

Hello Daro:

This is the third letter I've started to write to you already. The trouble is I don't have any stamps to send them. I'm standing an all night watch in the office now, and have an hour and a half to go. Man my ass is draggin.

I got a pretty good deal though. I work in the pers nal office, typing and stuff like that. I go to work at 4 in the afternoon and quit at 8 at night. Then I pull this watch every seven weeks. I get liberty every weekend, but no money to go anyplace, liberty every day but no money to go anyplace, and I still I could get the hell out but I don't have no money to get anyplace. What do you think of that.

~~_____~~ write and let me know. I'll write him a letter right after I get through with yours. Where were you the night I left. I called you about three times. I went up the tronics and got by, then I met willie and frankie and they came down the station with me. Tell them they both owe me a letter.

Remember Ray Sobnoski the kid we called WoWo, he's out here taking boot. I pulled his card out of the files yesterday. I'm going down tomorrow and look him up. I wonder if anybody else is here with him. I seen a couple of other kid i new out here tokay going through boot. One of them's from Rayen but I don't know his name.

Hey, do me a favor and get me Dick's address for me. I owe him a letter from boot. His Phone number is 20015, don't forget. I told my mother to get Godwin's and Jeff's for me. I wonder what happened to Jeff man it's been two years since he's been in. That't when I should have left, then i would have had all that time in.

Did school let out yet? What are you going to do, work with the old man again this year. Why don't you have Frankie get you a job. Not selling firecrackers either. In the ~~cont~~ company. Did you get the firecrakers yet. you should try to sell them. Maybe you can pick up a lot of loot. Willie wouldn't make a penny.

Is old "what the hell been coming up your hools still? Man he better get something new for him to invent.

See you ro nd like a toilet seat.
