

*Engineering Dept. partners with Delphi
Packard*

Youngstown State University's College of Engineering signed a partnership agreement on Wednesday with Delphi Packard. The agreement is for research in the electromagnetic field. Dean of the College of Engineering Cynthia Hirtzel said the research collaboration is a great addition to YSU. "If anything it enhances the college," Hirtzel said. Delphi Packard is providing all the equipment needed for the project.