

Minutes

ACADEMIC STANDARDS & EVENTS COMMITTEE
November 13, 1984.

Present: Barbara Brothers, Chair; Bright, Guzell, Munro, Scriven, Shutes, Tabak, West

- I. The Minutes of November 6 were approved as distributed.
- II. Members identified the following courses as being questionable for humanities credit:

1. ART -- no questions

2. MUSIC

520. Materials of Music.

- Does the course description suggest a theory or a technical course?

- Also, by what mechanism was the "satisfies the humanities requirement" statement included in the course description of the 1984-85, 1983-84 and 1982-83 Catalogs? (It was not in the 1981-82.)

3. SPEECH COMMUNICATION & THEATRE

540. Introduction to Rhetorical Thought.

581. Survey of American Mass Communication.

583. An Audio History of Broadcast Programming.

740. Special Topics in Speech Communication.

745. Individual Studies.

755. Ethical Considerations in Speech Communication.

798. Historical and Critical Research in Speech Communication.

851. Contemporary Public Address.

897. Seminar in Telecommunication.

898. Seminar in Speech Communication.

Note: With the exception of 581, the 1981-82 Catalog does not carry the statement, "satisfies the University's area requirements in the humanities." The statement first appears in the 1982-83 Catalog.

4. FOREIGN LANGUAGES

French:

} These courses cannot be found in the 1984-85 Catalog.

German (cont'd):

- 750. German Cultural Heritage I.
- 751. German Cultural Heritage II.
- 860. Selected Masterpieces of German Literature.
- 861. Contemporary German Literature.

} Should these courses be added to the list?

Italian:

- 708. Italian Civilization I.
--This course seems to be parallel to German 750, which gives humanities credit.
- 840. Italian Literature of the 20th Century.
--This course should be listed.

Russian.

- 615. Intermediate Russian Readings.

Spanish:

- 615. Intermediate Spanish Readings.

5. PHILOSOPHY

- 749. Philosophy of History.
--Cross-listed as History 749. Does this satisfy a humanities or a social studies requirement?
- 860. Mathematical Logic.
--Cross-listed as Mathematics 860. Does this satisfy a humanities or a mathematics requirement?

The following courses have been added to the 1984-85 Catalog. Should they be included on the master list? •
