

Minutes

ACADEMIC STANDARDS & EVENTS COMMITTEE
November 27, 1984

Present: Barbara Brothers, Chair; Conser, Guzell, Munro, Rost, Shutes, Tabak, Tribble, West, Scriven

I. The Minutes of November 20 were approved as distributed.

II. The following courses are considered questionable as fulfillment of the science/math area requirement or have been omitted from the A & S list of recommended courses for the same area:

1. Biology:

QUESTIONABLE:

- 599. Orientation to Medicine.
 - 699. Medical Applications Case Studies.
 - 789. Man and the Technological Society.
--cross-listed as Math 789, Engineering 789 and Sociology 789
 - 560. Paramedical Microbiology.
 - 665. Coniferous Dendrology.
 - 666. Hardwood Dendrology.
 - 676. Silvics.
 - 699. Medical Applications Case Studies.
- } --omitted from A & S list

2. Chemistry:

- 699. Medical Application Case Studies.
- 810. Chemical Literature.

To A & S advisors: Are there any courses in chemistry which do not count toward the science/math area requirement?

3. Geography: ok

4. Geology:

- 604. Megascopic Petrography.
- 607. Geology Laboratory.
- 699. Individual Study.

A & S advisors will be asked if there are any geology courses which do not count toward the science/math requirement.

5. Mathematics:

- 750. History of Mathematics.
--Is this a justifiable mathematics course?

6. Computer Science:

Which of the computer courses should be considered math, which science and which technology?

To advisors in CAST, School of Business, Fine & Performing Arts: Do you count computer science courses as mathematics courses?

7. Military Science:

631. Land Navigation and Outdoor Survival.

8. Physics:

The following courses have not been offered by the Physics Department for some time but have not been removed from the Catalog. Should they be included in the list of courses which can fulfill the science/math requirement?

505. Physics in Science Fiction.

509. Contemporary Physics.

A & S advisors will be asked if there are any courses in physics which do not count toward the science/math area requirement.

9. Astronomy: ok

10. Anthropology:

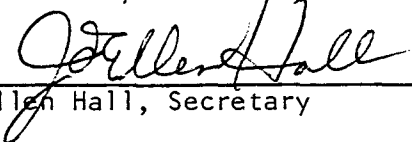

784. Human Paleontology.
--not on A & S list

11. Sociology:

789. Man and the Technological Society.

III. Questions for the Academic Senate regarding general area requirements were collected from members. They will be discussed at the next meeting.

Submitted By:

JoEllen Hall, Secretary

cc: Dr. Gillis
Dr. Esterly
J Maag Library