HURRY-UP AND WAIT. Even though it's a week into the quarter the line-up for parking spaces goes on. More cars than parking spaces have been a common sight on campus for the past few years. To avoid the rush for spaces you have several alternatives; park at the Republic Steel lot, get to school early, or get a horse.

Celeste asks students to go beyond voting

Lt. Governor Richard Celeste appeared on campus to give a number of speeches to different classrooms yesterday as part of the Participation '76 project being co-ordinated out of Columbus.

Beginning with questions to the audience Celeste ascertained the number of students who were registered and to what extent they plan to participate in the upcoming elections.

He then described the election process to the students pointing out that voting was only one of the many ways that students could effectively work toward change in our society.

"America is one of the few countries founded on the premise that change can be made in the government by each person working for it," stated Celeste. "In India if you would ask whether anyone could effect change, less than one in fifty would raise their hand." (Celeste served as an assistant to Chester Boules when he was Ambassador to India and spent four years there.)

Celeste also had lunch with the YSU President John Coffelt, Mike Braun, editor of The Jambar, George Glaros, the president of student government and Ann Isroff vice-chairperson of the board of trustees. They discussed the future of state government and the university.

He closed his day on campus by meeting with interested students in the lounge in Kilcawley.

This was the official kick-off of the voter registration drive being sponsored by The Jambar and Student Government. Tables will be set up in the multi-purpose room from 11-2 p.m. Tuesday thru Thursday for those who wish to register.

Rameo receives 1st A.J. Shipka annual scholarship

Joseph J. Rameo, 1976 Chaney High School graduate, is the first recipient of the Albert J. Shipka Memorial Scholarship at Youngstown State University.

Rameo, a YSU freshman, will receive $1000 a year for four years of study at YSU. At Chaney he was a member of the National Honor Society and Spanish club.

The Shipka scholarship will be awarded annually to a student of high academic standing who is himself a member or whose parents or guardians are members

Band absent at games; has no practice area

Lack of adequate practice facilities was cited as the major reason for the absence of a marching band at YSU football games this year.

Donald W. Byo, acting chairperson of the music department, speaking to Student Council at its meeting Monday afternoon emphasized that lack of money was not a major reason for not maintaining the marching band. He stated that lack of a good, safe practice area was of overriding importance. The only area currently available for practice is Harrison field in Smokey Hollow.

Robert E. Fleming, assistant professor of music, also addressed the problem by saying that the practice field is "100 yards of broken bottles" and that it had become necessary in the past to have someone guard equipment during the practice.

In other Council business, James Senary's chairman's report listed the following committee chairman appointments: Constitution and By-Laws, Bill Yeaton; Finance (next fiscal period), Cam Cotelesse; Elections, Liz Strouss; Information Center, Jennifer Morris; Activities and Education, Mario Masaro; Finance (this fiscal period), Barb Gazdik; Band, Chris Andonian; Nominations, Marc Stec; Special Projects, Jeff Gwin; Publicity, Mary Kay Senary.

Ohio Lieutenant Governor Richard Celeste and Sarah Taft, daughter of Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio, spoke to Council on the University voter registration drive. Both praised the Council for its efforts in the drive. Taft stressed the necessity for young people of college age to participate in government.

Council heard Ralph Valentino of the Ski Club ask for help in obtaining $770 to finance busses so that members could travel to the Boston Mills ski area. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee by Senary.

Devon Smith was made an honorary member of YSU Student Council during the meeting. Smith is listed in the Guinness Book of World Records for a record 300,000 miles of hitchhiking. He spoke on his travels and his current projects for the Bicentennial, which are obtaining signatures for a birthday card to the country (he presently has 21,132 signatures) and molding a brass bell weighing three tons. Both will be presented to the White House.

Registration
Voter registration will be held this Tuesday through Thursday in the multi-purpose room of Kilcawley Center.

Why Duzzn't They Win?

'Duzzers Bruisers' An appropriate name or a misnomer? In view of the recent results of their games I'd say it was a misnomer. Whatever happened to that NCAA finalist team that almost went all the way? Why did they go only 5-4 last year? It seems rather funny for a team and coaching staff who desperately want (or so it seems) a new stadium and facilities to continue doing so badly. When Coach Dempsey took over as head coach for the Penguins he inherited a low morale team and built them into contenders. The present coaching staff seems to have inherited a contender and have failed to produce any good results. I'm sure there are some fine players on the present team, Jeff Fitzpatrick, Tom Rice, Tony Bond to mention a few (although some of the players should learn not to let success go to their heads... when they get it, that is) and that an ability to shift offenses and add defenses to meet the other teams strategy should be a primary part of any coach's playbook. If the coaching staff thinks the way to get a stadium built is to lose all of their games, then they have another think coming. Their efforts in the last few games haven't exactly endeared them to the campus community. Maybe they should change their name to 'Duzzers Bruised'.

Register

As you may or may not know today and tomorrow voter registration will take place on campus. If you have any interest at all with what goes on in this country you should register (if you aren't already). Nobody will come and lead you by the hand and make you sign-up, you have to do it yourself. All you have to do is utilize all those nice things you learned in grade school, like reading and writing, and hustle your body over to the Kilcawley arcade and put your John Hancock on a registration form. You don't have to vote for a candidate from either major party; if you want you can vote for one of the smaller parties or just write in a candidate (Disco Duck or Howdy Doody would both be good choices). At any rate the most important thing is that you do register while it still remains your prerogative if you don't vote, then you shouldn't complain of the outcome.

Feedback

Saddened by YSU's 'progress'

To the Editor of the Jambar:

I wonder if anyone has taken notice of the venerable brick house ('President's House') between Butler Museum and Maag Library. Up until several weeks ago it has been a picturesque accent to that part of the campus. It has been well-kept, decked by gardens and a manicured lawn and has helped add the character of an established university to our comparably young one.

Recently, though, something ominous has been happening to it. Shrubs disappeared, the interior was stripped and the outside of it has been hacked-at and gouged.

And one Saturday afternoon (August 14) I was stricken with the sight of a pile of rubble where the house had been standing solidly the night before.

It has been rumored that a bridge is to be built over Wick Avenue and that 'President's House' was in the way. Just when this bridge (or whatever) is destined to materialize is something to ponder. And so is the ugly scar the house's absence has created in the meantime.

I am only one student and my transient presence makes my voice tiny in this hurricane of "progress". I am sure this is but a taste of the probable future of all the older buildings on our campus.

Personally this whole blind eradication of the past, by YSU, is a sickening waste.

Many entries in YSU Homecoming parade; Saturday's events are being finalized

With almost 40 floats or decorated cars already entered, this year's Homecoming parade promises to be the biggest in YSU history. The 1976 Homecoming, themed 'Good Vibrations', will be held October 7, 8, and 9.

Among the many scheduled events for the weekend is the "Anything Goes" parade. It will begin its route to Rayen Stadium from Bryson St. Saturday, Oct. 9, at 11:30 a.m. Numerous campus organizations will be represented, as well as the Youngstown Fire Dept., Y.B.M., and the 'Hirsch Association'. Adding to the diversity of decorated floats will be local bands and Barber Shop Singers.

Parade Route

The parade will go west on Spring St. and north on Elm St. when it departs from Bryson St., and will continue to travel around Wick Park via Park Ave., Fifth Ave., and Broadway, where it will again go north on Elm St. to Bonita. At this point, the parade will disband for the YSU/Saginaw Valley, Mich. game at 1 p.m.

Cash prizes

Entries in the parade will be judged on theme, workmanship, and originality. Prizes of $150, $75, and $50 will be awarded to the top three floats, and for the best decorated cars, $75, $50, and $25. The winners will be announced at half-time, at which time they will take part in the activities.

Applications available

Applications to participate in the parade are still available at the Student Activities Office. The deadline is September 29.

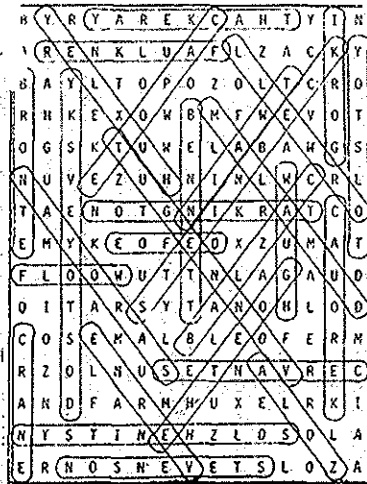

An aftergame party will be held in Kilcawley Snack Bar at 4 p.m. The Wakefield Creek Band will provide entertainment.

Registration Drive held in Kilcawley Center

Voter registration will be held this Tuesday through Thursday in the multi-purpose room of Kilcawley Center.

In order to attract students to register a complete program has been arranged by the joint cooperation of the Jambar and student government.

The program begins on Monday featuring speeches by Lt. Gov. Richard Celeste at various points on campus, and a speech by Sarah Taft, daughter of Ohio Senator Robert Taft.

Any student living within Mahoning County is allowed to register, and will be permitted to vote in this upcoming election.

Bands will perform on the specific dates. The action will begin on Tuesday as the Bleeker Street Band performs. At 12:30 there will be speakers on voter registration, beginning on Tuesday with Bob Spencer, sixth ward councilman, and Emanuel Catsoules, president of council. Different programs are planned for each day.

Students may apply for Army ROTC scholarships now

Local high school seniors interested in four-year Army ROTC scholarships must request application packets by Nov. 15, according to Lt. Col. David H. Longacre, professor of military science at YSU.

Lt. Col. Longacre explained that completed applications have to be submitted prior to Dec. 15.

Army ROTC scholarships pay for all tuition, textbooks, laboratory and educational fees during four years of study at any one of more than 280 colleges and universities offering Army ROTC. Both male and female students are eligible for these scholarships.

"This is one of the best scholarship programs available in the nation today," noted Longacre. "Scholarship students (Cont on page 12)"

Candidate Considerations

'Neither the President nor Jimmy won, the real winner was the American people.'

The above statement was an analysis of the first debate by Governor Carter's press secretary during the twenty-seven minute loss of sound fiasco at the end of the debate. It is also one of the better and more accurate statements to come from any review of the debates.

Although it is true that much of the material dispersed throughout the debates (statistical figures, projections, etc.) went over the heads of the average American, this writer included (I've never been much good at figures in the millions); there were ~~clear~~ and pointed differences between the candidates and these differences were revealed to a voting audience. The audience was thus given... a clear impression for which to make a choice.

While the debates did drag at points, the viewing audience was also given a more exact view of the candidates themselves. For the Governor, he appeared to be clearer and precise on the issues than he had before ~~and~~ the President destroyed the 'Chevy Chase' bumbling image that he has been stuck with for the past few months.

The destruction of that image may have had a more dramatic effect than any other that was made during the debate. Ford, who most people felt would be eaten alive by Carter, surprised them by showing that he is a established politician more than able to hold his own in a debate. The shock value of this point may have given Ford the slight edge in this debate, a value that will be leveled with the next debate as people are now aware of his ability.

Scoring ten points per debate, I gave President Ford 5.1 points and Carter 4.9 points, and the American people a whopping ten points for being given a clear choice.

Administrative changes highlight recent summer quarter at YSU

The summer quarter students saw several major changes in administration, students involved in the drug arrests spring quarter plead guilty to reduced charges, a seven-foot diagonal screen installed in Kilcawley, and a new dental lab built.

This monthly update presents the major happenings.

JUNE

William G. Mittler, a graduate of YSU, was appointed by Governor Rhodes to a nine-year term on the Board of Trustees for YSU. Mittler, advertising manager of The Vindicator, replaces another Vindicator Board member, William Brown.

A new chairperson and vice-chairperson were named to the Board. Ann Isroff, chairperson for the last two years, was named vice-chairperson and Carl Dennison of Butler, Wick and Co., was named the new chairperson. Mr. Frank Ellis, an instructor in the physics department, retired at the end of the first summer term. Ellis had taught at YSU for the past 31 years.

The Student Discipline Board heard charges on June 24 and 25 against two students involved in the theft and damage to shrubs belonging to the campus core landscaping company.

The first student was found guilty of possession and/or theft of six shrubs. He was placed on Disciplinary Probation until graduation and was required to work 120 hours without pay for the Landscaping Department.

The second student, who was alleged to have thrown a shrub from the fifth floor lounge window of Kilcawley to the roof of the breezeway, was found guilty of violating residence hall regulations and was suspended for three academic quarters.

Another student involved in the theft was placed on disciplinary probation for one calendar year and required to work forty hours for the landscaping department.

The five students involved in the spring quarter's drug arrests entered guilty pleas to reduced charges in Youngstown's Municipal Court on May 20. The original charges all involved the sales of hallucinogens and/or amphetamines. The charges were reduced to sales of non-barbituates or to misdemeanors: possession of hallucinogens (both marijuana and LSD). All charged with possession were given suspended jail sentences and one year's probation.

According to a Federal Environment Protection Agency (EPA) report obtained by the Jambar, YSU was found negligent in the use of the pesticide Dasanit on campus two years ago. The report contradicted a statement made by Henry Garano, superintendent of YSU's landscaping in the May 28th issue of the Jambar.

The report ended with a strong warning, directed to Garano, citing the EPA's belief that he had violated a section of the US Code 'by using a registered pesticide in a manner inconsistent with its labeling.'

A summary report filed by Carl J. Erickson, Use Investigator for the EPA, cited that Garano had purchased the Dasanit to control a turf pest known as nematodes despite the fact that no one had recommended that any pest treatment was necessary.

Cliff Stoudt, the 6'5" All-American candidate at the quarterback slot, was named captain of the 1976 Penguin football team by a substantial margin.

A strong pro prospect, Stoudt has completed 49.5 percent of his passes the past two seasons (143-289) for 2,166 yards and an overall team record of 13-6.

Dr. Taylor Alderman was appointed associate vice-president for academic affairs at YSU. In his new position, Alderman works directly under Dr. Earl E. Edgar, vice-president for academic affairs in the administration of the seven colleges which comprise YSU.

Alderman is responsible for personnel policies of full service faculty and unclassified administrative employees in academic areas. He serves as a liaison with the collective bargaining agent for the faculty, including contract negotiations and administrative matters. His duties will also include the administration of the media center, the library, the department of black studies, and the office of continuing education and public service.

I Am a Camera written by John Van Druten was presented by YSU's Spotlight Theatre in Stambaugh Auditorium, July 22-31. Starring in the production were Jimmy Joe Ennis, Janet Horvath, Alexandra Vansuch, Robert Debuc, Dennis Pallente, Terry Wilkes and Gemma Pavel.

Phillip Rogers, former assistant to Nick Zeonelli the director of YSU campus development was named director of the University's classified civil service personnel.

Rogers is responsible for personnel administration of classified civil service employees and works under Joseph Rook, vice-president for financial affairs.

Guess who's paying the Narc squad?

(CPS)—Arrests for drug offenses are everyday news. But New Mexico State University (NMSU) in Las Cruces has a unique program for dealing with student offenders.

The university is paying the city's narcotics squad $11,000 for the 1976-77 fiscal year. A university official said, however, that this does not give the city police license to make campus drug raids. The squad's total budget is $82,815.80.

According to a July issue of the NMSU student newspaper, the school is in contract with the city squad because it has no narcotics squad of its own. The university began the joint program with the city and county in 1974, the official said.

After the 71 day journey the men flew back to Youngstown Airport and were welcomed home by a crowd of friends and relatives. The canoers were awarded trophies by their families and were honored at ceremonies both at the airport and in Poland, Ohio where all six students reside.

On July 1, Dr. James C. Morrison was appointed chairperson of the psychology department. Morrison, who was appointed by Dr. John Coffelt, has been teaching at YSU since 1970.

Kevin Fahey has succeeded Michele Mousseau as Kilcawley Center's new programming director. Fahey comes from the University of Hartford where he was Program Coordinator.

Fahey seeks to "get students involved as much as possible and make the center a learning experience."

Sarah Taft encourages student involvement through registration

by Debbie Vivalo and Molly Gerchak,

"I am all for the 18 year old vote, and totally support it." stated Sarah Taft, daughter of Senator Taft of Ohio. Ms. Taft came to the YSU campus to help out and to speak on the voters registration.

Sarah Taft comes from a family of politically oriented people. She decided to make a career of politics because it gives her the most options and she sees the need for involvement in politics. Ms. Taft graduated this year with honors from Columbia Law School. She is presently living in New York City with her two children and is working on her father's campaign.

Her main concern is with the need for young voters and has high hopes of getting more young people involved in political campaigns. She feels that there is a necessity in making young people more aware and more alert on what is going on in politics. She stressed the right to communicate by voting. "We all have the right to vote. One vote really does make a difference."

She also feels that a political candidate has the responsibility of conveying his message to the people. After being elected, he must remain in contact with his constituents. She thinks something should be done about funding for those running for office.

A lawyer herself, Ms. Taft said the tax laws in our society are very complicated. "Drafting of legislation is so difficult. It leaves a lot to be desired. Tax loopholes come from people saying things, but not getting their point across."

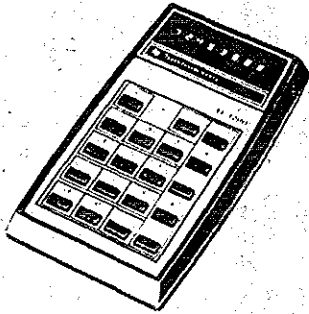

Ms. Taft is also in total support of the Women's Liberation Movement. She belongs to the Women's Law Group at Columbia University and feels a strong need for Penquins lose again ; W. Illinois is next foe

by John Creer

YSU suffered its third consecutive setback of the gridiron season, a humiliating 24-3 loss to Akron, before a sparse turnout of 4,846 on Saturday afternoon at Rayen Stadium.

A campaign that was full of sweet optimism and confidence only a few weeks ago has turned sour for head coach Bill Narduzzi's squad.

Akron's ball control, a lack of rushing punch and a shoddy pass defense were the primary factors in YSU's demise.

The Zips opened the game's scoring at the 5:50 mark of the first quarter when quarterback Marty Bezbatchenko scrambled through a wave of arm-tackles to paydirt from the YSU four-yard line. Jim Embrick added the extra point as the Akron march to victory began.

Following the Akron score, YSU began their lone scoring drive of the afternoon. After marching from their own 24-yard line, the Penguins were stymied by a stubborn Zip defense and had to settle for a 27-yard field goal off the toe of freshman Carey Orosz.

With four minutes gone in the second quarter a 52-yard Akron drive culminated on a 29-yard touchdown sprint by fullback Dan Simon. Embrick again added the extra point and only minutes later drilled a 42-yard field goal as Akron built an insurmountable 17-3 lead.

Akron's final scoring effort of the first half was thwarted on an interception by Penguin safety Joe Bell, who made a fine 34-yard return in what was one of the few bright spots of the opening half.

The only score of the final half occurred with six minutes left in the third stanza as the opposition's halfback Billy Mills slipped in for a five-yard touchdown.

Final statistics of the game bear out the ineptness of YSU and the superiority of Akron. The Zips held a commanding advantage in total yards (326-248) and also had a decisive (247-86) rushing advantage.

Highly touted YSU quarterback Cliff Stoudt, considered a pre-season bonafide All-American candidate, improved from earlier performances but has still not displayed the talent of the past two seasons. Stoudt hit on 14 of 26 passing attempts for 143 yards but rushed for only 31 yards in 21 carries.

Despite the defeat the fine play of offensive end Jim Ferranti, defensive linebacker Jeff Fitzpatrick and punter Chuck Haynali bear mention.

Ferranti caught seven aerials for 93 yards and narrowly missed a touchdown grab which perhaps would have affected the outcome of the game. As the Penguins leading tackler, Fitzpatrick excelled in a losing effort. Freshman punter Haynali was called on six times and booted for a fine 36.8 average.

YSU is now stumbling through what was once a very optimistic season. However, seven games do remain on the schedule and nobody in the Penguin quarters has given up. Unfortunately Western Illinois is next on the YSU agenda...and they are currently ranked tenth in the country in small college polls and possess some of the best Division II players in the entire nation.

Presidential Preference Poll
If you would like to take part in a Jambar Presidential Preference Poll just fill out the following questionnaire and drop in the box by the candy counter in the Kilcawley Student Center.
This not an official poll only a guide to see where YSU students stand in terms of candidate preference.

Some of our classrooms aren't classrooms.

Military science courses are courses in leadership, management and military procedure. You'll learn how to manage people, to handle money and equipment. But you'll get more than just the classroom theory. You'll experience it.

So when you study map reading and land navigation, be ready to get your boots dirty in activities like rappelling, orienteering or river-rafting. When you study communications, plan on communicating. And when you study weapons, expect to qualify at the rifle range.

Then, when you decide to enter advanced ROTC courses as a junior, plan on applying everything you've learned at a six-week summer leadership camp.

Military science courses offer you challenges. Physical as well as mental. To prepare you for leadership responsibility as an Army officer when you graduate.

If that's the kind of challenge and experience you're looking for, you're the kind of student we're looking for.

ARMY ROTC. LEARN WHAT IT TAKES TO LEAD.
