

Campus Is Scene of Fire

Fire broke out in the waste paper receptacle behind the Snack Bar at 10:40 on Friday, Nov. 15. The fire was quickly extinguished by the Y.F.D. who arrived promptly on the scene. No damage to the adjacent building occurred but the damage to the receptacle was estimated at $30.

Capt. Vesmar, of the Y.F.D. stated that the fire was probably caused by a cigarette butt carelessly thrown into the waste container.

Fire Hits Campus

Because of the quick action of the Youngstown Fire Dept., the building back of this dumpster was saved after someone, through negligence, tossed a cigarette butt into the container and caused its contents to catch fire.
