

"Swede" Hunneke, Former Titan Assists Sweeney

This year Coach Sweeney will be assisted in his coaching job by a former teammate of his from Westminster College, "Swede" Hunneke.

Hunneke played four years under John Lawther as a guard, and he will be remembered as one of the greatest guards Westminster College ever had.

He played with such Westminster "greats" as Bennet, Sweeney, and Wilhelm. His last two years on the floor were the most successful. Paired with Wilhelm and then Krivosh, Hunneke's playing bolstered Titan attacks, and broke up many a scoring threat.

Fans everywhere ohed and ahed when "Swede" went up in the air after a rebound off the back board, or shook himself loose like some mighty machine, and emerged from a mix-up with the ball clasped in one hand. For a player his size he displayed unusual speed.

Hunneke was named on all-Westminster teams, won Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph medals, and was named on many district mythical quintets.

This last September he was married to Jane Holland, of Bellvue, the sweetheart of his college days.
