

YoCo Faculty Adds Members

New members of the Youngstown College faculty who will teach on the part-time faculty beginning with the opening of the second semester Monday, Feb. 7, are announced today by Dr. Howard W. Jones, president of the college.

The new faculty members and the departments in which they will teach are: Robert L. Craig, 1002 Bryson St., business administration, graduate of Ohio State University and granduate of Yale University with a certificate in labor studies; Howard C. Rempes Jr., 161 Carroll St., photography, graduate of Youngstown College; Miss Lynn Masto, 225 Williamson Ave., art, graduate of Youngstown College and graduate study at Ohio University; Dr. Merrill D. Evans, 121 S. Garland Ave., psychology, graduate of Kansas State Teachers College and the University of Kansas Medical School; Robert J. Resch, 832 Michigan Ave., business administration, Youngstown College School of Law graduate; and Howard M. Conner, Canfield-Palmyra Road, R.D. 1, North Jackson, business administration, Youngstown College.