Youngstown College only briefly and in passing.

Again this year energetic student leaders are going all out to establish a club of YoCo Boosters. They offer the same inducement as the 1950 group but they go further and offer support for any worthy school function. They call upon their members to be boosters to think of YoCo first and the best interests of the school.

The Youngstown student body has long needed such a group. Many students have long recognized this need, but recognition won't put it over. Every booster has got to be a full time YoCo booster not just the occupant of a seat on the fifty yard line.

A Birthday

Today marks the climax of Youngstown's sesquicentennial celebration and similarly communities all over Ohio have expended time and efforts to mark this, Ohio's 150th year of statehood.

The students of Youngstown College might take this time to reflect upon the significance of their school in the growth of Ohio. Soon after the turn of the century, this increasingly industrialized northern Ohio community, felt the need for more educational opportunities.

In response to this need the Youngstown Association School was organized by the local Y.M.C.A. and offered evening classes for employed men. In 1908 the school of law was added and courses in commerce and finance were offered.

The law school was expanded in 1920 and the school became a degree granting institution. When the Bonnell Building next to the public library housed the college in 1923, courses were being offered in law, business administration, liberal arts and engineering.

The John Wick mansion, site of the present main building, was purchased in 1926. The main building was built in 1931 and the Dana School of Music added in 1941. In 1946 the Rayen School of Engineering moved into the old Rayen High School and in 1953 our modern library was completed.

Yes, it is well to look back in this sesquicentennial year, but then lets all turn and look forward. Forward to the growth, which will inevitably come and to the progress which may accompany it. Students will play an important part in determining the rate of this growth and the value of this progress.

Question: What Impressed You Most About YoCo?

Shirley Pitts, Fr.

I was impressed most of all by the different technique in which colleges are run in comparison with high schools. Here at YoCo people enroll in various fields and do not come in direct contact with other people in other fields. In high school everyone has excelled in the same classes and are more of a family type group.

Bob Clifford, Fr.

My first and foremost impression of Youngstown College as the year began was the friendly and sociable air over the entire campus. Fine sports and faculty departments, plus a friendly student body all go to make up great expectations for the school year. The facilities here are good and it is a pleasure to study in the very modern Tod Hall.

Evelyn DeLong, Fr.

The thing that impressed me most at YoCo is the friendliness of the upper classmen. All through high school I had heard stories that freshmen are pushed around. I had expected to be snubbed, laughed at, and stepped on by upper classmen. But everyone is wonderful to the freshmen and ready to help us at any time.

Bill Bannon, Fr.

As I entered Youngstown College this year I was sincerely amazed at the friendly atmosphere not only among the students but also the faculty. Immediately I felt right at home and thus looked forward to a great year of collegelife. Entering the classrooms of Tod Hall was a pleasure I had not anticipated.

Judy McFarlin, Fr.

The student spirit and the football games have impressed me a great deal, especially the organization of the Booster Club. This Club has the college spirit showing as a group instead of the individual spirit as I understand it was previous at YoCo. The dances following the football games have given students that spark of enthusiasm which was needed to start the social calendar for the year.

Eddie Collins, Fr.

The item which impressed me most at Youngstown College is the services rendered to the students by the college, such as the placement service. The college not only directs you to firms needing part time and full time employment, but uses its influence to get you a job. The faculty is most helpful in arranging your classes to fit your job and is very understanding when you come to them for help.

Letters To The Editor

FORMER FAN

I'm a football fan and a former Penguin roofer. I say former because my wife no longer lets me see the Youngstown College games. They have much better bands and half-time demonstrations at any high school football game she says. To her that's all a ball game is, bands and intermissions. If the college can't field a better band than they do why don't they bring in some of the district high school bands. They might not win any more games but at least I could see them again.

HENPECKED

MISSING LIGHT

What happened to the traffic light at the corner of Wick and Lincoln? It's becoming downright dangerous to try and cross the street to get to classes any more. They also could use a light up across from Pollock Hall it not only holds you up to cross the street but some day it could knock you down.

NERVOUS

'T WAS ANNEXED

What happened to the last annex? Every year we come back and another one has disappeared. Then we have to start searching for all the classes or offices that were located in it.

CONFUSED

(Ed. Note: The JAMBAR and Neon offices are now on the 2nd floor of Pollock Hall and the Employment Bureau has moved over to the next annex, but where the last one is we're not sure.)

LIKES DANCES

I hope they continue those dances after the football games. There was a swell crowd at the one after the B-G game and I think it adds to the school spirit to get together afterwards. Everyone goes out anyway and it might just as well be down here. Besides its easier on the budget too.

JOE

AT LAST!

It certainly is nice to have the walk to the library blacktopped. It was murder plowing through that gravel last year. It didn't help the condition of my shoes either.

BETTY

WILL CANCEL

If this is going to be another year of "I love Allen" and "God and Man at Yale" issues, I'd like to cancel my subscription right now. I stood that stuff alright last year until I discovered the writer was an Irishman, too.

NISKOWITZ

SO SOON?

As an upperclassman I'd like to say that I think there's fine spirit of cooperation among the freshmen and upperclass this year and that's very fine. There was a good crowd at the Frosh Hop and gave us all a good chance to get acquainted. I myself felt pretty lonely when I first came up here as a freshman but everyone was so friendly that it wasn't long before I felt right at home.

SOPHOMORE

THE LINEUP

YoCo - the only place in the state where you have to stand in line to give your money away. What's with this registration every year? It seems to take longer and longer each time. After all a lot of us work and just don't have the time to stand around in lines for hours at a time.

S.P.

WHAT DID HE SAY?

What did the announcer on the JAMBAR radio show mean last week when he said "Me-de-OH-cra-zy"? Is that a new word for "half-crazy"? Or did he mean to say "ME-di-OC-ri-ty"?

BILL

We welcome all letters to the editor and will print all we have room for. They may be left in Box 69, Main Office.

Student at Clinic Gets Scholarship

Walter J. Hogan, Jr., a patient at the Cleveland Clinic, where he has been since last June as a result of an automobile accident, has been awarded the William F. Maag Jr. scholarship.

Hogan will continue his studies while in the hospital through the cooperation of the college professors who will work with him until he can return to college.

The accident resulted in a dangerous spinal injury for Hogan. The injury required delicate surgery about 20 hours after the accident occurred. Complete recovery is expected next summer.

Hogan began to take his first steps, after the accident by walking with the support of parallel bars and he is making steady progress. A senior pre-medical student, Hogan was second in scholarship among the 246 male students in the junior class last year.

Art Department to Continue Open Exhibit at Ford Hall

The Art Department will continue its policy of presenting a variety of art exhibitions at Ford Hall. Students and faculty are cordially invited to view the various showings held during the school year.

Beginning Oct. 3 and continuing through Oct. 24, they have arranged to show KYOTO, an exhibition prepared by the editors of LIFE Magazine.

Under the occupation of the United States Army much of the life of the Japanese city of Kyoto has gone on as it has for thousands of years.

Temple-going, tea-drinking, a pursuit of scholarly studies and the activities of small handicraft industries - these are practically as they were under the ancient Emperors.

It is this aspect of Kyoto, particularly as it is reflected in its religious architecture, which the editors of LIFE have shown in assembling this remarkable series of photographs made for them by Dmitri Kessel.

The photographs show in detail a rice harvest festival dance and purification ceremony at the Shinto Shrine of Inari; also the Kitano and Heian Shrines; the Imperial Palace; the Buddhist Nishi Hongwanji Temple; Higashi Hongwanji Temple; Kiyomizu-dera Temple; Chion-in Temple; San-Ju-San-Gen-Do Hall; and intimate glimpses of children, of artists at work, Buddhist nuns at school, and examples of Japanese painting and sculpture.

The first exhibition of work by Rico Lebrun drew considerable interest from the student body. Included in the show were preliminary drawings by the artist for his much discussed painting of the Crucifixion. Mr. Lebrun is an internationally known artist and the drawings included in this showing were all original. The exhibition was on loan to the Art Department from The Studio Guild, New York City.

College Band Makes Record

Hollywood - A comparative rarity, a commercial record by an undergraduate college dance band, went on sale late this summer in campus record stores in all parts of the country.

The record, "Cream Puff" and "September in the Rain," was made for Capitol by the Los Angeles City College "Collegians," winners of a contest sponsored by Metronome Magazine to find "the best college dance band in the land."

Making a popular record under a major label, which will bring the band to the attention of the "big time" in short order, was a prize in the contest, in which runners-up included Fred Dale's Band (Indiana University), Charlie Scott's Band (University of Richmond), and Ed Gerlach's Band (University of Houston).

Features Originality

Fronted and mentored by Bob MacDonald of the LACC music faculty, the "Collegians" are a 17-piece swing group which features original, modern arrangements. MacDonald, a veteran dance musician, has been arranger for Red Norvo, Benny Goodman, and Bunny Berigan.

The winners were selected on the basis of private recordings submitted to the judges: Bandleaders Stan Kenton, Ray Anthony and Billy May; Alan W. Livingston, vice-president of Capitol Records; George Simon and Barry Ulanov, editors of Metronome Magazine.

Miss Marie Tucker has been named assistant professor of biology at Youngstown College President Howard W. Jones announces.

The first semester she will work with a new program created by the New Castle, Pa. Hospital of Nursing with the College. The College will teach pre-clinical sciences.

Holds Degrees

Miss Tucker received her A.B. degree from Greenville College, M.S. in zoology from the University of Illinois and has done work toward her doctor's degree at Cornell University and the University of Illinois.

She has taught in Alton, Illinois; Fairbanks, Alaska; Dana College in Nebraska and the University of Illinois.

Law Schools Offer Tests

The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to a number of leading American law schools, will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on the mornings of November 14, 1953, February 20, April 10, and August 7, 1954. During 1952-53 some 7400 applicants took this test, and their scores were sent to over 100 law schools.

A candidate must make separate application for admission to each law school of his choice and should inquire of each whether it wishes him to take the Law School Admission Test and when.

Advise Early Test

Since many law schools select their freshman classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to next year's classes are advised ordinarily to take either the November or the February test, if possible.

Bulletins and applications for the test should be obtained four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date from Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N.J.

Two Kappa Sig's Return

Art Bova and Bob Nichols are back in Kappa Sig ranks after completing hitchhikes in the Marines and Army respectively. The men were welcomed back at the first meeting of the semester, when plans were laid for the coming school year.

Summer activity included a picnic at the home of their advisor and a week of just before school vacationing at Madison-on-the-Lake. Dick Westerman and John Yakubovic were representatives at the Kappa Sigma Kappa national convention held in Detroit, Michigan.

Sig Delt's Sell Decals

Youngstown College decals and license tags are being sold each day in the cafeteria by Sig Delt's Bob Mahoney and Joe Shaugnessey. Sigma Delta Beta Officers have extended congratulations to Student Council representatives recently elected to office.

A farewell party was held for Fran McHugh, last year's prexy, who was called to service this summer. Mike Billett, a member of last year's pledge class is attending Kent State University this year.

A revolutionary new cushion will be put on sale by the Phi Sigs at tomorrow night's game. The cushion is a souvenir type thing with a Penguin engraved and sells for $5.00. It inflates when the purchaser sits on it.

The alumni picnic, a week at Geneva-on-the-Lake, and three wedding receptions made up the Phi Sig's summer activity. Along with the Phi Mus they are now in the halls selling tickets to the Touchdown Trot, being held next Saturday in the Elms Ballroom.

Zing! Zang! Zowie!

My personal welcome to the freshmen who have just begun the task of rounding out their personalities. This is the purpose of the university in case you haven't yet learned. Evidently you all have not, as the following conversation overheard in the cafeteria will show.

Upperclassman: Hi! I'm running for student council representative. How about voting for me?

Freshman: What for?

Up: Don't you care who runs your student government?

Fr: Naw. They don't govern. They hold meetings. What do I care who holds meetings.

Up: What field are you going into?

Fr: Medicine.

Up: I see. And what satisfaction will you get out of it?

Fr: I'm learning to be a doctor. And when I'm finished, I'll go out and heal the sick. Are you going to vote?

Up: I'm president of the Yahoo Party.

Fr: What do you get out of it?

Up: Well, I'm making contacts and learning how to deal with people, and discovering my own character.

Fr: Yea? What school are you in?

Up: I'm in Liberal Arts.

Fr: How are you're grades?

Up: I'm not concerned with the obsolete practice of giving grades. To me rounding out my personality is more important than any meaning less alphabetical symbol.

Fr: What are you going to do after you graduate?

Up: I'm not worried about that unlikely event. The kind of education I'm interested in will equip me for anything that might come up. Well, there's no use talking to you. You don't even know what the university is for.

It's happened. (What?) Christine has gotten engaged. (Flooray!) The announcement has set social wheels turning and a deluge of parties has risen in the wake of the news. Christine, who is probably the daughter of her father and mother, has recently returned from a sea voyage on the U.S. Metamorphosis.

A party held in the glamorous debutante's honor last evening was a huge success and everybody got "pie-eyed" on something called yogurt, used as frosting on the gingerbread. Her fiance, a lawyer for a health foods company, has very big feet. Dr. O. Kinsey will officiate at the wedding which will be held as near to a church as possible.

The mothers of convention are planning a convention. The newly organized society for sceptics, cynics and mad psychologists is migrating to an undisclosed destination for their first get together since the societies formation. Betram R. In an exclusive interview Cortesian stated that the assembly may discuss such pertinent questions as: Are we here, and if so, why? The dates of Pliny. Was there a Pliny? Festivities will conclude with square dancing on the last day.

Music will be provided by Oedipus Rex. "Fling and flex with Oedipus Rex" is his slogan. After several noted men have been burned in effigy the assembly will depart from site for another year.

Looking Around...

by Ray Schindell

Yours truly has been doing quite a bit of looking around these last couple of weeks, mostly at these new freshmen. Among those I've had the pleasure of meeting are: Bob Clifford, Dale Wagner and Chuck Milward, all Rayen products. Ruth Navin, Mary Ann (jeep) Gillispie and Barbara Knott who teamed up with Gene Sikora and Harold Watson to walk those extra blocks down from Ursuline. Other freshmen under the appraising eyes of the Greeks are Don Seely, Bill Harrison, Kay Weber, Diane Burke and Shirley Pitts.

Old Timers, back from summer vacations and looking like walking adds for Sunshine and Health are Virginia Shelar, Mick Carney, Nancy Johnson, Lee Gilboy, Ned Mervis, Pat Emerine (the champion spark plug) Marge Umstead, Lee Casey and Constance Treantenou.

Looking relieved to be back in school after a long hard summer at work are Don Clayton, Ward Morrisroe, Sheet and Tube men, Jerry Eberhart, Fran Murphy, Joe Phelan and Bob Garcar U.S. Steel boys. Sam Drake, Ted Davis, Joe Dannery, W.T. Grant Tycoons and of course our playground directors Ron (MPB) Galip, and Joe (Broken Arm) Shaughnessy.

Also a big welcome back for Frank Vericoll, Tony DiVito, Joe Frazzini, James (Duke) Verlotti, Joe Ihnat, Bill Good, Larry O'Neil, Bob Mahoney and "Chux" Dittmar.

Some of the kids you'll meet if you become a Booster are Carole Weaver, Mary Summers, Betty Mastadonna, Joan Konesky and "Lil" Lindquist, so fellas lets join up. One of the saddest sights on campus this year is Gay Wollitz and Joan Lantz without Carole Shubumper, Shutrump.

Some of the kids that need help as well as a pat on the back are Pat Ogy, editor of the Neon, Bill Bender, prexy of Student Council, Dick Selby, head of the Newmanites, and Chuck Dittmar, new RIL leader. Last but not least (I know which side my bread is buttered on) Bud Ross - big man up the JAMBAR office. These are all big jobs, so if you can help in anyway they'll be glad to hear from you.

My own personal thanks to all present members of the Boosters Club and double thanks to Father DeCrane and Rev. Linder for their support which enabled us to obtain the large membership we now have.

After the Bowling Green victory enthusiastic fans were raving about Ceremuga, Guido, Franko, Beck and company, comparing their brilliant running to that of Conzi, Lucci, Al Campana, Ralph Goldston and other Penguin stars of the past.

That's pretty fast company but those backs were sort of rambling, weren't they!

There's a familiar face in the Penguin line-up this fall, Paul Santillo, former all-city choice from Youngstown East. After his freshman year here, Santillo saw action against his former teammates while stationed at Quantico.

He was the spear head of the great line the Marines displayed when Eddie LeBaron and crew ran over the Penguins back in '50.

Paul Santillo

That was a neat two hitter Nick Granitto, erstwhile YoCo twirler and intra-mural star, fashioned for McKelveys in an early NABF tourney game. Nick saw only limited action with the store nine this summer. It seems Manager Ray Sweeney was loaded with lefties.

Ted vestal was switched from infield to catch with Home Club in the AA league this year. He was right up there among the leading hitters when play ended, too.

Fran McHugh was a slugging 3rd baseman, also with Home Club, before his draft call. Frank Raza performed capably at shortstop for Lansingville Sportsmen.

Dick Selby was a winning pitcher with the independent Boardman A.C. Jim Ellsworth handled the catching chores.

Bob Yuhas and Ed Poplava, basketball regulars are occupying sleeping quarters adjacent to the JAMBAR this year. Those boys really ought to be "dead" come late November, they get enough sleep.

YoCo Gains Second Win Nips Royals

Youngstown's resurgent Penguins, stymied for two quarters by an alert Scranton defense, roared back with two touchdowns in the second half to rack up their second win of the season against a rugged and well coached Scranton University eleven, in the Pennsylvania city last week.

Quarterbacks Dick Franko and Frank Beck engineered sustained scoring drives in the third and fourth periods with Franko crashing over from the three in the third quarter and Beck going over from the two in the final period to account for all the Penguin scoring.

Spending most of the first period deep in their own territory, the Penguins played heads up defensive football to keep the high voltage Scranton attack off balance and out of pay dirt. After the Royal's fleet halfback, Jim Lavery, who averaged better than 9 yards per try last year, racked up 11 yards the first time he got his hands on the pigskin, the Scranton attack bogged down almost completely.

Penguins Upset B-G's in Opener

by George Mitchell

Youngstown's revenge bent Penguins spotted the Bowling Green Falcons a quick first period touchdown and then stormed back to trounce the visitors 20-7 in the home opener.

With Frank Beck and Dick Franko, the touchdown twins, running the team and the dazzling play of freshman Joe Guido the Penguins looked like a high speed scoring unit. In the two quarterbacks, Youngstown displayed a fine pair of passers and two very dependable scat backs. Guido, the Leetonia flash hits the line like an express train and really rambles when he gets into the secondary.

Undefeated Penguins Face Frankies Tomorrow Night

The undefeated Penguins will take the field against a rugged band of St. Francis footballers tomorrow night at 8 p.m. The Frankies lost their opener to California State Teachers last week, after leading the Teachers for three quarters.

The St. Francis attack features the passing and deceptive ball handling of diminutive quarterback Joe Celini and a pair of rangy 190 pound flankers, making them a real air threat. Their main threat up the middle is a hard running 180 pound half back named So-song. They average close to 200 pounds on the line with their backs weighing in at about 175.

The Frankies have never beaten the Penguins, losing to them in '39, '51, and '52. They lost a decisive 35-0 ballgame to YoCo in Loretta last year. They may really be up for this one.

The Penguins have emerged from their two early season encounters with no more than the usual number of bumps and bruises. Lou "therock" Chiaro, 185 pound guard was helped off the field in the opener, with a pulled muscle, but was operating at full speed against Scranton. He'll definitely be ready for the Frankies.

Starts Regular Line-up

Dike Beede expects to start his regular line-up against St. Francis, with Frank Beck and Dick Franko again alternating at the quarterback slot. Beede's plan of attack has been to let one signal caller sit out for a while to spot weaknesses in the opposition's defense. It has been exceptionally effective.

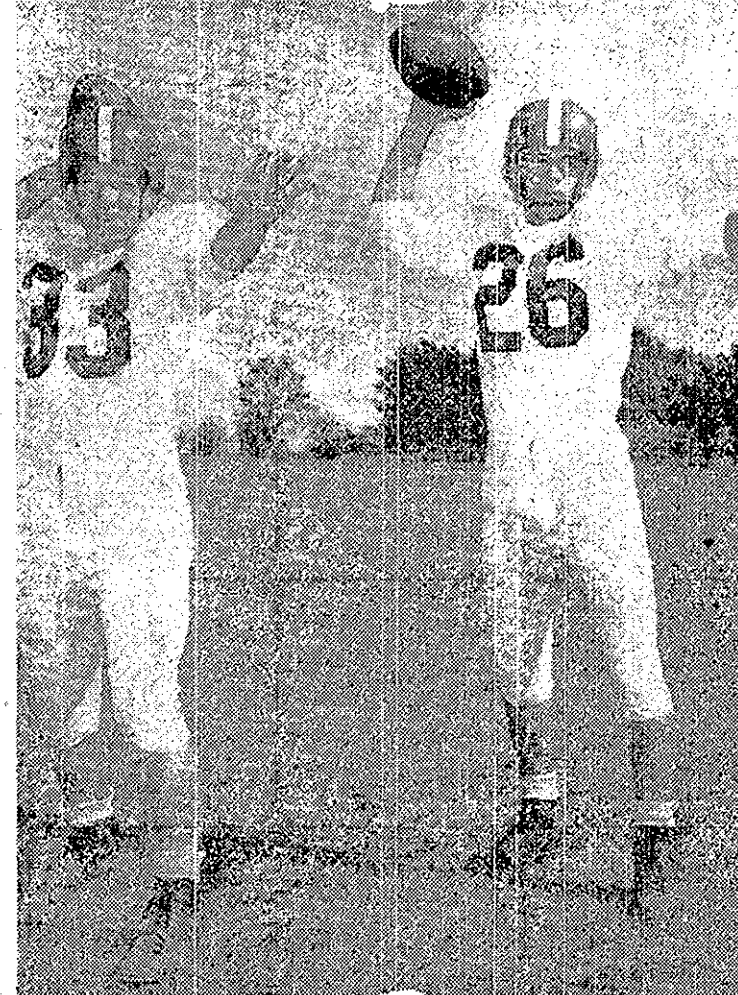

Comparative midget Sam Pagano, 176 pounds, still holds sway at the right tackle post. Usually dwarfed by the man facing him in the opponent's line, Sam really rocks them. He has a wealth of 200 pounders pressuring him for the regular spot, but they'll have to turn on a lot more to dislodge the Girard fixture.

Along with Chiaro and Pagano, Gar-car, Stafford, Lynn, Pezzulo and Ottaway round out the Penguin's line. Joe "Go Go" Guido, 165, and George "Choo Choo" Ceremuga, 175, hold sway at the halfback posts. George Sveda, Cincinnati transfer, will again get the call at fullback.

The great line play of the Youngstown forward wall stood out. The blocking on some of those runs was terrific. Offensively the guards handled the burden while the tackles were rock ribbed on defense.

Youngstown scored in each of the last three periods to clinch the Double Trouble - This pair of aerial artists will spell double trouble for St. Francis footballers when the Frankies face the locals tomorrow night at Rayen Stadium. YoCo Gains Second Win

Frank Beck, who replaced Franko midway of the first quarter couldn't find the mark with his aerials and a rugged defensive line, obviously benefiting from an excellent job of scouting, kept freshman Joe Go Go Guido looking wistfully at the line of scrimmage.

Fumbles and pass interceptions marred the action throughout the first half, and the teams walked off the field at half time in a scoreless deadlock.

Gene Brazil took the kick-off and raced back 22 yards to his own 34 as the second half opened. Scranton carried to the Penguin 39 and then it happened. Royal right halfback Joe Zack broke through the line and lateraled to his mercury heeled running mate as he got into the secondary. Lavery tightroped down the sidelines to score. The extra point was good and the Royals were out in front 7-0.

Penguins Come Back

The Penguins came right back following an exchange of punts. Starting on their own 32 Sveda, Ed Frazzini, in for Guido, and Franko moved to the Scranton 31. George Cerelega made a diving catch of a Franko pass for first down on the 22.

Another pass, Franko to Roger Ottaway coupled with an off-side penalty moved the ball to the 5. Franko went off tackle and into the end zone but the play was ruled dead on the three. After a pass attempt back fired, Franko went off tackle again for the score. Beck came into the ball game to attempt the conversion but the pass from center was high and the kick blocked.

Guido Breaks Away

Guido, the freshman flash haunted all night, finally broke away on a pass interception and sped 31 yards to the Scranton 38. Guido, Sveda, and Beck moved to the 13 and Guido powered his way to the two. Beck plowed through right guard for the touchdown. Youngstown lead 12-7 with six minutes remaining, as Guido missed the conversion.

After Scranton had picked up four first downs on a sustained drive Pezzulo and Gargar chased the royal quarterback, trying to pass, deep into his own territory. He got the ball away but the pass was ruled illegal and Youngstown took over on the Scranton 35. Beck, Guido and Nowgowski moved the ball to the four as the gun sounded.

It was a team victory, with Gargar, Chairo, Stafford, and Pagano featuring in the center of the line and the entire backfield picking up yardage in the second half.

verdict. The first touchdown came when Tony Cougras, freshman from Campbell, got in behind the defense and Beck hit him with a pass in the end zone. The ball almost fell incomplete as the receiver juggled it before finally hauling it in.

In the third period the Penguins got a touchdown when Franko went back to pass and was rushed. The elusive quarterback ran to the right then cut along the side line and raced 58 yards for a score.

The final tally came on a brilliant scoring drive engineered by Frank Beck and featuring the high stepping of Joe Guido. Beck ran and passed the Penguins deep into Falcon territory and the Leetonia freshman raced the final distance for the touchdown.

Plans to Enlarge Band

Enlargement of the Youngstown College marching band is one of many projects undertaken by the YoCo Boosters. The project was outlined by Dr. E.B. Smith, faculty advisor at a recent meeting.

Any student who wants to play with the band will be excused from physical education classes this semester. The marching band is only active for two months of the football season. "Most musicians would rather play in a band than take calisthenics," Dr. Smith says.

Ed "Nogo" Nogowski seems like the logical first string fullback everytime the Penguins head for Camp Pitch. Always a defensive standout, a speedster usually beats him out for the regular offensive post. Maybe with the abolition of two platoons this will be his year. The husky 190 pounder broke through against the B-G's a couple of times and was plenty rough to bring down.

Joe Guido, freshman flash, played his high school football at Leetonia under Bobby Gibson, former Youngstown passing great. Gibson has since transferred from the Leetonia school to East Liverpool. His squad opened with a victory over Youngstown South.

Guiding the North High Bulldogs in their opening loss to Rayen was Charley Bush, basketball star in the Gergley, Christian era. Charley took over the squad, when Jack Cramb, another YoCo alumnus became ill.

Look for recent enrollee John Nocera, North High graduate, to break into the Penguin line-up soon. Nocera is rugged and fast, he was a defensive All-City choice last year.
