Historical Background

The Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded in 1913 at Howard University, with a vision of public service as its foundation. Delta Sigma Theta's programs are guided by a five-point program, considering:

- Economic Development
- Educational Development
- International Awareness and Involvement
- Physical and Mental Health

The Delta Lambda chapter was founded in Youngstown in 1951.

The Delta Heritage Project was conceived by members of the Youngstown Alumnae Chapter of the sorority for the purpose of creating a document of the history of the local African American community. The presence of African Americans in the Youngstown area dates to the 1830's; such figures as bricklayer P. Ross Berry and Attorney William R Stewart, State Representative from 1896-1899, made significant contributions to the physical and cultural landscape of Youngstown during the 19th and early 20th centuries. However, it was not until the first half of the 20th century that blacks began to arrive en masse from the South, the peak of migration occurring between the World Wars, drawn to the then- thriving metropolis by the promise of work and relative prosperity that Youngstown's industries could provide. There was still no shortage of adversity to contend with in the new northern environment, but this adversity was often met with courageous gumption and dignified determination to overcome discrimination and attain the equality on which the US Constitution is premised.

Concerned at the dearth of historical information on the Mahoning Valley's African American community and their achievements, the Delta Heritage Project was undertaken by members of the Youngstown Alumnae Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority as an audio-visual documentary of prominent figures and accomplishments of the local black community. Assembled in February of 1999 in celebration of Black History Month, the purpose stated in the Delta Heritage Project pamphlet was to "preserve local history and inspire our youth and community into turning obstacles into stepping stones."
