

Taft names Bresnahan new trustee

Gov. Bob Taft announced Friday that William J. Bresnahan has been named to Youngstown State University's Board of Trustees.

Bresnahan, a graduate of YSU, will fill the unexpired term of Charles B. Cushwa III, who died in December. The term ends May 1, 2007.

The new trustee has been president of Hynes

Industries since 1989 and currently serves on the boards of Sky Bank/ Sky Bank Mahoning Valley Region, the McDonald Steel Corp. and Metals Service Center Institute.

Bresnahan also served as chair of the YSU foundation from 2000-03 and the university's Operations Improvement Task Force from 2000-01. In 2002, He and his father, William W. Bresnahan, were named Friends of the University.