

Amended Minutes
ACADEMIC STANDARDS & EVENTS COMMITTEE
February 19, 1985

Present: B. Brothers, Chair; Conser, Munro, Rost, Scriven, Tabak, Tribble

- I. Brothers provided a copy of the recommendations presented at Deans' Council on February 12 regarding students having academic difficulties.
- II. Recommendations regarding GPA standards will be tabled.
- III. The following motions were made for students having academic deficiencies, defined as a. students on warning or probation (inadequate GPA for good standing); b. students on conditional admission status; c. entering students with an ACT score of less than 16 (or the SAT equivalent); d. students whose English Placement is for English 520 or 540 or who are recommended for Education 510 until these courses have been successfully completed:
 1. Scriven moved for approval that such students be assigned special academic advisors to monitor their academic registration and progress including drop and adds;^a Tribble seconded; motion carries.
 2. Conser moved for approval that such students enroll in English 520, English 540, Education 510 until these deficiencies are remedied; and, if conditionally admitted, at least one course be aimed at removing deficiencies each quarter until the student reaches unconditional status; Scriven seconded; motion carries.
 3. Scriven moved for approval that a student be required to complete English 520, English 540 and/or Education 510 within the first 45 hours or be limited to only those courses;^b Conser seconded; motion carries.
 4. Tribble moved for approval that students be restricted to less than 12 hours when this is appropriate; Scriven seconded; motion carries.
 5. Scriven moved that motions 1 through 4 be effective when personnel and computer programming are in place, but not later than beginning fall quarter 1986; Conser seconded; motion carries.
- IV. Conser moved for approval that any student who is suspended from the University for academic reasons not be eligible for readmission until the lapse of two academic quarters, for the first suspension; if a student be suspended twice for academic reasons, the second suspension be for a duration of two years; an exception may be granted in rare and unusual cases upon the recommendation to the Provost by the student's advisor, department chairperson and the Dean; Tribble seconded; motion carries.
- V. Unfinished Business: The minutes of February 5 will be reviewed at the next meeting.

^aSpecial academic advisors include both school and department advisors who have been identified as having the knowledge, commitment and time to handle the special problems of these students. Some departments and schools may need additional money (to provide released time for faculty or to hire special advisors) to make possible the fulfillment of these additional advising duties.
