Dana School’s Opera Workshop Presents Strauss’ ‘Die Fledermaus’

Dr. Dolliver, Madame Cleve
Direct Student Cast of 78

8:00 Curtain Time Tonight and Saturday
Evening in Main Auditorium

The Opera Workshop of the Dana School of Music of Youngstown University will present the operetta “Die Fledermaus,” by Johann Strauss, on Friday and Saturday, April 24 and 25. Performances for tonight and tomorrow evening begin at 8:00.

The production is open to the student body and the public. Students will be admitted free of charge. Public admission tickets will be sold at the door for $1.50 each.

Representing the finest operetta of its genre: “Die Fledermaus,” the production will have a cast of 78 students of the Dana school, including chorus and orchestra.

Several Scenes Listed

The next is no failures;

certainly in trousers,
a velvet-bud
flirtation, they please

French Movie
“Topaze” Next On Cinema “16”

Perrault, one of the world’s most versatile comedians, stars in Pagnol’s classic comedy “Topaze”, a genuine addition to the international roster of classics (1931). The movie will be shown on Wednesday, April 22, and Thursday, April 23, at 9:30 p.m., at the} Editorials...

Avoid Luckless Legion

More than 2,000,000 Americans were drafted into the Luckless Legion of automobile casualties in 1958.

In its annual highway safety booklet entitled "The Luckless Legion", the Travelers Insurance Companies pointed out "This is an army of suffering humanity with more men equal to every year. It is made up of the injured and the dead, the blemished and the innocent, the young and the old. Since the automobile first appeared on the American scene, these ranks of the crippled and the dead have included more than 60,000,000 of us."

"Legion of automobile casualties in 1958. have included more than 60,000,000 of us."

The Luckless Legion is a lost, haunted army. We erect no monuments to it. No grim reminders mar the sleek beauty of the roads and highways which are its field of battle. A newspaper headline, perhaps, marks the induction of the latest recruit. Then silence. Suffering, a fraction of a year. Or the silent memories of those who were numbered among the dead.

There were 33,700,000 Americans during 1958,2,000,000 of whom were members of the Luckless Legion during the past year. For every fatality, perhaps, marks the induction of the latest recruit. Then silence. Suffering, a fraction of a year. Or the silent memories of those who were numbered among the dead.

The Travellers Insurance Companies pointed out "This is the greatest waste of property and human resources in our nation."

"The Travellers Insurance Companies pointed out "This is the greatest waste of property and human resources in our nation."

"The Travellers Insurance Companies pointed out "This is the greatest waste of property and human resources in our nation."

The Luckless Legion is a lost, haunted army. We erect no monuments to it. No grim reminders mar the sleek beauty of the roads and highways which are its field of battle. A newspaper headline, perhaps, marks the induction of the latest recruit. Then silence. Suffering, a fraction of a year. Or the silent memories of those who were numbered among the dead.

The Traveller's Insurance Companies pointed out "This is the greatest waste of property and human resources in our nation."

The Luckless Legion is a lost, haunted army. We erect no monuments to it. No grim reminders mar the sleek beauty of the roads and highways which are its field of battle. A newspaper headline, perhaps, marks the induction of the latest recruit. Then silence. Suffering, a fraction of a year. Or the silent memories of those who were numbered among the dead.

The Travellers Insurance Companies pointed out "This is the greatest waste of property and human resources in our nation."

The Luckless Legion is a lost, haunted army. We erect no monuments to it. No grim reminders mar the sleek beauty of the roads and highways which are its field of battle. A newspaper headline, perhaps, marks the induction of the latest recruit. Then silence. Suffering, a fraction of a year. Or the silent memories of those who were numbered among the dead.
At one point the Slg Eps trailed by a Brahney and ii respectively, for the Sig Eps elimination tourney. Mike Giambatt-knocking them from the double beat the Zeta Phis, 29-25, thus Kline 13 for TKE. John Mandish, by hitting 50% of their field goals in the outfield, Renni Domini, Jerry Kuzma, and Jim player in the tournament. Mandish had 21 points. Beers had 16 and Tom Steele was high for the TKE's in the outfield. Jerry McKinney's superior speed necessitates a switch Rosselli can count upon a trio of experienced flychasers roaming the club's number one slugger, having ironed out his work conflict, pitching to counter all the opposition's efforts. With Tom Razum the pitcher in past years, hits with the best. His talent will be utilized in right and versatile Pete Leonard as a quality reserve as well as Ronnie Stoops. Letterman Don Parm and either Tom Kussic or Steve Rich) have considerably brightened the outlook. Chuey and Santor schedule, comments Beede. "We don't need the freshmen to open aid of freshman." However, due to the high injury rate during the football season, a sufficient number have turned out to field a team without the coaching staff, slightly on the warm side for the players.

At Berea.

Friday, April 24, 1959

PAGE THREE

The JANBAR

THE MANY LOVES
OF THORWALD DOCKSTADER

When Thorwald Dockstader—secretary, trim, and sportsman—first took up smoking, he did not merely choose the first brand of cigarettes that came to hand. He did what any explorer, sportsman, and sportsman would do: he selected several brands and then plotted for resisting, reject, or, judgment of all—Philip Morris, of course!

However, when Thorwald took up golf, he did not simply select the first one who came along. He sampled. For he took up golf as a physical recreation major named Colonel Glower, a hobby of a girl with a good smile and a not so bad look. Then he took up tennis at the club where two young fellows ran 30 laps on the court. They played love games of eight, six doubles of horse, 30 laps on the court, then, a sport of king's tennis. Then they played tennis with eight or more given that they had bring all kinds of food and vary and maybe a noodle sandwich and went home with their respective whirlpool baths.

"Tell me who's Philip Morris?" he said

"There was a deal with Philip Morris and Philip Morris in the world.

Another event the team is anxious to be held this year in Quincy, Illinois. The Penguins are the defending state tournament. In this tournament they will be all Ohio colleges and universities.

An event the team is anxious to participate in the nationals because of the..."
Newman Club May Queen, May Day Chairmen Announced

Congratulations to Peggy Lou, Diane, Sigma Sigma Sigma, on her election as May Queen of Newman Club.

Peggy Lou and Donald Clay, Sigma Pi, have been selected as Co-chairmen of the University's Annual May Day celebration. The candidates for May Day Chairmen were: Peggy Lou, Sigma Pi, and Donald Clay, Alpha Phi Delta.

The selection of May Queen and Co-chairmen was announced at a meeting of the Newman Club held in the campus Union on April 27. The meeting was attended by members of the Newman Club, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Tau Omicron, and their committee on May Day.

W. C. F. Nicholson, chairman of the Newman Club committee on May Day, announced that the May Day celebration would be held in the campus Union on May 10 at 3:00 p.m. The theme of the celebration will be "The Summer of '68: A Time to Remember." The celebration will feature musical and dramatic performances, as well as a May Day parade.

Congratulations to Peggy Lou and Donald Clay on their election as Co-chairmen of the University's Annual May Day celebration.