He is a 31-year-old veteran of four and one-half years service. During his time he attained the rank of first lieutenant in the army air forces.

In '37 he received his bachelor of arts degree from the Westminster college in Missouri. He went on to earn a masters degree at the University of Missouri. Now he is working on a Ph. D. in American literature at Western Reserve university.

H. Warren of Playhouse Conducts Classes in Play Production at College

Harvey Warren, new director of the Youngstown playhouse, is conducting classes in play production for the college this year. In addition to two beginning classes with 17 enrolled, Warren is giving advanced work to six students who took primary work under Richard Gage, playhouse director last year. Gage is now at the Harrisburg playhouse, Harrisburg, Pa.

The new director states he will strive to give the classes a comprehensive picture of play presentation from the director's, the actor's and the technician's point of view. Later in the semester, Howard Mattison, technical director of the playhouse, will lecture on the technical aspects of play production.

In addition, to the lecture periods, students are required to put in four hours a week in lab or backstage work. A certain number of backstage hours will be expected of the drama class students for each playhouse production. Divided into crews, the classes will gain practical experience in set-building, make-up, costuming, sound and special effects, as well as acting instruction.

A seasoned director, Warren comes to the Youngstown playhouse from the Mark Twain Maskers, Hartford, Conn. He has been associated with the Garden Players, Forest Hills, N. Y., where he won the Belasco cup in the Little Theater tournament. While serving overseas with the air service in World War I Warren wrote and produced his own play for the men. He has taken work in dramatics at Yale and was director at Rollins College in Florida for eight years.

Seating to Improve Next Three Games

Seating for the next three football games will show an improvement over previous games, it was announced recently by athletic officials. Since the coming games are in the afternoon, students can be assured of having the whole east section to themselves, they state. General admission will be admitted to the student section at 2:30, 15 minutes before game time.

The announcement stressed that Rayen stadium is the largest stadium available for college use, having 10,100 seats of 18-inch width. Students are urged to arrive early for seats at night games. There are 1,980 seats in the east (Continued on Page 4)

Lowery Named Frosh Prexy; Spotleson and Prokop Elected to SC

Jim Lowery, lone nominee, was named president of the freshman class while Fred Spotleson and Peter Prokop won freshman seats in student council at elections held Wednesday. Voting was very light with only 125 ballots cast.

Lowery was the only nominee for freshman president. No nominating petitions for the other three offices of the class were filed with student council. Council plans to take action on the matter early next week.

Competition for freshman-council seats was close with five nominees in the running. Spotleson and Prokop won slim margins over the other three nominees, Dorothy Shurtump, Ladd Lupcho and Michael Vuesta.

Junior, Senior Elections Wednesday, Oct. 16th

Juniors and seniors will elect class officers next Wednesday, Oct. 16. Mrs. Lynn Dana sr. is chairman.

College Enrollment

An all-time high enrollment of 3,460 students at Youngstown College was announced recently by college officials. There are 2,440 day students and 1,020 evening students.

A survey of enrollment shows that there are 1,860 veterans registered in the college, with the ratio of men to women nearly five to one.

The youngest student is 15-year-old George Potor, of 474 Coitsville road, Campbell, a pre-medical student. The oldest student is 51 and the average age of students is just above 23.

The school of business administration leads in enrollment with 844 students. The school of engineering is second with 763 enrollees, and the school of education ranks third with 442 students.

Cheerleaders Appoint Captains for Season

The cheerleaders have elected Jimmy Lowery as their captain and Dave Keaggy co-captain for the football season. The two captains will exchange their positions for the basketball season.

Lowery, speaking for the cheerleading team, expressed appreciation and thanks to Bob Billet for his untiring efforts in the pre-season organizing of the team. "Bob is really responsible for the swell cheering team we now have. If it weren't for him, we probably wouldn't have a team. It was only in following the tradition of the cheerleaders forming an independent organization that Keaggy and I were elected," Lowery said.

Majorette Tryouts

Tony Fortunato, drum major, announces that any girl with high school experience as a majorette and who is interested in marching for the college, should see him in the main office from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. on Wednesdays and from 1 to 4 p. m. on Thursdays.

Put a Feather in Your Cap

"Generosity is a feather in your cap—everybody benefits—everybody gives" is the slogan for the 1946 Youngstown Community Chest campaign which opens Oct. 15 to continue through Oct. 25.

Once again, the students of Youngstown College are called upon to show their generosity and their willingness to help others. In giving to the Community Chest we are supporting the most efficient method known for performing countless services of helpfulness, mercy and goodwill to thousands of the fellow-citizens. For the Chest is not a single agency—it is composed of 30 welfare and social service agencies, which serve Youngstown in its postwar social needs.

The symbol used to represent the Youngstown Community Chest, as well as Community Chests all over the country, is a Red Feather within a circle of 12 blue stars.

The Red Feather was chosen because of its historical background as a symbol of a good deed. The 12 stars stand for 12 months of service every year. Combined, they represent a year-round program of doing good for the community.

In history, the Red Feather dates back to 1355, when the Black Prince decreed that any knight of his who performed an unusual act of valor or chivalry should wear a red plume on his helmet.

Robin Hood's merry men wore red feathers in their caps for each good deed.

An eagle's feather, dyed bright red, worn by an American Indian, showed that the brave had proven his worth as a member of the tribe.

In the same tradition, Community Chest red feathers are symbols identifying those who have undertaken their responsibility as a member of the community.

The Red Feather is also used by the member agencies of the Youngstown Community Chest to identify them as such. For further identification, the agencies are referred to as "Red Feather Services" of the Community Chest.

Youngstown College students benefit by giving to the Community Chest. This benefit is two-fold: first, "giving" brings about a genuine feeling of self-satisfaction; second, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., organizations which play no small part in our college life, are both aided financially by the Community Chest fund. Thus, in giving to the Chest we help the college as well as thousands of people who depend on the other agencies within the Chest corporation for assistance.

So "put a feather in your cap" and help put smiles on the faces of others.

A Slant on Voting

The Tuesday after the first Monday in November an estimated 100,000 people in the Youngstown district will go to the polls to exercise the greatest of all democratic privileges. Some will express their political views in an intelligent manner, voting for those candidates whom they honestly believe are capable of rendering public service. Others will vote a straight ticket regardless of WHO they vote for or what the man can do.

These "straight ticket" voters are the ones who receive the brunt of the party politicians' advances. They are the ones who cost the political parties thousands of dollars per campaign. They are the ones who listen to speeches and ballyhoo because there'll be a glass of beer—or at least cider and doughnuts afterwards. They listen to clever stories and risqué jokes, campaign songs and promises. They let themselves be told how to vote.

It is not the political parties who are to blame when a public office-holder is inefficient and incapable. It is the fault of the poor mis-guided souls who

The Bells of St. John's

By Dorothy Shurtrump

The bells of St. John's have always punctuated the days of YoCoites. Classes are shortened or lengthened by them; time hurries or lags to the tune of the chimes.

Thirty-three years ago the bells were donated by E. L. Ford of Youngstown. Since then they have rung faithfully on the hour, quarter hour, the half, and at three quarters. A short time ago they were sent back to the Boston Clock company for repairs and modernization. It was necessary to wind them at frequent intervals before, but now they are wound automatically.

W. G. Brown, sexton at St. John's, has been taking care of the bells for eleven years. Mr. Brown came to the United States from Wales in 1926 with his wife and son.

The bells of St. John's are as much a part of the college as the students who listen to them. They are no less appreciated by the residents of the district who called Mr. Brown constantly during their absence. "People missed them," said Mr. Brown.

YoCoites wait by them and study by them. There are some who sit in classes from one bell to the next, and some who stop talking when they ring and listen attentively as if they had never heard them before. Every college has its bells... the "Bells of St. John's" are ours.

When the monetary compensation is satisfactory, we complain that the verbal appreciation is inadequate. And vice versa.

YoCo Beautiful

One of YoCo's postwar dreams will soon blossom into reality when the campus around the William Rayen school of engineering will receive a touch of Mother Nature's beauty. The job this time won't be done by the Old Lady herself but by one of her helpers, Mr. Duncan, a local landscape artist. The project is being carried out by the Youngstown Garden club and the alumni of the Old Rayen high school.

The entire north campus will be covered by a beautiful carpet of

New Faces and Books

The library has two new staff members this year: Miss Ruth Park, assistant librarian, and Miss Virginia Blackman, general assistant.

Miss Park has had experience as a teacher and as a high school librarian before coming to Youngstown College. She holds the degree of B. S. in education from Ohio university, and has completed most of her work toward the degree of B. S. in library science at Western Reserve university.

Miss Blackman is already well known to former students for her many student activities while in college. She is one of our very new alumnae, having received her B. A. at Youngstown College last June.

During the summer, there were some changes made. The book on engineering have been sent temporarily to the Rayen Institute because of the crowded conditions.

A fiction room has been opened in room 402. There you will find some good yarns, fantastic, realistic, according to your taste; in historical costume or in modern dress, as you choose.

Dawn over the Amazon by Carlton Beals, All Night Long by Erskine Caldwell, and Koestler's Darkness at Noon have recently been received.

Sinclair Lewis's Cass Timberlane tells the story of a Minnesota judge's second marriage, along with stories of the married lives of his friends. Lewis's latest, but not his best.

Looking Around...

(Author's note: Nothing of importance to go in here, but in the scribbler's clique, if one doesn't have an author's note, one just DOESN'T BELONG!)

BAR BABLE: See where Harvard has scheduled Vassar for football next year and already the lads have started practicing passes... Record of the week: "Jalousie" and "Among My Souvenirs," by Herbie Fields. The leader bends a frantic alto in this opus... Understand the "Sig Delt's" Phantom is an outsider. Yup, he's an Aborigine dwarf who is taking a night course in ceramics... Ever read Elbert Hubbard? Wrote "Message to Garcia." Anyway, he once said, "I would rather be able to appreciate the things I can not have than to have things I am not able to appreciate." Good thought to remember... Quite a few current favorites in the book world today. Here's our opinion on a few. "Dark Wood," knotty, but nice. "Three O'Clock Dinner," tasty. "The Unforseen," couldn't see it! "A Solo in Tom-Toms" can't be beaten. "Razor's Edge" is very sharp. "Foxes of Harrow" is a sly one. Didn't like "Singing Waters," too deep!... Unique approach concerning your return as a columnist, Bud, but a bit too verbose and subtle for the locals, huh?... THE JAMBAR finally has a staff cartoonist that's professional. POEME

"The time has come," the professor said, "to bring the class to quiet."
Then the poor soul, said, "I'll now take the roll so please let's not have a riot."
He pulled out a scroll and started the roll with "Adams," then "Arons," then "Astor!"
With the mob that he had to account for I had wished that he'd read the list faster.
And as he called us, each by name, we sat still so he wouldn't be offended.
And, believe it or not, when he finally called "Zyman," the 50-minute period had ended.

"MISTER and MISS"-CELLANEOUS

Harry DICK BEES tells us that with the clothes problem, the women are "dressed" in... Gamma Sig beauty ROSEMARY QUINN is out of nurse's training and back at the books... Council this Week...

RULED that no regular meetings of organizations shall be held from 11 a. m. to 12 noon on Wednesday. That hour will be reserved for special meetings and class meetings. Permission must be obtained from council for special meetings.

ANNOUNCED results of investigation of the $5 athletic fee charged students at the beginning of each fall term. Larry Blazina, council president, stated the findings: $3 of the fee is for the student football ticket, the remaining $2 is combined with a $2 fee paid at mid-year to pay for student admission to home basketball games.

STARTED an inquiry into why general admission ticket-holders are permitted to sit in the student-section at football games. Council feels that students required to buy football books should be guaranteed seats at games.

MOVED that action be taken toward having the expense of the Freshman breakfast paid out of the student activity fund instead of charging students for the affair.

AMENDED Article I, Section 4, 1a, of the council constitution to read: Within the first five weeks of each fall semester the incoming freshmen shall elect two representatives to student council. Nominations shall be by petitions signed by 25 members of the incoming freshman class and shall be submitted to student council at least three days before the date of the election. Balloting shall be by the method provided in paragraph two of this section.

AMENDED Article III, Section 4, 2a, of the student council by-laws to read: All nominations shall be by petition.

With the Greeks

By Jean Mellinger

This week finds the Greeks busy filling up their social calendars for the semester. Great things are being planned! The frats are brushing up on their bowling techniques getting all set for that league. It really looks as if there will be bigger affairs during this big year.

ALPHA THETA DELTA

Many Alpha Deltas attended the wedding of Florence Anderson and Dave Allen at the Chapel of Friendly Bells on Sept. 19.

The engagement of Tessie Pagliassotti to Dick Waters was announced at a party given by Judy Megala on Tuesday, Sept. 24. The wedding is to be in early spring.

GAMMA SIGMA

The Gamma Sigs had a meeting Tuesday at Lou Guidos'. Jean Porter was co-hostess. The social calendar was discussed and plans were made for the affairs of the semester.

Melva Mantle was appointed publicity chairman.

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA

Several former members were welcomed back to the fraternity at the first meeting. Meetings are held every Wednesday at the club rooms.

Drawings were made for the radio raffle last Friday with P. P. Buchanan, college registrar, taking charge. Ted Welsh was made chairman of the first rush party. Plans are being made for the annual Sadie Hawkins' Day dance to be held in November.

The Kappa Sigs have received an invitation from the Theta chapter of the fraternity at Lebanon college to stop for a visit after the Youngstown - Lebanon football game at Lebanon.

PHI GAMMA

Within the next few weeks Phi Gamma fraternity and Phi Lambda Delta sorority will have a joint date party. It promises to be quite a success due to the originality of ideas involved.

Phi Gamma, after last Monday's meeting, visited the Champion alleys for their first practice in the coming bowling league between the fraternities of the college. Good scores were obtained as 12 candidates for the team exposed hidden talents with the expectation of combat just around the corner.

PHI LAMBDA DELTA

Connie Taylor is chairman and Pat Ford on the committee for the Phi Lamb - Phi Gam party to be held in a few weeks.

Plans are being made for the Phi Lamb sponsored Campus Niter to be held at Pioneer pavilion in Mill Creek sometime in November.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

At a recent meeting the Phi Sigs discussed plans for their semi-formal dinner-dance which will be held at Mashoning country club on Oct. 12. Lou Costa is in charge of the affair.

SIGMA DELTA BETA

A meeting of the fraternity was held on Sept. 30 at the Pick-Ohio hotel. Plans were drawn up for the social activities for the coming semester. There were short speeches given by Brothers Sonntag and Rempes of the Alumni chapter. They informed the actives that the Alumni has already made plans to back the active chapter this year.

Editor Tom Manche of the "Sig Delt" gave a favorable report on the paper for the coming year and it should prove to be better than ever this coming semester.

Drama Students to Meet

There will be a meeting of the Mimes dramatic club at 11 o'clock Wednesday, Oct. 16, in room 212. All students interested in dramatics are invited to attend this organization meeting.

Omicron Lambda Will Take Hike Oct. 13th

Active and alumni members of Omicron Lambda honorary biology fraternity will take a nature hike through Mill Creek park Sunday, Oct. 13. Members and the biology teaching staff are invited to bring a guest and their own lunches. Details will be found on the fraternity bulletin board in room 311 and on the bulletin board opposite the lounge.

At the first business meeting held in room 311 Oct. 2, plans were discussed for the coming year. Meetings will be every Wednesday noon in the advanced biology laboratory. Subjects of interest in the field of biology will be discussed at these meetings. The first discussion will be on "Penicillin, an anti-biologic."

Biology students who have earned or are about to complete eight hours in biological study and have maintained a "B" or better scholarship average are invited to attend the fraternity meetings. Membership includes associate, active, alumni and honorary.

Sigma Tau Delta Elects Officers for 1946-47

Psi Gamma chapter of Sigma Tau Delta national English fraternity elected officers for 1946-47 at an organization meeting at Buechner Hall, Oct. 3. Prof. Karl Dykema, advisor, presided over the balloting.

The new officers are: Ward Baker, president; Lotus Koken, vice president; Evelyn Wining, secretary; Maryanna Tornich was re-elected treasurer.

The business meeting included plans for a membership drive and for revision of the local constitution.

Refreshments were served late in the evening at a buffet table decorated in the Hallow'en motif. Ward Baker, Jay Hoyt and Evelyn Wining were in charge.

Rayen Students to Join Hikers in Park Jaunt

Next Sunday Rayen biology students will meet at the Old Mill, in Mill Creek park with regular hikers for a trip to Rocky Run farm, owned by Dr. F. M. Semans, YoCo professor. The hike will begin at 8 a. m.

Rayen students have joined regular hikers in the autumn hikes led by E. W. Vickers, park naturalist. Sunday, Oct. 6, students hiked along the East-Gorge drive. C. B. Senft, faculty member, led the group which accompanied the regular hikers.

On Thursday evening the hikers met at the Old Mill for the last moonlight hike of the season. The hike closed with a campfire on the west side of Lake Newport.

YoCo Graduate Doing Well at Ohio University

Miss Margaret Evans, head of the art department here, announced recently that Robert Burke, 1946 graduate of YoCo, is "doing very well" at Ohio university, Athens, where he is working on a masters degree in art. Burke received the only "A" in water colors, one of the few "A's" in oil painting and the highest grade in figure drawing in summer post-graduate classes at Athens.

THE ROYAL ORDER OF THE D. S. C.

This article is dedicated with the greatest of malice to those cheerless wonders who so gallantly sat through the Western Reserve game like just so much atomic congestion . . . bless their voiceless bodies!

As far as the cheerleaders of Youngstown College are concerned the student body (the status of such being quite debatable) of our fair school has taken on a new slogan this year which reads . . . "Cooperation is like silence, the more it's talked about the less you get." At least that's the way the score has been adding up of late. The exhibition of cheering put on by the students at the Reserve game last Friday night wasn't loud enough to wake a baby. No game could have been more thrilling and no team more deserving of tribute than was ours that night — and yet the great mass of students that attended just sat around as if they had lead in their plasma.

"What is the reason for this great lack of school spirit?" . . . Ah! that is the rub. The buck is passed by the civilians to the vets (they not having any other excuse) and the vets shove it into their jeans for posterity. Perhaps the blame doesn't lie directly with the vets, but we can be quite sure that their "Park avenue" attitude in this matter has a great deal to do with the deplorable situation.

It seems that a great many of the vets think that it is quite below their station to indulge in an obligation which they term "kid stuff." Perhaps they do not realize that they are shirking a personal obligation, or perhaps it is just easier to remain oblivious to the fact.

At this point we are wondering what can be done to entice the gentlemen in question to step down from their lofty pedestal of pseudo-dignity. However, maybe after a while they will wake up and begin to realize that this thing called "school spirit" to which they have been oblivious as yet, is one of the things that really makes college life worth while. We hope they find out before it is too late. If they don't, however, perhaps we can arrange some sort of compensation for their old age. Something to take the place of the fond memories of college life which they will not have. The D. S. C. has been suggested and maybe that would be just the thing . . . appropriate, at least. Yes! we can see them now, proudly displaying their DISTINGUISHED SHIRKERS CROSS.

★ SPORTLITE ★

By Gen Goers

The "Sportlite" again proudly presents two more active members of our Penguin squad, Mike Durina, quarterback, and Tony Pavlich, tackle.

Mike, blue eyed, brown haired, stands 5 feet 11 inches and weighs 167 pounds. He is a quiet, likeable lad who takes things as they come without a murmur. A capable athlete, he has proven to be of invaluable assistance to the team.

Mike is a freshman majoring in physical education and has hopes of becoming another Coach Beede. He is a veteran of the pingskin parade, having played for Memorial in '41 and '42. He also served three years with the U. S. navy.

When it comes to tackling Tony Pavlich is quite a figure for knocking off the opposition. A husky six footer, he weighs 214 pounds, has brown hair and brown eyes and a wonderful sense of humor. He is more familiarly known as "Pal."

After graduation from Wilson high school Tony served two and a half years in the army. Now a freshman at YoCo, he is majoring in physical education and his aim is the dignified profession of coaching.

★ A SLANT ON VOTING

lacked the foresight and intelligence to vote for a more capable person.

Here at Youngstown College we have elections, too. There may be no political parties (although there are politics). There may be no songs and risqué stories, but an attempt is being made to solicit your vote by pure powers of suggestion and the memory value of attention-getting posters. So far not a single candidate has given you voters one logical reason why you should vote for him.

The people you choose to represent you as class officers and in student council will hold a responsible position. Their job will not be easy. They will have to be smart, capable, dependable; they will have to be leaders and thinkers.

Sophomore elections are today. If you haven't voted yet find out as much about your candidates as you can—then vote for the one you honestly think is the best.

Junior and senior elections will be held Wednesday, Oct. 16. There is plenty of time to get the information you need about the candidates before election day. The candidates themselves will be glad to tell you why they think they are qualified to hold the office they are seeking.

When you go to vote, choose carefully—wisely.

YoCo's Penguins Face St. Vincent Bearcats In Next Grid Clash

The YoCo Penguins will attempt a comeback from the defeat at the hands of Western Reserve's Redcats when they meet a determined St. Vincent eleven next Saturday, Oct. 19, at Rayen stadium, 2:30 p. m.

In 1938 Youngstown was on the short end of a 31-6 decision and again in 1942 we met and were defeated by the Bearcats, 19-7.

Although riddled with injuries sustained in the St. Bonaventure and Western Reserve frays, Coach Beede's squad will answer the opening kick-off with a resounding thud determined to square accounts with the Bearcats for those two crushing defeats.

Head coach of St. Vincent is Batisti Manzini. Henry Jobbi and Barney Foltz are Manzini's assistants.

This game shapes up as a real thriller and no doubt a capacity crowd will be on hand to witness it, so be their early—Rayen stadium, Saturday, Oct. 19, 2:30 p. m.

College Gridders Lose To Western Reserve, 20-13, in Tight Game

By John Wolfe

YoCo's Penguins suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of a powerful grid machine from Western Reserve. With the score tied 13-13 in the final minutes of play and Youngstown headed for what appeared to be a certain touchdown, Ted Mason, Reserve back, intercepted a pass and put on a Frank Merriwell finish to scamper 64 yards before he was downed on the Youngstown one. Three plays later he scored on an off-tackle play to break the deadlock.

Thrill packed from the outset, the game was one of the best ever witnessed at Youngstown. Penguins were out in front in the early minutes of the game on a beautifully executed pass from Durina to Lanzl. Lanzl ran to the 40, and there lateralled to Davanzo who sped the remaining distance to score standing up, completing a 65-yard play. He split the uprights for the extra point and Youngstown led, 7-0.

Reserve came charging right back on a 55-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Durina's touchdown pass to Lanput YoCo out in front 13-7, the placement going wide. But Reserve again rallied and scored on a pass to again tie the score, 13-13.

For the Penguins it was the first defeat in three starts and a heart-breaker to lose. The boys played a "bang-up" game and we can't sell the team short.

SELF-STYLED GENIUSES

In the Realm of Sports

with Ralph Goldich

Hats off to the Greek fraternity organizations for their attempt in organizing a bowling league at YoCo. I know that this league will prove to be a big success, but I would like to make a suggestion to make this bowling league an even bigger success from the standpoint of the student body as a whole.

Of the odd 2,500 independents on our campus five superb bowling teams could be formulated from the male students. These five teams together with the five Greek teams would organize into an ALL CAMPUS bowling league. Each team would meet its opponent three or four times during the playing season. After the completion of the playing season the leading independent team and the leading Greek aggregation would meet in a best out of five series for the bowling championship of the school.

This same procedure could be followed by the sororities and unorganized co-eds on the campus.

Two giant trophies would be purchased with the winning teams' names inscribed thereon. The trophies would remain in the school to be put on display in the lounge or some other appropriate place.

All students interested in organizing bowling teams drop a note to the Jambar. The box number is 69 in the main office. If enough interest can be stimulated in this project it will go a long way in bringing back to Youngstown College the keen competition in intramural sports which prevailed before the war.

section which is held for students until 8 o'clock at night games. The section will continue to be opened to general admission 15 minutes before game time.

No Smuggling

Officials state that there was practically no attempt on the part of students to smuggle their football books out of the stadium at the Reserve game.

Coach Dike Beede stated that the Youngstown team must remain on the west side of the stadium, opposite the cheering section, for very good football reasons. It is the tradition in all sports for the home team to be benched nearest the dressing rooms.
