SPECIAL THANKS TO VOLUNTEERS & SPECIAL PREMIUM DONORS IN 1991

William Ayers of Winona Drive, Youngstown, was one of the many WYSU—FM members to make a pledge in person during the October Fund Drive. Ayers, a YSU graduate and retired city teacher, has been a loyal WYSU-FM listener since 1969 and visits the station each fund drive to pledge.

Note From The Director: Our recent Fall Fund Drive was the most successful ever and you, the loyal listening audience of WYSU-FM made it possible. Your enthusiasm and fantastic response sent the tally over our $32,000 goal at 5:00 pm, Friday, a full 36 hours before the drive was scheduled to end. Thank you! Our loyal cadre of volunteers did a fantastic job, also. They put in long and tedious hours. We could not have done it without them. Thank you! Our underwriters and premium donors came through in great form. Thank you! The staff of WYSU-FM worked themselves into a frazzle but kept the same high energy all the way to the blissful end. Thank you!

—Robert W. Peterson

CELEBRATE THE WINTER SOLSTICE WITH US

WYSU's Celebration of the winter solstice begins on Friday, December 20 at 7:00 pm with Sonic Seasonings 1991. It's a two-hour winter soundscape of seasonal melodies and atmospheres of the past and future.

Synthesized environments melt against acoustic reveries. Ancient carols are heard in new arrangements by flutist Paul Horn, harpist Therese Schroeder Sheker, pianist George Winston, and oboist Nancy Rumbel. New music evokes the old feelings of the holiday season and winter vistas, like Mark Isham's soundtrack to the film Mrs. Soffel, David Borden's "Enfield in Winter", and Wendy Carlo's "Winter", from the rare and classic album Sonic Seasonings.

Draw up a chair to the stereo hearth, tip back a glass of wine and watch the snow fall outside your window or inside your mind, with Sonic Seasonings.

Immediately following, at 9:00 pm, will be the Winter Consort Winter Solstice Whole Earth Celebration featuring the Paul Winter Consort and friends in New York's great Cathedral of St. John the Divine. This year's theme of freedom and cross-cultural ties is celebrated with the Dmitri Pokrovsky Singers, an eleven-member Russian traditional ensemble, and Celtic singer Noirin Ni Riain. Renowned musical pioneer Paul Winter created this special holiday environmental, musical and theatrical ritual, attended by more than 10,000 people.

CELEBRATING CHANUKAH ON WYSU

In a special holiday presentation from National Public Radio (NPR), Theodore Bikel joins the Western Wind Vocal Ensemble in a musical exploration of Chanukah — its history, lore, rituals, and meaning. The Chanukah Story, an hour-long special, will air Tuesday, December 3 at 11:00 am. (Chanukah starts the evening of December 1).

The Chanukah Story uses Sephardic, Israeli, Yiddish and Chassidic folk songs to tell the story of the Maccabean revolt. The program then moves from the history of the holiday to its symbols and themes, with a brief insightful narration by Rabbi Gerald C. Skolnik. Yiddish and Hebrew songs about the Chanukah lights are the focus of the second section of the show, which also focuses on traditional food and includes songs that are actually recipes for Chanukah pancakes. The program exuberantly concludes with a number of children's songs, including a charming new version of the Chanukah hit "I Have a Little Dreidle."

Theodore Bikel returns to NPR this Chanukah to reprise his successful and entertaining performance with the Western Wind. Internationally known for his work as an actor, musician, and raconteur, Bikel is the quintessential narrator for The Chanukah Story. He introduces songs with stories and historical sketches, and ties the many streams of Jewish tradition and folklore into an inspiring program.

The Western Wind Vocal Ensemble is unrivaled as an a capella group. For 22 years, the six-member group has been captivating audiences around the world with its unique blend of music ranging from medieval carols and Renaissance motets to contemporary works and rock 'n' roll. The group brings their exuberance, power and emotional depth to this holiday celebration.

TEXACO-METROPOLITAN OPERA
INTERNATIONAL RADIO NETWORK'S
52ND SEASON

James Levine, Artistic Director Metropolitan Opera

The 52nd consecutive season of Texaco-Metropolitan Opera live Saturday afternoon radio broadcasts will begin on December 7, at 1:30 p.m. on WYSU with Mozart's Così fan tutte and will continue through April 18, 1992, for a total of twenty Saturday matinees.

A highlight of the 1991-92 broadcast season is the world premiere broadcast on January 4 of The Ghosts of Versailles, a new opera by American composer John Corigliano commissioned by the Metropolitan Opera. Described as a "Grand Opera Buffa," this work, with a libretto by American playwright William M. Hoffman, presents a romantic and somewhat tragic view of human relationships, and revolves around several ghosts of historical and operatic significance—Marie Antoinette; Beaumarchais (author of The Marriage of Figaro and The Barber of Seville) and four of his most enduring characters: Figaro, Susanna, and the Count and Countess Almaviva.

The first three broadcasts of the season continue the Metropolitan Opera's commemoration of the bicentennial of Mozart's death, which is being marked by the performance of all seven Mozart operas in the company's repertory during the calendar year 1991. In this season's opening broadcast, Così fan tutte, on December 7, Carol Vanness is Fiordiligi, Delores Ziegler is Dorabella, Dawn Upshaw is Despina, Frank Lopardo is Ferrando, Richard Cowan is Guglielmo, Carlos Feller is Don Alofonso, and Leopold Hager conducts. The next two broadcasts will be conducted by James Levine: Die Entführung aus dem Serail on December 14 with Mariella Devia as Konstanze, Barbara Kilduff as Blondchen, Uwe Heilmann as Belmonte, Anthony Laciura as Pedrillo, and Matti Salminen as Osmin; and Idomeneo on December 21 with Dawn Upshaw as Ilia, Carol Vanness as Elettra, and Susanne Mentzer as Idamante. The artist singing the role of Idomeneo will be announced at a later date.

All four new productions in the company's 1991-92 repertory will be heard during the broadcast season. Following the Ghosts of Versailles on January 4, the new production of Donizetti's L'Elisir D'Amore will be heard on January 25; Puccini's La Fanciulla del West, which has not been broadcast in over twenty years, will be aired on April 11; and on April 18, the final broadcast of the 1991-92 season features Richard Strauss' Elektra.

Peter Allen is returning for his seventeenth season as announcer for the weekly broadcasts, and Richard Mohr produces the popular intermission features, including "Texaco's Opera Quiz" and "Opera News on the Air," which provide entertaining and informative enhancement to the opera of the day.

WYSU RECORD SALE

Technology marches on, and many of you have probably noticed over the past few years a gradual switch to compact disc use over the airwaves of WYSU-FM. The famous masters of yesteryear are slowly being converted to cd format, and a continually growing cd library has enabled us to combine the supreme musicianship of many top artists with the crisp new sounds of compact disc. The old LPs that served us for so long are still quite serviceable to home listeners though, and we have carefully selected thousands of these LPs that will be made available for purchase at very modest prices. Our record sale will take place over four days: Thursday, December 12; Friday, December 13; and Monday, December 16 from 8:00 am until 5:00 pm; and Saturday, December 14 from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm in YSU's Kicawley Center.

Come browse our surplus LPs and take the opportunity to take home some outstanding performances and recordings at once-in-a-lifetime prices. Be sure to come early for the best possible selections. Regardless of whether you are a serious collector, or just a casual listener, this is, as they say, a sale you won't want to miss!

TEN-SECOND OPERA PLOTS

MOZART: Così fan tutti, Saturday, December 7

Mozart debunks austere morality with warm humanity, gentle humor, and sublime music.

MOZART: The Abduction from the Seraglio, Saturday, December 14

An escape from a Turkish harem provides the unlikely but delightful subject for Mozart's brilliant comedy.

MOZART: Idomeneo, Saturday, December 21

Idomeneo's destiny is ordered by a fate his own actions have provoked. Both tragic and dramatic, this opera serial contains some of Mozart's most expressive arias.

VERDI: Aida, Saturday, December 28

In ancient Egypt a beautiful slave princess, Aida, must choose between loyalty to her father and her love for Radames, the leader of the Egyptian forces.

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS A Radio Celebration for the Bicentennial of the Bill of Rights

We Hold These Truths is a truly significant radio event in honor of the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Bill of Rights. This is the only program celebrating the bicentennial of the Bill of Rights and will be heard on WYSU Sunday, December 15 at 2:00 pm the weekend of the anniversary.

We Hold These Truths is a radio drama which sets the Bill of Rights in its historical context and invites us to consider the meaning of the document in the everyday lives of American citizens. The original text of the play, written by Norman Corwin in 1941, was broadcast live on the four major networks and was heard by 60 million Americans as the country went to war. Fifty years later, Corwin, among radio's most respected writers, will reflect again upon the document, bringing the wisdom of his years to bear upon its history and current applications. The program will feature star talent and orchestral accompaniment, with an introduction by former Chief Justice Warren Burger.

We Hold These Truths is a co-production of Otherworld Media and Sparks Media. It is presented by WETA in Washington, DC and distributed by American Public Radio.
