Indian Students Arrive; Begin Orientation

The chill crispness of a typical November morning greeted fifteen excited "In Step" students as they alighted from the special P&L.E. coach which brought them here from Pittsburgh.

In the din of excitement, one could see and hear flash bulbs popping, newspaper reporters questions, the last minute rush back into the coach to procure something that had been left behind, and the friendly salutations being shouted by the In Step students who were going on to Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland.

On hand to extend the official welcome of the University were Dean Joseph E. Smith, Dean of Men, John P. Gillespie, Dr. John W. Bars, and Registrar Philip P. Buchanan. Don Seely, president of Student Council, and Shahwan Khourg, International Student Organization were present on the behalf of the student body.

In Step Students Are Pleased.

One of the In Step students was overheard telling one of the greeter's "We are so glad to be here in your city and to study at your (Continued on Page 3)

Many exciting programs are being planned for the coming year by Hugh Houlton, Program Chairman. See you at RIL - a good New Year's resolution.

Christmas—Too Materialistic

By Dave Poole

What will this Yuletide Season hold for you? Keeping Christ in Christmas has gotten to be a stereotyped line that we see every Christmas. There have been cries of anguish sent up by impractical writers over the commercialization of a day which is sacred and holy. In defense of that so called materialistic perversion, one could ask this question. How can we separate the spiritual from the material? Have we become so Marxian in our thinking that economic determinism is represented in the gifts which we give, instead of a token of the love which Christ taught?

As all beliefs about religion are

Hostess for this year's Snowflake Frolic are: Judy Barret, Marcie Potts, Anna Marie Shawn, and Florine Fish. Absent from the picture are Amy Badal and Theresa Capuzzello.

Tau Omega Receives Campus Recognition

The group has been placed on probation by I.F.C. for one year, but they will have a booth at the I.F.C. Sweetheart Ball and participate in formal rushing in February.

Among Tau Omega's future plans are a Christmas Turkey Raffle, a Christmas Tree sale, and the establishment of a one year stipend for an incoming freshman.

Let's Keep Christmas Merry

After they put the blaze out, firemen counted 12 dead -- 10 of them children ... The time? ... Christmas, 1954 -- the worst on record when measured in terms of sudden death from traffic accidents, fires, falls, drownings, and other miscellaneous mishaps.

In all, 504 persons that Christmas week-end died as a result of accidents. And 60 of them were fire's victims. A week-end later, New Year's 1955, 340 more met sudden death, this time 26 by fire.

And when fire was the cause, how had it occurred? Why? Was it the gayly-lighted Christmas tree? Defective wiring? A lighted cigarette carelessly discarded? It could have been any one of these causes or one of many others as well. But when all are reduced to a common denominator, the cause is carelessness. And this can be avoided.

Take the Christmas tree, for instance. It's a potential fire hazard and caution should be taken in its selection, placement in the home, and maintenance. A small one should be chosen. There will be 30 million on the market. Keep it outdoors until a few days before setting up. During that time occasionally throw water over it. This will keep it moist and fresh.

When you bring the tree inside, cut the butt slantwise to open the pores, then stand it in a tub of water. Be wary of chemicals or other substances sold for "fireproofing" trees. In some cases this process is ineffective. In placing the tree, it's best to avoid "hot spots" such as those near the fireplace, stove, television set, radiator, or electric bulbs.

Here are some other suggestions:

If decorations are used about the house, do not permit them to be around or near to chairs and other places where people may smoke. It is preferable to have them up near the ceiling, well above the head of anyone standing up. Keep plenty of ash trays about the house during the holiday season. If lights are desired in windows, never use candles. Keep curtains and other flammable material pulled back at least six inches from any electric light.

Use non-flammable decorations of glass or metal, and "fireproof" snow in decorating your tree for Christmas. After you have opened your Christmas presents, remove all the gift wrappings and packing materials from your living room and dispose of them.

Some of the 60 who died last Christmas didn't know.

Basketball--Victory And Defeat

We of Youngstown University have always been proud of our accomplishments, both scholastically and in competitive sports. It has become part of our heritage and tradition to constantly strive for the top position, but also to graciously accept defeat.

Last year the University was distinctly honored in having a basketball team that spread the fame of Youngstown University across this broad nation, into Kansas. There the team fought bravely, and reached the semi-finals before being stopped. For their fine sportsmanship and ability, the boys were praised by the gathering there, which represented every section of the country.

Expectations are high for this year's squad. It is not unnatural that we feel we can go through an entire season undefeated, and then go on to sweep the national title. On paper it looks easy. But hopes aren't strong enough to defend against a 3 on 2 break, or grab a rebound from a 6 foot 6 giant. Ability and experience are most important ingredients in the victory pie. Fortunately we have both of these by the heaping cups-ful.

But, on any given day defeat is possible. We pray that this will not happen to us, and that we can go on to win the national title. We have confidence in Coach Dom Rosselli and his band of anxious ball players.

By attendance at ball games and by our expressed opinions we can show the team that we are ready to cheer in victory and console in defeat.

In regard to last issue's question, it was felt that the student body generally wanted more name bands for Student Council sponsored dances. Each full time student pays $5 per semester for student activities. What percentage of this $5 do you feel should be spent on name bands, bearing in mind all the other benefits we receive through this fee? Explain.

Fran Minghetti

Since most students feel that a "name band" adds class to a dance, I think that perhaps 33% or 1/3 of the $5 should be used. As it stands now, approximately 20% is used for name bands. After looking over the Student Council budget, it can be seen that approximately $8,000 is kept on reserve annually. To make up the difference between the money required and the money now allotted, it is suggested that the amount going into the reserve fund be increased by 13%.

Fred Seminara

I've heard the question asked on campus, why doesn't the school help Student Council with the problem of financing big dances for some of our more important dances? I imagine that the school has all it can handle meeting its growing needs, which leaves us with our student fee to work with.

I feel that the expenses for some of the minor benefits and activities could be cut down, or done away with, making it then possible to improve the more important dances such as, Homecoming, May Day dance and the Junior prom.

Sally Fisher

As a freshman, I am not familiar with the percentages derived from student activity fees for Student Council sponsored functions. In the past, name bands have entertained at the Snowflake Frolic and May Day dances. Most students do want more name bands at social functions, but we must realize the expense involved.

I think it would be nice not only for students, but also for alumni if we could have a well-known orchestra at our annual Homecoming Dance.

If Student Council could cut expenses on other projects, then perhaps we could afford one or two more name bands.

Mel Klinger

Since it is generally agreed that we need more name bands here at the university, it seems that more money should be allocated for this purpose. Since I don't know how much of the $5 is spent for Student Council activities, I wouldn't know what to recommend. However, if more money is allocated, some activity will suffer.

ENGINEER'S ANGLES

By Two Engineers

Here we come again from the land of ozone, burnt out voltmeters, and wrecked hydraulic lift equipment.

If you notice an engineer by the name of JONES walking around the halls in a barrel you can cease wondering what happened to him.

The reason is that at the O.S. P.E. smoker, he was on the short end of many hands of cards. Well maybe next year you can win your clothes back. We understand that quite a few fellows were seen stumbling over the door knobs at the legion hall.

Talking about the luck of certain people, we might as well say something about one of our professors winning a turkey in a raffle. We believe that, actually it's not a turkey at all but the pigeon he was chasing around his room one day earlier in the semester.

The news just came in from the world of mechanicals that all the students in D'ISA's vibrations class are going into business and opening a banana stand on the corner of Wick and Rayen. Just watch their banana stand.

Still with the mechanicals, we have finally figured out what KLUCHER and RICHARDS are building for their thesis. It is a fog producing machine to give this humble abode the atmosphere of ole England. It seems that the dean was homesick. I always believed that those two sterling inventors were in a fog.

Now just a word about the cleanliness of the Engineering school. How about you guys helping to keep cigarette butts, waste paper and the like off of the floor? It would save the cleaning lady a lot of work and it sure would look a lot better. We have trash cans and ash trays for the disposal of these articles, so let's use them.

The joke now follows very closely. What was Venus De Milo's favorite book? Farewell to Arms.

Wiretapping

With the editor breathing down our necks and the Zanzibar closed for the evening it seems like time to under take the writing of our biweekly tidbits from the campuses across the country.

First to the University of Michigan where we find they have some 18,000 odd bicycles registered. They have a problem very similar to our own. Instead of getting tickets for parking automobiles illegally, they receive the little gems for illegal bike parking and for riding in forbidden areas. Tickets range from $1.00 to $5.00. So you can see no matter where you go, some city is always trying to increase its treasury from those wealthy college students.

Washington State College.

Swedish exchange student, Ingrid Oretop, was elected homecoming queen. She says she likes the old 48 very much except for our dating customs. In Sweden she says when a boy asks a girl to go out, he is more interested in her than when same is done in U.S. Girls in Sweden go to dances stag. This, Ingrid feels, is a better system since you never dance more than twice with any one boy. She says at least you can't get stuck with a bad dancer for the evening.

Colorado U.

A parent of a Colorado student sent a poem to the local campus paper concerning a custom of Colorado students being "lavaliered." Best we explain lavaliered; it means wearing a gold pendant of the boys fraternity lehevson, a small gold chain around the neck. Now on to the poem.

The thing has happened that we feared
Our daughter has been Lavaliered
Though warned of pins and panty-raids
And senior men and serenades,
And Timer Town and three-two beer.
We weren't warned of lavalier!
Though the above presented quotes,
We've guessed what lavalier connates.
O Professors, O Deans, O Seers.
Protect our girls from lavaliers.

Texas University.

Texas has come up with a solution to the problem when a girl and boy leave the "just dating" status but have not yet gotten pinned of what to call their status. They call it "stuffed". This consists of exchanging stuffed animals with one another, and thus satisfying this stage of their relationship.

The editor is tugging at our paper for the press is beginning to roll but we have time for one more little bit.

A married couple had a class together and on a bright sunny day recently, both raised their hands to answer a question of the professor. The prof. said, "Ladies first."

But the wife answered, "Let my husband be first, he's the head of our house."

"I guess you have the last word," joked the prof.

"No," answered the husband, "I have the last word. It's 'Yes, dear.'"

Well Mickey is now pounding on the table and snatching out handfuls of his already sparse hair, so we must say adios for now. See you next issue unless we're replaced.

PAN-HELLENIC

This Pan-Hellenic column has been added to the Greek Section of the JAMBAR to keep all Greek members aware of the happenings of Pan-Hel.

First on the agenda, is the annual presentation of the silver tray to the sorority with the highest point average for the year. The purpose of this presentation is to inspire all sororities on campus to stress scholarship among their members. Hats off to the Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority for winning the '56-'57 tray. Good work, Beta's!

Men, take special note. Pan-Hel is thinking of sponsoring that ever popular dance, "Gold Digger's Ball" or girl ask boy affair. This dance is popular at all Eastern colleges and is known to be a big success. We'll let you know the outcome of this in a later issue.

At the last meeting of Pan-Hel, Nov. 14, we were very honored to have as a special guest, Mrs. Robertson Page, National Pan-Hellenic Council Delegate of Tri Sigma Sorority. The attractive Mrs. Page gave us worthy advice concerning many Pan-Hellenic problems.

SIGMA DELTA BETA

The brothers wish to extend a cordial welcome to the new Sig Delt Pledges who started pledging last week. They are Bill Horne, Noel Soos, Paul Michael, Ray Biles, Frank Guarnieri, and Charles Shabla. Good luck, Men!

A wonderful party was held Nov. 22 with the Tau Kappa Nu sorority at the home of Arlene Borghetti. Toni Pagley stole the show, singing a few of her "latest recordings." Many thanks to the girls for the swell party and brother Ted Seferiadis who was chairman.

EVERYBODY IS INVITED to attend the 12th Annual SIG Delt Christmas Dance to be held on Christmas Night, Dec. 25, at beautiful Idora Park. Artie Arnell's popular orchestra with lovely Marlene Mann will be featured. Hostesses will be Angie Stizza, A O Pi, Toni Carlomango, Tri-Sigs, Barb Priore, Beta Sigs, Jazy Zempko, Chi Delt, and June Gerlach, Phi Mu.

Tickets can be purchased on the fraternity block, or from any Sig Delt. Congratulations to Ange Russo and John Hernandez, who are Chairmen, for their good work. See you ALL on Christmas Night!

Ed Hudick, the latest tycoon, was shook up while bowling last Sunday by a certain femme from Campbell Hill. Having her around really gave him some get up and go.

Congratulations to Zeta Phi Eta on winning the IFC football tournament, and to the Kappa Sigs who gave a good fight for second.

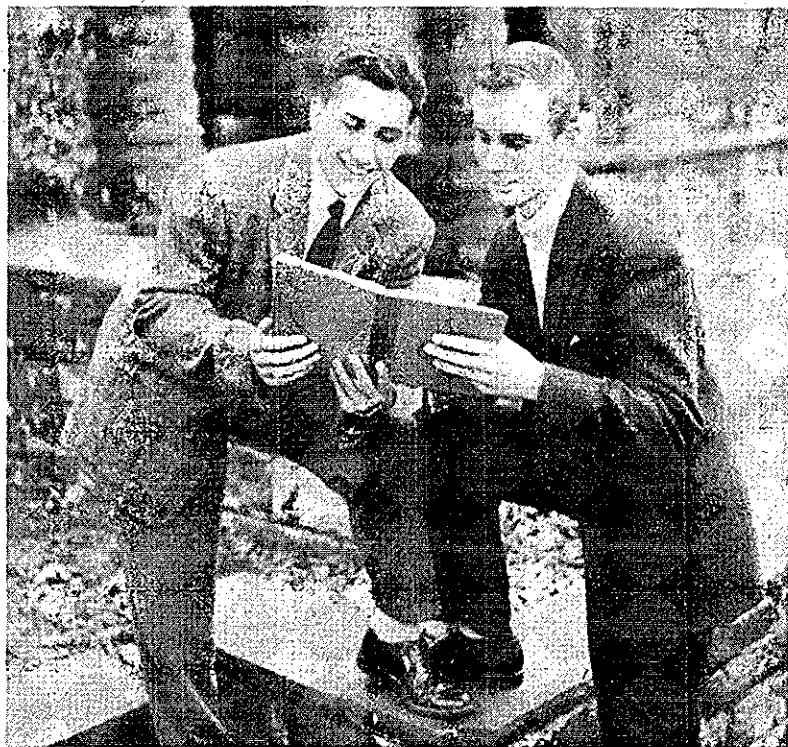

In the don't-forget-to-mention department this week ... John Esposito, Gene Lupi, Dom Marino, and TP (Tony Pannazzo.) These men deserve much praise.

Well that is it for now, but the Sig Delt will see you at the Snowflake Frolic and the Christmas Dance. Happy vacation.

to make their 11th Annual Harvest Moon Dance such a great success. Miss Betty Lou Storey is the Sweetheart of Theta Chi for 1957-58. Her attendants were Miss Judi Appelman and Miss Judy Millard.

The Brothers wish to thank Jim Trimble and Bill Beeman for the wonderful job they did on the dance. Many thanks to all the fraternities who contributed their songs at intermission.

Congratulations to Brother Bob Hope and Nancy Green, and Bill Beeman and Cookie Korody on their recent engagements.

Good luck, Karl Mogg!

Brother Bill Carnie is the new Senior Class President. Congratulations, Brother.

PHI MU

Amy Bodal and Mary Lou Moss were hardly back from their weekend in Cincinnati when Amy thought up a different way to get out of classes. She went to the hospital. But Amy, why pick the Thanksgiving holidays, too? Get well, quick!

Congratulations to Betty Lou Storey, Harvest Moon Queen.

Nancy Zumerick should really have a good picture in the Neon. She broke the camera getting it taken.

Phi Mu is proud to announce their Snowflake Hostess, Amy Bodal.

The sisters had a great time at the party with the Kappa Sig's and the ATO's. Didn't we, Shirley?

KAPPA ALPHA PSI

The Brothers of Kappa Alpha Psi would like to congratulate Zeta Phi Eta on their hard fought victory in the title game of the IFC football league over the Kappa Sig's.

Behind the winged feet of basketballer Charlie Moore, the crushing defensive play of Mel Lampkins, and the all around genius of Brothers Roger Raines, Cliff Johnson, Ray Logan, Charlie Hopkins and Willard Boyd, the Men of Kappa Alpha Psi finished in second place in their division with a 3-1 record. The one loss was to the champs by forfeit.

Now of course, you know that all fraternity life doesn't consist of football, so in order to prove this to the Kappa girls, a closed party was enjoyed at the home of Brother Hopkins last week. Without a doubt, the good old Kappa Spirit rode high that night.

On Dec. 1, all of the brothers had a ball at the annual semi-formal post Thanksgiving dinner held at the Masonic Hall.

Yes, once again, the Kappa's are really swinging!

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

The volleyball season is about half over now. The two Sig Ep teams are doing well and are improving with every game. The activities are longingly waiting to have another game with the pledges.

A piano, some happy men, and a talented pianist, add up to some real fun. Especially if it is the day just before a vacation is to begin. Yes everyone had a good time, especially the pledges, at the impromptu singing session held at the house.

Some of the brothers went to see the Ohio State-Michigan game. Almost everyone had a good time, that is everyone but a partisan Michigan Fan.

The Sig Ep's would like to extend their best wishes to everyone for a very happy holiday season. We wish a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Congratulations to Sister Betty Lou Storey who holds the honor of being Theta Chi's Dream Girl of 1957-58. The crowning by Bernadine Clark, last year's queen and the singing of the Sweetheart Song by the men of Theta Chi made the Harvest Moon Dance one night to remember for Betty Lou.

These awards are primarily for one year beginning in the fall of 1958, and are for study in Austria, Brazil, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Iran, Israel, Italy, the Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. Administered by IIE, they are financed by foreign governments, universities, and private organizations.

Cover Many Fields

Most of these scholarships are open to candidates in languages and culture, fine and applied arts, sciences, social sciences, philosophy, history and theology. The French program includes forty assistantships for young Americans to teach in French secondary schools and teacher training institutions. Many of the assistants can also take courses in nearby universities.

The awards in the United Kingdom are open only to candidates from labor unions. A college degree is not required for these awards but applicants must be able to follow studies at the college level.

General eligibility requirements are U.S. citizenship, a bachelor's degree by the time of departure (applicants in the field of medicine must have an M.D. degree), knowledge of the language of the country unless waived, a good academic record and good health. Generally, the age limit is 35 years. The Cuban award and certain French awards specify that candidates must be under 30 while the Netherlands awards are for persons under 28.

only materially but also spiritually.

To name a few "Gifts" that we have been given: Freedom, Freedom of worship, Freedom of Speech, and the Freedom to believe according to the dictates of our conscience.

Christmas Is Dedicated To ...

Yet with all of this we have received, if we did not have a time of year when we are motivated by unselfishness and love, to do for others, as he did for us, then our lives would seem so empty. This "Time of the Year" is most appropriately dedicated to a man who did more than anyone else has ever done to show us what love can do in a strife torn and sick society.

It is a time of the year when each of us should ask ourselves, "Am I doing all that is within the scope and influence of my life to bring 'Peace on earth and good will toward my fellow men'".

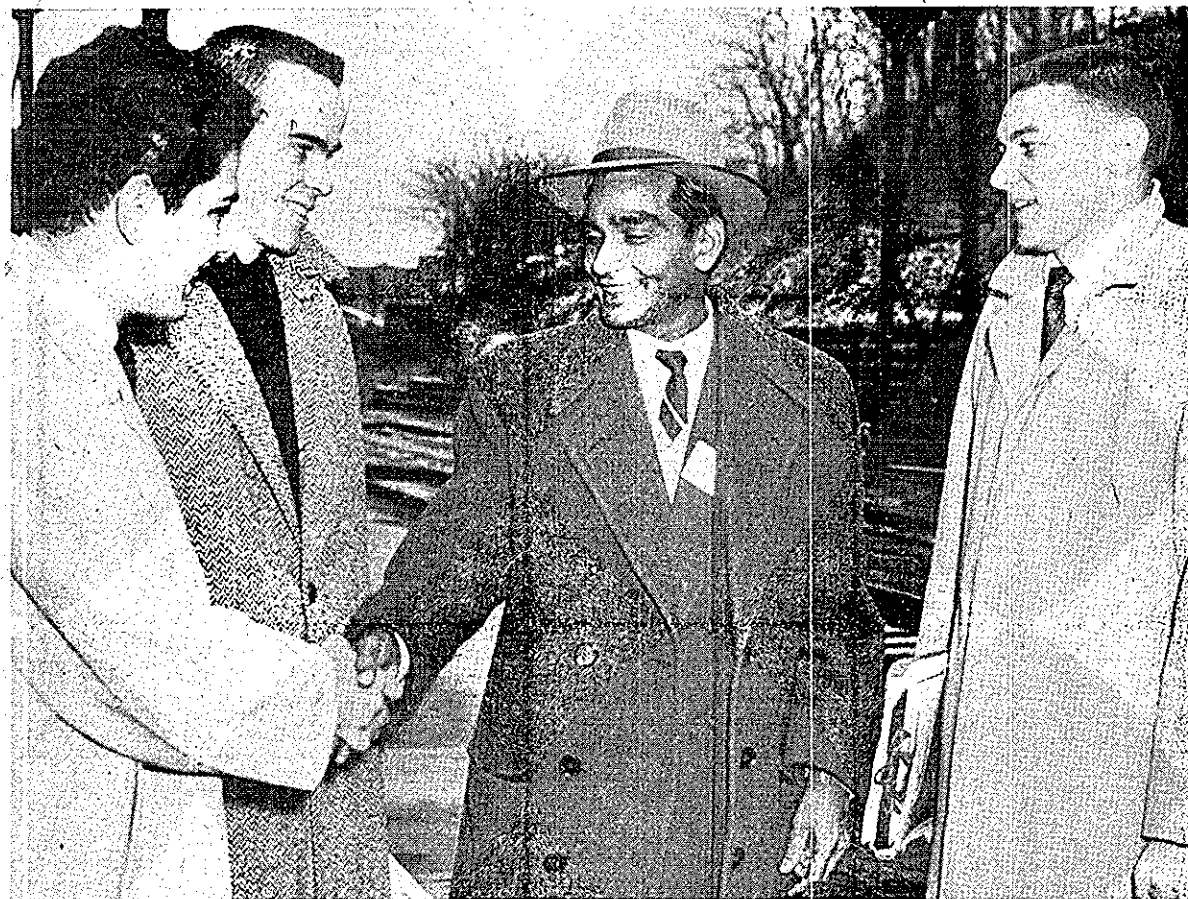

Westinghouse Pays Employees To Attend YU

Of the many companies that are represented at Youngstown University this semester, Westinghouse Electric Corporation is the leader with both students with scholarships and plant employees that are attending school with their own funds or G.I. Bill funds. Attending on Westinghouse achievement scholarships, which are awarded annually to one junior majoring in electrical engineering and one junior majoring in mechanical engineering, are Andrew M. Bernard and Thomas P. Jones, who are in their senior year.

The Westinghouse Industrial Scholarships in engineering are offered for high school graduates of high standing, who plan to study in the fields of electrical, mechanical, civil and chemical engineering. The program permits the students to work part time at a regular job in Westinghouse's Engineering Department and attend school as part time students. The company refunds the tuition for courses completed upon being awarded a degree by the University.

The company also maintains a general scholarship program that pays the tuition of any full time employee who is studying science, engineering, or certain business administration subjects. The student may carry up to six semester hours of work and the company refunds the tuition on completion of work for the degree.

"Crazy hats" was the word at the Tri Sigma-Theta Chi party as the Sigma's and Theta's produced some varied creations that would put Parisian hat stylists out of business. Ya say your mother wants her lamp shade back, Peggy Lou?

The Sigma's have a cook in their midst, and 5 a.m. wasn't too early for Nancy Veauthier to whip up some spaghetti for the hungry sisters at Patty Jo O'Brien's pajama party held recently. But Nancy, you don't drain spaghetti through a tea towel.

Projects have been keeping the Tri Sigma pledges quite busy. Monica Campbell and Peggy Lou Dignan made Thanksgiving a bit happier for patients in Cafaro Hospital by making clever favors. They are also joining in with Alpha Pi Epsilon pledges by dressing baby dolls to make Christmas a bit happier for some.

Big plans are being made for the annual Tri Sigma Christmas party this year. An event for every Sigma and her date to look forward to.

NU SIGMA RHO

The Mother's and Father's were honored at a tea held Sunday, Nov. 24 at the fraternity house. Chairman Joe Vukovich welcomed the parents and guests. Refreshments were served and entertainment was provided by Joe Cortese who showed slides of Disneyland and Homecoming. Dick Baker will make a good maid; he makes terrific coffee. Right, Dick?

This semester's pledge class consists of the following: Wilbur Cole, Ed Bodnar, Ed Keller, Dick Kieffer, Frank Tedeschi, who can all be distinguished by the usual pledge garb.

A swell party was held with the women of Beta Sigma Omicron with Pat Sfara and Barb Niesen stealing the show with their fabulous singing.

Pete "Duke" Torek has been given another nickname "Jitterstick". Ask him why. Also with the brothers the past two weeks were Terry Milam and Chet Miller who have just about finished their hitch in the Marine Corp and will return again in January.

Congratulations to Zeta Phi Eta, the football champs. Nice going, Men!

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority extends a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all.

We congratulate Kappa Sigma Kappa Fraternity who hosted for visiting Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity of Mount Union College for another successful party. The AOPi's had a great time welcoming the ATO's and add our "come-agains" to yours.

Congratulations to Harvest Moon Girl, Betty Lou Storey and to our Harvest Moon Girls, Judi Appelman and Judy Millard who presided at Theta Chi's Harvest Moon Dance, Saturday, Nov. 23.

On Dec. 8, AOPi alumns and collegiates celebrated Founder's Day at the home of Mrs. Arthur D'Orazio, president of the senior alumnae. We, as collegiates, provided the program which included some of our winning songs from Greek Sings and some newly learned AOPi Songs.

The future holds plans for the AOPi's! A Theta Chi party and another singing engagement for the Catholic Collegiate Club, Dec. 12 are on the agenda. Also we'll be looking forward to the coming Snowflake Frolic at which the AOPi hostess will be Florine Fish and on Dec. 19 our Dinner Dance now in the planning by chairman, Sandy Sherwood.

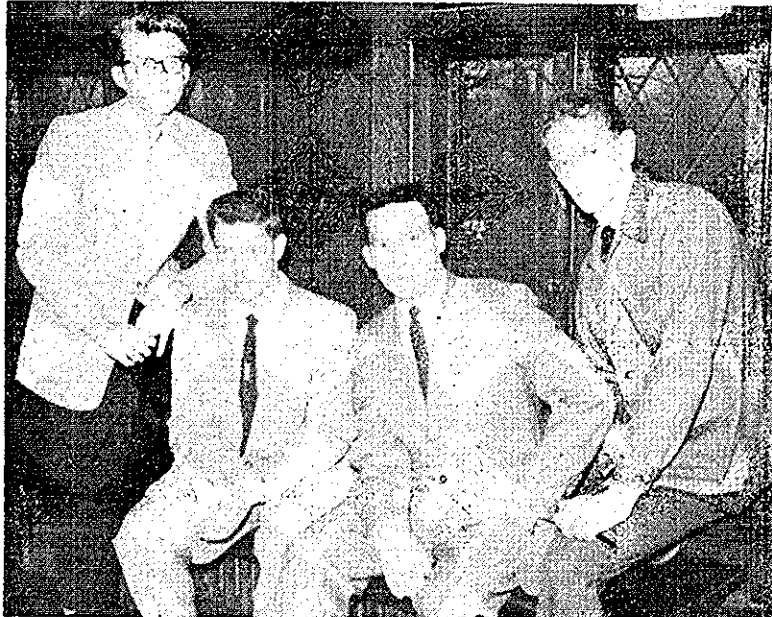

The sisters would like to thank all those who attended our First Annual Sweater Dance. Marlene Botras and Geri Zeller, co-chairmen for the sweater dance, anytime you'd like to be "volunteered" again, just say the word because you did a great job. Winners of AOPi sweaters were Ted Seferiadis of Sigma Delta Beta Fraternity and Patty Sfara of Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON

Congratulations Sister, on winning the Pan-Hellenic "Silver Tray" for having the highest scholarship for the school year, 1957. It truly is the greatest award that could come to the Beta Lambda Chapter.

To add to these honors, sister Barbara Wentz has been awarded the Maud Haines Bernardine Diamond Pin. This pin, given each year for the most outstanding Beta Sig in all of the chapters, is in honor of one of the founders. Barb will receive this pin at a special ceremony in early January, when the National President, Mrs. Kernor visits the Beta Lambda Chapter. This award is given not only for a sister's work in her local chapter but for work on campus in scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Good Luck

Tau Omega, new social fraternity, has received recognition from both Student Council and IFC. The officers that will take the fraternity through its probation period are l-r; Frank O'Block, vice-president; Jim Wilson, secretary; Dennis Bryon, president; and John Madden, treasurer.

Best wishes go to sister Fran Minghetti on her election to the vice-presidency of the senior class.

Congratulations to President Judy

Barrett, hostess at the Snow Flake Frolic. The sisters wish best of luck to Sisters Lois Slicker, Marian Minghetti, and Louise Maron who are candidates for IFC Sweetheart.

The Beta's enjoyed their party with Nu Sigma Rho. They found they have a tremendous scrapbook and some good cardsharks. What about it, Sonny, Judy, Ann and Pat?

In closing, the sisters hope that Mr. Collins and Mr. Niesen have finally gotten back their tools and that the Mother's enjoyed the Tea held on Sunday. It was a success because of the two good chairmen, Patty Sfara and Sue Miller.

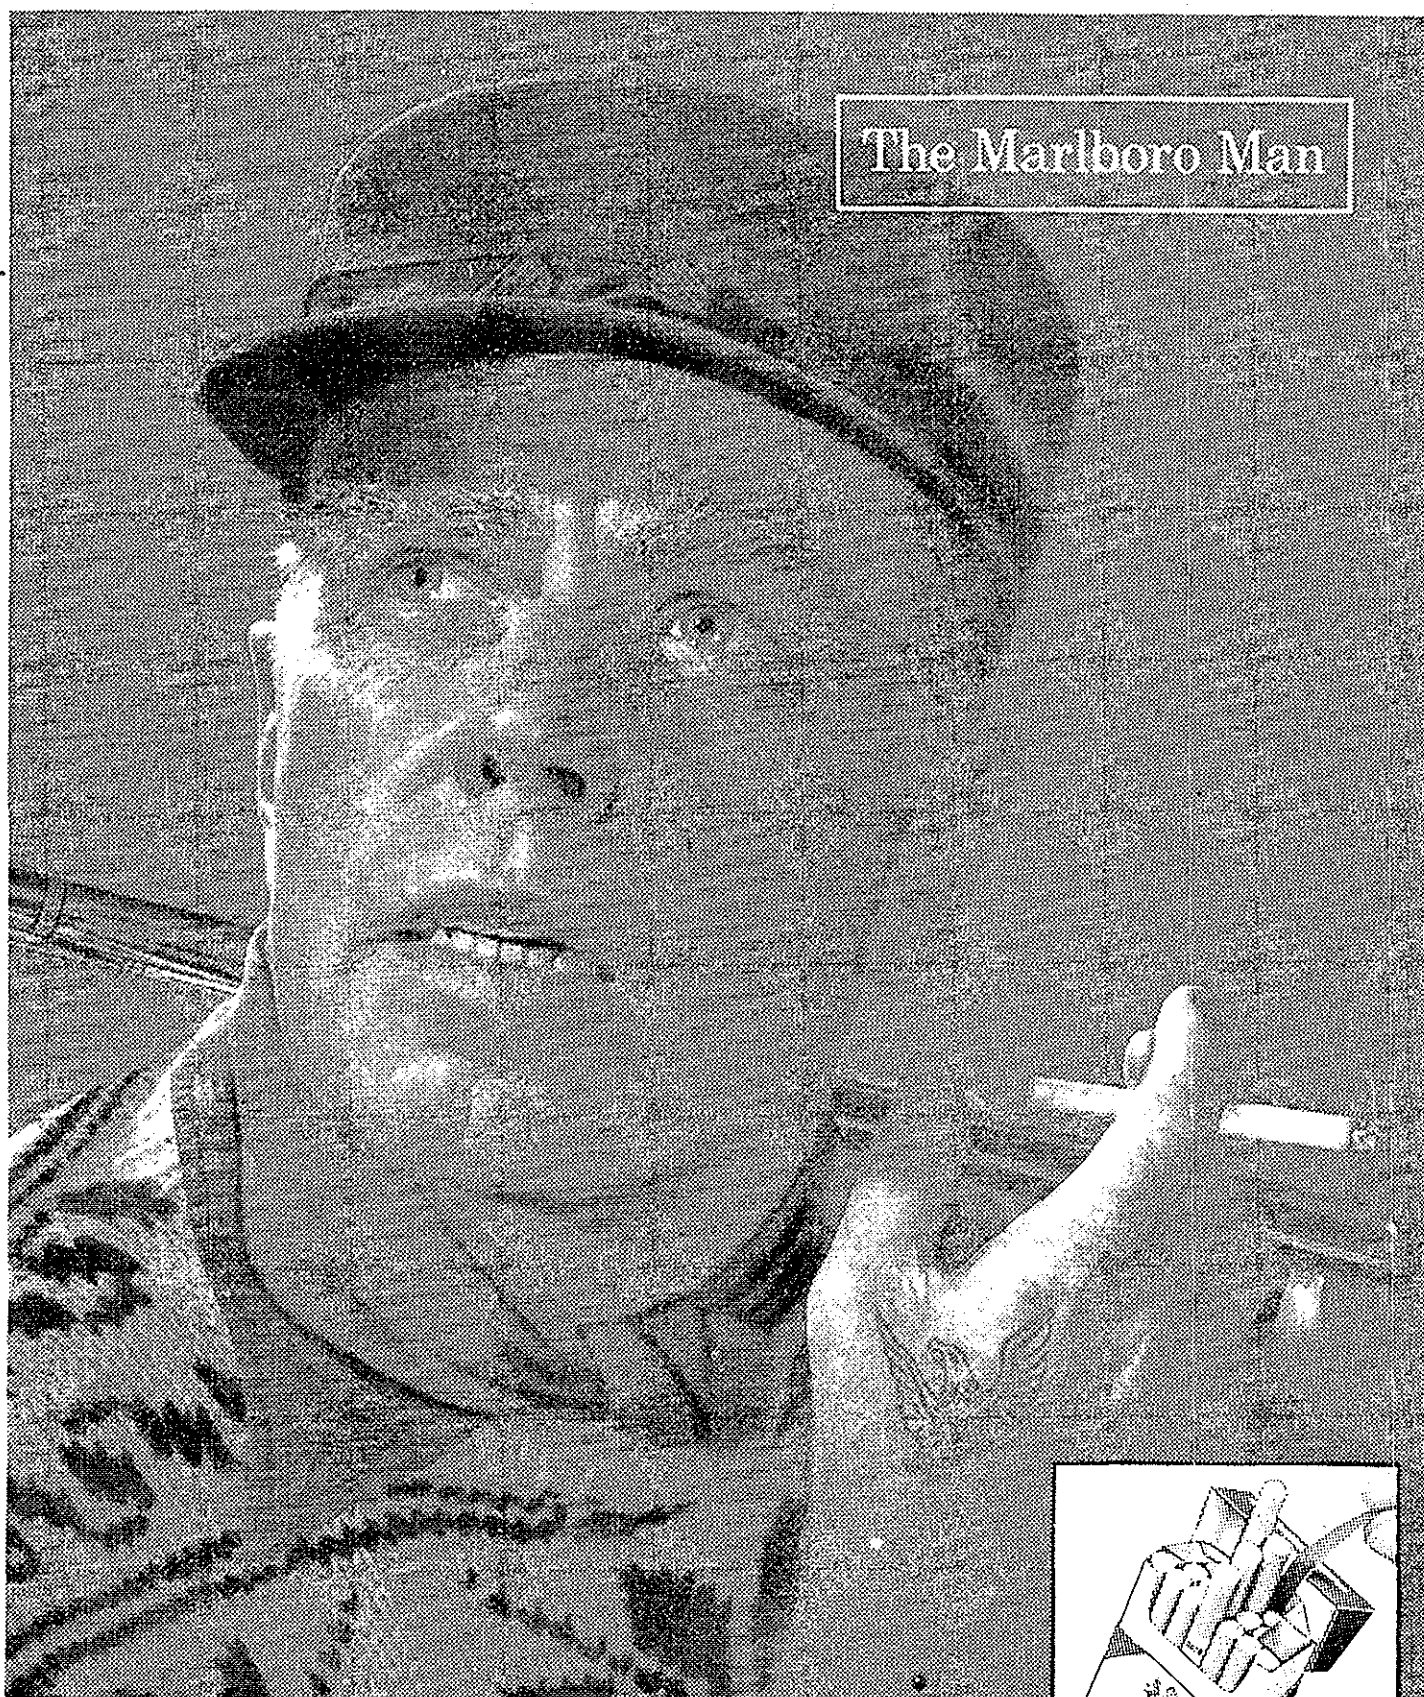

Since all of the turkey is gone, the Beta's are all looking forward to their Christmas Dance Steak Marlon!

PHI GAMMA

The actives of Phi Gamma welcome the 1957 Phi Gamma Pledge Class. The pledge class consists of Sal Barth, Jules Roux, Chuck Collins, Dave Perdue, Chuck Fox, Al Pannozzo, Dean Barber, Tom Syrakis, Jim Douglass, Don Preston and Dave Lake. The Phi Gam's are looking forward to that time when they may call them Brothers.

Jet's Jargon

BY JOHN E. TUDHOPE

The day broke with a cold crisp air and the spirit that prevailed was one that was invigorating to the individual who is not used to such demonstrations. As the day passed, the spirit reached a feverous pitch until the time for the fans to troup to the huge Michigan Stadium.

As the fans were on their journey, there could be heard the undercurrents of muffled cheers for both Michigan and Ohio State. As you approach the stadium it doesn't look like much because there are only about 12 rows of seats showing. Upon going through the tunnel to enter, you are amazed at the size of the stadium. It goes down into a bowl and seats 101,001 people.

This was the only good part of the day that Michigan had to talk about. The Buckeyes came storming back from a 14-10 half-time deficit and completely dominated the play. The Bucks fullback, Bob White, tore the Wolverines line in little pieces. He would carry three and four men with him every time he carried the leather. Most of the time he was hit at the line and just kept churning, carrying the men with him.

Pace Was Only Stalwart

Jimmy Pace was the brightest spot on the Michigan horizon. He was running very effectively and gaining a great deal of yardage in the first half. In fact he kept the wolves in the game. In the second half his line fell apart and he could not move 2 or 3 steps without several Bucks hitting him. The day ended very sadly for the maize and blue.

Just a few fliers on the bowl games (just major ones). I'd lose my shirt if I picked any more. If you want to bet on these games don't refer to this column. You'll lose your shirt too.

With the Christmas season coming up we are going to make a few requests for many of the suffering sportsmen throughout the country. We are asking Santa to leave the following gifts in stockings all over the country:

Paul Brown wants a Tommy O'Connell that will not be easily hurt.

Leave Buddy Parker of Pittsburgh a few halfbacks that don't run like their hip pads are down around their legs.

Frank Lane would like a slick working infield not like the wheelchair cases that played last year.

Youngstown students are requesting that Santa leave a T or a Split T formation.

The people of Brooklyn are screaming that they want "Da' Bums back where dey belong."

Michigan is asking for a new football coach. They aren't the only ones that need one.

The Big Eight Conference hopes that Santa will not give Oklahoma another long win streak.

Moore Begins Last Season As YU Cager

CHARLIE MOORE

By Pete Sloan

Charley Moore is a three year letterman for the Penguin basketball team and is one of the two seniors on the team. He started his basketball career at North High School, where he won seven letters in basketball, football and track. He was a Vindicator All-City choice in basketball.

Charley plays outside guard for the crimson and white. He is also quite a point maker. Last year he totaled 248 points for a nine point average. He dumped in 24 points in both the Alliance and Lawrence Tech game. His favorite shot is the one hand jump and he favors the fast break. Charley is a good play-maker.

On defense, Charley is a ball hawk. Many times his speed has enabled him to steal the ball. His 5 foot 11 inch frame enables him to be alert and agile.

Coach Dom Rosselli had this to say about him, "He is one of the most dependable and conscientious defensive men we have seen Youngstown U. He takes pride in stopping a man, even more so than he does in scoring himself. He is a real ball hound. Charley figures if he can stop a high scoring man he has played a key role in the game."

Charley had this to say about his coach, "Dom is one guy that can put a player into a mood to play basketball. He knows when a player is having an off day. He also can be comical and can be serious when need be." When asked about the toughest game he played, Charley said, "the Steubenville play-off of a year ago."

When Moore graduates, he wants to go into the business field.

Zeta Phi's Win Championship

The Zeta Phi Eta fraternity won the Inter-Fraternity football championship by beating Kappa Sigma Kappa, 12-6. The Sunday afternoon game was witnessed by a cheering crowd of some 130 persons at Borts field. The Zeta Phi's got the ball rolling early in the game. Joe Allegretto passed 40 yards to Dick Magni, with the ball on the 17 yard line. Allegretto passed to Gordie Shook for the touchdown.

The Kappa Sigs' bounced right back to tie the score. Bob Cain passed to Jerry McCarthy who in turn lateraled to Rodger Cain for 15 yards. The two brothers then worked a neat play for a 50 yard gain. Bob ran around end for 30 yards and then lateraled to his brother who carried the pigskin another 20 yards. The touchdown came on a pass from Bob Cain to Jerry McCarthy.

Drawings Made For Tip-Off Meet

The holiday collegiate tip-off tournament, starting Dec. 26 at South Field House, matches in the first game at 5:30 Detroit Tech vs. Geneva. The second game at 7:00 matches West Virginia Wesleyan vs. Westminster; the third game at 8:30 matches Tennessee State vs. Steubenville; and the fourth game at 10:00, Anderson vs. Youngstown.

The winning touchdown came late in the second quarter on a long pass from Corky Parm to Dick Magni, good for a distance of 50 yards. The first half ended with the Kappa Sigs' 10 yards away from the tying TD.

Second Half Defensive Battle

The second half was more of a defensive battle than the offensive first half. Zetas' hard-charging line kept the Kappa Sigs' on the go. Zetas' Corky Parm intercepted two Cain passes to kill TD drives. The Kappa Sigs' had an excellent chance to tie the score late in the game when Al Schwartz intercepted a pass on the Zeta 40.

Bobby Cain ran 10 yards and a pass play executed by the Cain brothers put the ball on the 17. With fourth down and two yards for a first down, Mel Klinger broke through the Kappa Sig line and dropped the winner for three yard loss. Zeta won a hard fought but cleanly played game.

Cagers Edge Fort Knox In Overtime

the Grapevine

By RON VANATSKY

Fans throughout the Tri-State area are anxiously awaiting Thursday, Dec. 26, a day on which an event commences that will bring even more prestige to the City of Youngstown and Youngstown University. The city and the school will be hosts to the Collegiate Tip-Off Tournament, a three day cage show to be witnessed at South Field House.

This Tip-Off meet, which will be the top small college holiday tourney in the nation and the greatest ever held here, may pull close to 10,000 fans. The principal drawing cards will be, of course, the Youngstown U. Penguins, NAIA Ohio State champs and national quarterfinalists, and Tennessee A&I, the country's NAIA champions, the two squads possessing the cream of almost 500 small college basketball teams.

Eight Schools Will Be Represented

The double elimination tourney, comprising eight schools, also including Geneva, Anderson, Ind., West Virginia Wesleyan, Westminster, Steubenville, and Detroit Tech, has slated a consolation bracket for the losers. Youngstown athletic director Williard Webster and Cliff Aultman of Geneva should be congratulated for the superb job they've done in arranging the Christmas attraction.

A campus angle on the blossoming out of sports car rallies in the area is that a Y.U. student is setting the victory pace the past few months in local meets. Jim Eddy, a business major here, recently copped first place in the Penn-Ohio Club area meet on Nov. 24, winning over 42 cars.

Eddy, a service veteran and Boardman, Ohio, resident, in five recent meets has gained solo top honors twice, and tied for first and second spots. Jim has been driving his sleek, championship calibre MG-A only three months.

Fraternity Grid Interest Is High . . .

The recent Interfraternity Football Tourney must be hailed as a rousing success. Chairman Marv Levy and assistants operated the tourney smoothly and with a maximum of efficiency.

While viewing the championship contest played at Borts Field on Nov. 24, there seemed to be almost as much cheering as that witnessed at Y.U. varsity tilts. Now that doesn't make much sense. What do you say we rectify the situation by giving out with some noise at the Penguin basketball games!

Plenty of enthusiasm was displayed last season, but let's really raise the roof at South Field House this year. You would be surprised just how MUCH effect a loyal and cheering crowd has on the boys, and there will be a lot to cheer about.

Ellis Will Be Here With Niagara

One of the basketball season's outstanding highlights should occur when Niagara University, one of the nation's perennial cage powers, appears here on Feb. 1. The Purple Eagles, paced by sensational All-American candidate Alex "Boo" Ellis, a 6-5 star performer, will put the Penguins to a stern test.

Ellis, boasting the nation's leadership in field goal percentage and rebounding, had a 24.3 points per game average for 26 tilts last season. "Boo" holds almost every important school cage standard at Niagara, where Coach "Taps" Gallagher is at the helm for his 24th season.

YU Has Three 6-6 Stars . . .

With Herb Lake and Mickey Yugovich sprouting a few inches over the summer months, the Penguins now boast several tall performers. Charlie Bushman, Lake, and Yugovich now all hitting the tape around 6'6", combine with Jim Cramer, 6-4; Bob Atterholt, 6-3, and John Georges, 6-2, to give the Penguins a very formidable array of big boys.

This awesome combination is going to be hard to stop, with a host of smaller, but just as rough, other players, giving the Ros-sellmen a fine chance to extend their home winning streak to 21 games before Christmas.

How about a Penguin Jayvee - Varsity Y Club contest as a preliminary to the Jan. 8 Y.U. game with Baldwin-Wallace? The fans would really relish the chance to witness a contest like this.

time period iced the verdict.

Herb Lake and Roy Taylor paced the Penguins with 21 and 17 points, respectively. These totals, however, will not go on the NAIA records as the contest was with a non-collegiate squad.

A small boy was hurrying to school, and as he hurried, he prayed, "Dear God don't let me be late. Please, don't let me be late." Suddenly he stumbled and said, "You don't have to shove."

Rifle Team

The Youngstown University riflemen, under the direction of M/Sgt. Felt, will attempt this Friday night to unseat Akron University from their first place position. While talking to this reporter, Sgt. Felt stated that he hopes that the Rifle team will bring home the Lake Erie Conference Championship.

In the last match against Akron, the team kept even with the Akron shooter's right down to the end which resulted in a tied match. Since that time neither school has lost a match in competition. To persons that are interested in fine marksmanship, the match will be held at the Miller St. Army Reserve center on the South side at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 6.

East Kentucky Tops Locals, 13-0

In the season's final played at Richmond, Kentucky, on Nov. 22, Coach Dike Beede's gridders went down to a big Eastern Kentucky outfit 13-0. The loss brought the Penguins record to 3-6 for the season and 85-55-13 for Beede's 17 squads here.

The Penguins, outweighed 20 pounds per man on the line, fought gamely, but fumbles and penalties marred several opportune chances for scores, three of these coming in the first period.

Eastern Kentucky scored on a 48-yard pass play, in the second stanza, and on a sustained drive of 66 yards in the final canto, with sensational John Sebest reeling off the last three yards.

Carter Runs 60 Yards

Ray Carter's 60-yard kickoff return to start the game set up a score, but a Penguin fumble inside the 30 erased the chance. Hanzes passing to the 17 yard marker finally fizzled out and a Kimmel to Giambattista T.D. aerial was nullified on a clipping penalty. Later, Johnson, Kimmel and Carter drove to the 8 but the Penguin bid was again choked off.

The Kentuckians' charging line continuously harassed Hanzes and Santor's pass attempts, and the Q.B.'s were thrown for losses several times.

Intra-Mural Basketball

Dom Roselli would like all teams interested in joining the intra-mural basketball league to send a representative to the athletic office at 12:00 noon on Thursday, Dec. 12.

Sebest's kicking and Polly's passing were quite a sight, as the Southerners easily punted out of trouble and got big chunks of yardage on passing as needed. End Tom Schulte, a pro prospect, caught several key passes in Eastern Kentucky drives.

Seniors Play Last Game

Dependable Jim Vecchiarella turned in an out-standing game on defense in his last start as a Penguin. George Saadey and Ron Stoops, also seniors, looked fine throughout the contest and were constant aggressors to the E.K. offense.

Dave Kimmel, the 4th Y.U. senior in action for the last time was the Penguin's leading ground gainer with 83 yards, bringing his season total to a fine 790 mark. Dave finished his four years at Youngstown with a grand total of 2429 yards gained, a standard which should stand for a long time.

Stoops excited the crowd a bit in the last stanza when he returned an E.K. Kickoff 31 yards with a dazzling bit of broken-field running.

Dave Johnson, sophomore back from Englewood, N.J., looked good in his first start at a wingback slot with only a few days practice, and wound up as the Penguins second leading ground-gainer.

Youngstown had 15 first downs to E.K.'s 10; gained 216 yards rushing to 184; but lost 69 on the ground to E.K.'s 20; gained 59 by aerials on 4 of 7 completions while E.K. gained 75 yards on 6 of 16 passes completed.
